Russia Expels U.S. Attache

Party Boss Hits At Bureaucracy In Soviet Union

Reorganization Plan Is Outlined By Khrushchev

MOSCOW, May 7 (AP) — Nikita Khrushchev lashed out at Soviet bureaucracy today in asking the Supreme Soviet to approve his plan to "transfer the center of gravity" of the Soviet economy.

"There are entirely too many supervisors employed by every factory," the Communist party chief declared.

"Our job is to encourage the quality of production to the point where a worker does not have to have a supervisor standing behind him checking his work."

He estimated the bureaucrats at 850,000 and promised a reduction.

At one point he observed: "We have so many supervisors checking the output of neckties that the quality of our neckties is still pretty inferior."

Plan's Approval Certain

The Supreme Soviet is Russia's equivalent of a parliament. It is certain to approve Khrushchev's economic plan, which calls for 20 large industrial ministries in Moscow to be abolished, with their economic enterprises transferred to 92 new regional economic councils scattered throughout the Soviet Union.

Khrushchev was greeted with applause when he proposed that ministries not to be totally abolished be moved out of Moscow closer to centers of production.

With a grin, the roly-poly Communist leader remarked: "I think the people who are applauding are not from the ministries."

Some Gloom In Moscow

Soviet officials who reside in Moscow are not joyful over the prospect of being moved to cities where life is more Spartan.

Khrushchev laid down a general scheme for decentralization of economic administration. But he made plain that certain large sectors of the economy, particularly armaments and related industries will remain under centralized direction from Moscow.

Khrushchev said his reorganization proposals provide for the regrouping of economic enterprises, ranging in size from big factories to corner grocery stores, into a horizontal or territorial system of organization.

Clarksburg Man Admits Slaying Of Schoolgirl

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., May 7 (AP)—Police said a young, unemployed man signed a statement today admitting he killed 12-year-old Charlene Vilain, who was found strangled in an alley Sunday night.

Authorities identified him as James Burkhamer, 24. He was charged with murder. At a preliminary hearing before Magistrate Mirth Kuhl he was ordered held for action of the grand jury.

"I did it," Burkhamer said when he was taken before the magistrate.

Body Found In Alley

Details of the statement were not released immediately.

The body of the blonde, blue-eyed schoolgirl was found in an alley back of her home. A coroner's preliminary report said she had been strangled and apparently raped.

Burkhamer, of medium height and slight build, lives with his widowed mother a few blocks away from the Vilain home.

Errand Of Death

Charlene, daughter of a motion picture machine operator, went on an errand to a grocery store Sunday night and failed to return. A neighbor of the Vilain family, Willis Walker Jr., told police that as he drove into the alley he saw a man carry a child to a fence and throw her over it. Walker found the body and called police.

Working from information supplied by neighbors, police picked up Burkhamer for questioning late yesterday.

Charlene was one of two children of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vilain. She was in the fifth grade at school. The couple's other child is a 17-year-old son.

House Unit OKs Mail Rate Hikes

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP)—The House Post Office Committee voted today in favor of increasing first-class and domestic air mail rates by about 366 million dollars a year.

The extra money would be obtained by raising the first-class or letter mail rate from three cents an ounce to four cents; adding a penny to the present six cents an ounce rate for air mail letters; boosting the price of stamped postcards to three cents and charging five cents for air mail cards instead of the present four cents.

Meeting behind closed doors, the committee was reported to have approved one whole section of an administration bill aimed at putting the Post Office Department on a more self-sustaining basis. Chairman Murray (D-Tenn) said the vote was "about 2-1" in favor of the higher rates.

The committee will meet again tomorrow to consider proposed increases in second-class mail rates including the postal charges for newspapers and magazines.

President Eisenhower is counting on passage of the postal bill to help him balance the budget in fiscal 1958, which begins July 1.

Window Washer Kills Pedestrian In Death Plunge

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., May 7 (AP)—A window washer fell from the 12th floor of the Chesapeake & Ohio Building today, killing himself and a veteran building maintenance man standing on the sidewalk.

A second pedestrian was injured.

Police identified the window washer as James Ross, 22, of Huntington. They said his safety belt broke.

The porter was Ben Ramsey, about 40, of North Kenova, Ohio. Ramsey was dead on arrival at a hospital. He was a veteran C&O employe.

Alfred Tharp, 59, of Huntington, was injured. His condition was listed as satisfactory.

Administration Backs Gas Bill, With Provisos

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP)—The Eisenhower administration said today it favors the new Harris-O'Hara natural gas bill—provided two changes are made to tighten the prescribed federal supervision over prices.

Rep. Harris (D-Ark), coauthor of the bill with Rep. O'Hara (R-Minn) and chairman of the House Commerce Committee, promptly indicated his concern over the administration provisos.

Those two changes, Harris said, are "more than minor" and actually go "pretty much to the heart of the whole question."

Tough Sledding For Bill Seen

The developments came at Commerce Committee hearings starting another congressional go-round on legislation involving federal price control over natural gas that independent producers sell into interstate commerce.

Harris said after testimony from Charles H. Kendall, Office of Defense Mobilization general counsel who presented the administration view, that the new bill may face some tough going in Congress.

Under the bill, he said, FPC could set a "reasonable market price" and void any new producer contract which provides for selling above that price. The bill also makes clear that the "reasonable market price" is not to be based on producer cost as is done in regulating utility prices, he said.

Proposed Changes

The administration spokesman said the bill "would be in accord with the program of the president" if it includes these two changes:

1. That the ban against FPC considering costs in setting the reasonable market price be stricken from the bill.

2. That the FPC retain authority under the bill to review price increases stemming from definite pricing clauses in already-existing contracts, when those price rises do anything more than just reflect added taxes.

Gen. Smith Improves

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP)—Retired Gen. Walter Bedell Smith was said today to be "making very satisfactory progress" at Walter Reed Army Hospital, where he has been under treatment since April 23 for an eye ailment.

New Anti-Rojas Violence Breaks Out In Colombia

BOGOTA, Colombia, May 7 (AP)—New violence erupted today over a move by Gen. Gustavo Rojas Pinilla's hand-picked Constituent Assembly to give him four more years as president.

Police broke up demonstrations by protesting students, spraying them with dyed red and blue water from high-pressure fire hoses.

Hundreds of students were reported arrested.

The Assembly itself was split wide open by a walkout of followers of Lucio Pabon Nunez, Conservative former interior minister who resigned last week as Assembly president—and as Rojas' right hand man.

Pabon appeared for a few minutes at an Assembly session and when he left 20 supporters trooped out behind him. No reason for the walkout was given.

Presumably Pabon was protesting the Assembly decision, which would derail plans for presidential elections next year.

Rojas' Conservatives are badly divided. Some are siding with the opposition Liberals in demanding elections and return to constitutional rule. Gen. Rojas seized power in the name of the armed forces in 1953.

Discontent over the Assembly action spread. Industrial and business activity was disrupted by partial strikes. Only government-operated banks were open.

Work was interrupted in some factories and on some building projects.

Vehicles equipped with loudspeakers circulated through the business district telling shopkeepers they would be protected if they reopened. No more than one-third of Bogota's shops responded.

Eisenhower Will Appeal To People For Program

When And How To Present Plea Still Undecided

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP)—President Eisenhower is going to follow through on a plan to make a direct appeal to the people for support of his legislative program, now having some rough going in Congress.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty revealed this today but said the President hasn't decided yet just when and how to present a public brief for his embattled budget, the foreign aid program and other items facing critical scrutiny from the legislators.

Hagerty had said a week ago that Eisenhower was considering a direct appeal to the people and indicated then that it would take the form of a radio-television address.

Format Undecided

Today Hagerty said there has been "no final decision on the format or form" Eisenhower will choose.

He said a decision probably will be put off until after the President confers Thursday with congressional leaders of both parties on the $4,400,000,000 foreign aid program.

Hagerty told questioners the White House so far hasn't requested network time for a nationwide presidential address. And he said he does not expect Eisenhower to make any such address this week, though he declined to rule out the possibility.

Possible Outlets

In addition to a possible radio-TV talk, Hagerty said Eisenhower could speak up for his legislative program through news conferences, informal talks to various groups, and occasional major speeches before representatives of specific organizations.

Eisenhower has been using such platforms with increasing frequency to plug for his program. Hagerty noted that the President boosted the foreign aid program in an informal talk in the White House rose garden last week to a delegation representing the League of Women Voters.

Eisenhower will hold a news conference tomorrow at 10:30 a.m., after his weekly meeting with Republican congressional leaders.

Tear Gas Ends Prison Revolt

BISMARCK, N. D., May 7 (AP)—More than 200 inmates, armed with axes and an acetylene torch, barricaded themselves inside the North Dakota State Penitentiary cell block today, but officers broke the revolt by driving the convicts back into their cells with tear gas.

The uprising, which started during a smoking "break" this morning, ended five hours later when city police filled the cell block with the choking gas. No one was injured.

The tear gas attack came after Warden Oscar J. Nygaard returned to Bismarck from Jamestown, 100 miles east of here, and when a count assured guards that no prison personnel were held as hostages.

The entire prison population of 220 inmates began the demonstration outside the twine factory in a protest over food, recreation and some guards.

Refusing to re-enter the factory, the inmates went into the cell block, but would not go into their individual cells.

Convicts broke into a commissary storeroom. They took axes and began smashing everything in sight, it was reported. The acetylene torch was not put into use, however.

Hammarskjold May Go To Israel Today

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., May 7 (AP) — An Israeli delegation source said today the U. N. secretariat had told his delegation "it can be assumed" Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold will go to Israel tomorrow.

Hammarskjold is now attending U. N. meetings in Geneva. He has had an exchange of correspondence with Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion on the possibility of his visiting Jerusalem.

Border Battle Victory Claimed By Hondurans

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, May 7 (AP) — Honduras charged today that Nicaraguan land forces struck across the border this morning and that Nicaraguan planes strafed the Honduran village of Las Manos later in the day.

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, May 7 (AP)—Honduras charged Nicaraguan soldiers struck across the border today with machine guns and hand grenades but were thrown back.

A statement from the military junta governing Honduras said Nicaraguan national guardsmen in undisclosed strength attacked a Honduran garrison on a hill north of Cifuentes at 5 a.m.

"Our troops drove them back without a single casualty on our side," the communique said.

Truce Moves Under Way

Report of the new attack came as Latin-American diplomats tried to bring peace to the troubled border strip along the Mosquito Coast.

(Confirmation was lacking in Nicaragua. President Luis Somoza denied in a telephone interview with the National Broadcasting Co., in New York that his troops had crossed the border. He said only five Nicaraguan policemen were in the area. Presumably he referred to police posted at the Nicaraguan town of Totecacinte, just south of Cifuentes.)

Peace Efforts Jolted

The Honduran report jolted efforts of a three-man committee from the Organization of American States to bring peace to the riverlands and mountains that make up the disputed frontier.

The committee had conferred here until early today with Honduras' ruling military junta about troop withdrawals. Official sources said the junta stood firm on its demand that Nicaragua pull her troops from the area of the Segovia, or Coco, River. Honduras contends the river forms the boundary in the east. Nicaragua claims both sides of the stream.

Costello Draws 30 Days For Contempt

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP)—Racketeer Frank Costello was sentenced to 30 days in the workhouse for contempt today for refusing to tell a grand jury the meaning of a cryptic note found on him.

The note was in his pocket when Costello was creased by an assassin's bullet Thursday night. It apparently referred to a six-figure gambling transaction.

Brought before a grand jury probing the attempted killing of Costello, the gambler refused to talk about the note on the grounds that his answers might incriminate him.

Costello was hustled before General Sessions Judge Jacob Gould Schurman, who directed him to answer the questions. When he still refused, Schurman sentenced him to the workhouse.

Contents Of Note

The note read:

"Gross casino wins as of 4-26-57 $651,284. Casino wins less markers $434,695. Lost wins $62,844. Markers $153,745. Mike $150 per week. Jake $100 per week. L$30,000. H$9,000."

Police claim Costello lied when he said he didn't know who attacked him or why.

However, Costello's lawyer, Edward B. Williams, said he wasn't sure the police had any right to seize the note from Costello, since the racketeer was not under arrest or accused of any crime.

Information Shared

Williams said the district attorney's office is in the habit of handing over grand jury information to other agencies. He pointed out that Costello is involved in income tax and deportation troubles with the federal government.

"I see no constitutional question involved," Asst. Dist. Atty. Alfred J. Scotti replied.

Earlier, police released a description of a pot-bellied man who waddles like a duck and whom they believe took the shot at Costello. They figure him to be an ex-convict.

Birthday Party Fire Death Toll Mounts To Five

ENCAMPMENT, Wyo., May 7 (AP)—Two more children, burned when a flash fire roared through a home during a birthday party, died in a Rawlins hospital today, boosting the death toll in the holocaust to five.

Joy Linda Kincaid, 10, died this afternoon.

Burned to death in the flames were Barbara Alice, whose 5th birthday was the occasion for the party last evening; Theresa Gayle, 3; and Betty Jean, 10 months, children of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith.

Gloria Rybin, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Smith — no relation — died early today at the Rawlins hospital. She is survived by several stepbrothers and sisters.

McCarthy's Widow Backed For Senate

APPLETON, Wis., May 7 (AP) — Rep. O'Konski (R-Wis) today proposed that Jean Kerr McCarthy, Sen. McCarthy's widow, be appointed to complete his unexpired term on the condition that she not run for re-election.

O'Konski suggested in an interview that the Wisconsin Legislature give Gov. Vernon Thomson power to appoint her.

At present, state law provides that a special election be held.

Negro Coed Ousted From U. Of Texas Opera Lead

AUSTIN, Tex., May 7 (AP)—A University of Texas coed was ousted from the lead of a school opera because she is a Negro, a state legislator revealed today.

Rep. Joe Chapman said Barbara Smith, 19, was taken out of the lead after he protested to university officials.

"I think that from a point of public relations that it is probably not smart to create controversy of this type by putting a Negro in a role as a heroine where the script for the opera calls for a white person," Chapman said.

Miss Smith, of Pittsburg, Tex., and university officials refused to comment or confirm that she had been ousted from the role.

However, Chapman said someone from the university telephoned him that the girl was no longer in the cast. He said he didn't recall who telephoned him.

The Austin Statesman today said Miss Smith had been assigned to a minor role.

Miss Smith was to have alternated with Martha Ann Kelly of Austin for the two presentations, Friday and Saturday. Miss Kelly will sing the lead both nights.

She will portray Dido, a Tyrian princess and founder and queen of Carthage, where she entertained Aeneas, prominent in the defense of Troy. The setting is in the ancient Grecian era.

Dr. C. P. Boner, university vice president, said, "We're just not going to have any statement to make to the press." Dr. Logan Wilson, the president, was not in the city.

Explanation Is Demanded By Embassy

Bowe's Expulsion Seen Retaliation For Red's Ouster

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP) — Russia today expelled an American diplomat from Moscow, possibly in retaliation for the recent ouster of a Soviet official from Washington.

The State Department announced that Martin S. Bowe Jr., second secretary of the U. S. Embassy, has been declared personally unacceptable by the Soviet Foreign Office.

Bowe's home is Holyoke, Mass.

The U. S. Embassy protested, and demanded to know why Bowe's departure had been ordered.

Lincoln White, State Department press officer, said the Soviet Foreign Ministry declared Bowe must leave immediately because of "activities incompatible with his status as an accredited diplomat."

State Dept. In Dark

White was asked why Bowe's ouster might have been asked.

"We know of absolutely nothing," he replied.

The State Department last month expelled Gennadi Mashkantsev for trying to lure Soviet citizens in the United States back to the Soviet Union.

Mashkantsev denied he did anything wrong. His job was with the Soviet Embassy's consular service, which is supposed to look after Soviet citizens in the United States desiring help.

In response to questions, White said he had "no idea" whether Bowe was kicked out in retaliation for Mashkantsev's ouster.

Planned Vacation Trip

White pointed out that Bowe was ordered out of Moscow after he applied for exit and re-entry visas which would allow him and his wife to go to West Europe for a brief vacation and then return to Moscow. They had planned a vacation trip this month.

Bowe, 40, was assigned to Moscow Sept. 10, 1953. Previously he had served at Prague, Munich and Berlin. He has been a Foreign Service officer since January 1950.

Mashkantsev was ordered out of the United States after he got in touch with Peter Pirogov who fled the Soviet Union in a Red air force plane about eight years ago.

Pirogov lives now at Alexandria Va., across the Potomac River from Washington.

Troop Proposal Offered By U.S.

LONDON, May 7 (AP)—The United States offered today to tell the world beforehand of any international movement of U. S. troops, even including transfer of forces from the mainland to Alaska.

U. S. Delegate Harold Stassen made the offer to the U. N. Disarmament subcommittee on condition that other nations agree to give such advance notice.

Stassen also called on the Soviet Union to accept an international control system over imports and exports of arms.

Stassen's proposals got a noncommittal reception from the Soviet delegation.

Jules Moch of France gave firm support to the U. S. proposal on troop movements, authoritative sources said.

Stassen emphasized that both proposals should be included in a partial agreement setting the stage for a full-scale treaty ending the world arms race.

Stassen said the troop proposal would cover such movements as the transfer of soldiers from the U. S. mainland to Alaska because they would have to cross international boundaries or international waters.

Langley Removed From Office, Fined

PORTLAND, Ore., May 7 (AP)—Dist. Atty. William Langley of Portland, convicted of failure to prosecute gamblers, was removed from office today and fined $100.

Langley's attorneys immediately moved for a stay of judgment. Circuit Judge Frank J. Lonergan, who pronounced sentence, heard arguments on this in his chambers, but a decision hasn't been announced.

Langley, 41, was convicted April 13. Much of the evidence against him came from gambler James Elkins.

In addition to a possible radio-TV talk, Hagerty said Eisenhower could speak up for his legislative program through news conferences, informal talks to various groups, and occasional major speeches before representatives of specific organizations.

Eisenhower has been using such platforms with increasing frequency to plug for his program. Hagerty noted that the President boosted the foreign aid program in an informal talk in the White House rose garden last week to a delegation representing the League of Women Voters.

Eisenhower will hold a news conference tomorrow at 10:30 a.m., after his weekly meeting with Republican congressional leaders.

Tear Gas Ends Prison Revolt

BISMARCK, N. D., May 7 (AP)—More than 200 inmates, armed with axes and an acetylene torch, barricaded themselves inside the North Dakota State Penitentiary cell block today, but officers broke the revolt by driving the convicts back into their cells with tear gas.

The uprising, which started during a smoking "break" this morning, ended five hours later when city police filled the cell block with the choking gas. No one was injured.

The tear gas attack came after Warden Oscar J. Nygaard returned to Bismarck from Jamestown, 100 miles east of here, and when a count assured guards that no prison personnel were held as hostages.

The entire prison population of 220 inmates began the demonstration outside the twine factory in a protest over food, recreation and some guards.

Refusing to re-enter the factory, the inmates went into the cell block, but would not go into their individual cells.

Convicts broke into a commissary storeroom. They took axes and began smashing everything in sight, it was reported. The acetylene torch was not put into use, however.

Hammarskjold May Go To Israel Today

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., May 7 (AP) — An Israeli delegation source said today the U. N. secretariat had told his delegation "it can be assumed" Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold will go to Israel tomorrow.

Hammarskjold is now attending U. N. meetings in Geneva. He has had an exchange of correspondence with Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion on the possibility of his visiting Jerusalem.

Border Battle Victory Claimed By Hondurans

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, May 7 (AP) — Honduras charged today that Nicaraguan land forces struck across the border this morning and that Nicaraguan planes strafed the Honduran village of Las Manos later in the day.

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, May 7 (AP)—Honduras charged Nicaraguan soldiers struck across the border today with machine guns and hand grenades but were thrown back.

A statement from the military junta governing Honduras said Nicaraguan national guardsmen in undisclosed strength attacked a Honduran garrison on a hill north of Cifuentes at 5 a.m.

"Our troops drove them back without a single casualty on our side," the communique said.

Truce Moves Under Way

Report of the new attack came as Latin-American diplomats tried to bring peace to the troubled border strip along the Mosquito Coast.

(Confirmation was lacking in Nicaragua. President Luis Somoza denied in a telephone interview with the National Broadcasting Co., in New York that his troops had crossed the border. He said only five Nicaraguan policemen were in the area. Presumably he referred to police posted at the Nicaraguan town of Totecacinte, just south of Cifuentes.)

Peace Efforts Jolted

The Honduran report jolted efforts of a three-man committee from the Organization of American States to bring peace to the riverlands and mountains that make up the disputed frontier.

The committee had conferred here until early today with Honduras' ruling military junta about troop withdrawals. Official sources said the junta stood firm on its demand that Nicaragua pull her troops from the area of the Segovia, or Coco, River. Honduras contends the river forms the boundary in the east. Nicaragua claims both sides of the stream.

Costello Draws 30 Days For Contempt

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP)—Racketeer Frank Costello was sentenced to 30 days in the workhouse for contempt today for refusing to tell a grand jury the meaning of a cryptic note found on him.

The note was in his pocket when Costello was creased by an assassin's bullet Thursday night. It apparently referred to a six-figure gambling transaction.

Brought before a grand jury probing the attempted killing of Costello, the gambler refused to talk about the note on the grounds that his answers might incriminate him.

Costello was hustled before General Sessions Judge Jacob Gould Schurman, who directed him to answer the questions. When he still refused, Schurman sentenced him to the workhouse.

Contents Of Note

The note read:

"Gross casino wins as of 4-26-57 $651,284. Casino wins less markers $434,695. Lost wins $62,844. Markers $153,745. Mike $150 per week. Jake $100 per week. L$30,000. H$9,000."

Police claim Costello lied when he said he didn't know who attacked him or why.

However, Costello's lawyer, Edward B. Williams, said he wasn't sure the police had any right to seize the note from Costello, since the racketeer was not under arrest or accused of any crime.

Information Shared

Williams said the district attorney's office is in the habit of handing over grand jury information to other agencies. He pointed out that Costello is involved in income tax and deportation troubles with the federal government.

"I see no constitutional question involved," Asst. Dist. Atty. Alfred J. Scotti replied.

Earlier, police released a description of a pot-bellied man who waddles like a duck and whom they believe took the shot at Costello. They figure him to be an ex-convict.

Birthday Party Fire Death Toll Mounts To Five

ENCAMPMENT, Wyo., May 7 (AP)—Two more children, burned when a flash fire roared through a home during a birthday party, died in a Rawlins hospital today, boosting the death toll in the holocaust to five.

Joy Linda Kincaid, 10, died this afternoon.

Burned to death in the flames were Barbara Alice, whose 5th birthday was the occasion for the party last evening; Theresa Gayle, 3; and Betty Jean, 10 months, children of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith.

Gloria Rybin, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Smith — no relation — died early today at the Rawlins hospital. She is survived by several stepbrothers and sisters.

McCarthy's Widow Backed For Senate

APPLETON, Wis., May 7 (AP) — Rep. O'Konski (R-Wis) today proposed that Jean Kerr McCarthy, Sen. McCarthy's widow, be appointed to complete his unexpired term on the condition that she not run for re-election.

O'Konski suggested in an interview that the Wisconsin Legislature give Gov. Vernon Thomson power to appoint her.

At present, state law provides that a special election be held.

Negro Coed Ousted From U. Of Texas Opera Lead

AUSTIN, Tex., May 7 (AP)—A University of Texas coed was ousted from the lead of a school opera because she is a Negro, a state legislator revealed today.

Rep. Joe Chapman said Barbara Smith, 19, was taken out of the lead after he protested to university officials.

"I think that from a point of public relations that it is probably not smart to create controversy of this type by putting a Negro in a role as a heroine where the script for the opera calls for a white person," Chapman said.

Miss Smith, of Pittsburg, Tex., and university officials refused to comment or confirm that she had been ousted from the role.

However, Chapman said someone from the university telephoned him that the girl was no longer in the cast. He said he didn't recall who telephoned him.

The Austin Statesman today said Miss Smith had been assigned to a minor role.

Miss Smith was to have alternated with Martha Ann Kelly of Austin for the two presentations, Friday and Saturday. Miss Kelly will sing the lead both nights.

She will portray Dido, a Tyrian princess and founder and queen of Carthage, where she entertained Aeneas, prominent in the defense of Troy. The setting is in the ancient Grecian era.

Dr. C. P. Boner, university vice president, said, "We're just not going to have any statement to make to the press." Dr. Logan Wilson, the president, was not in the city.

Explanation Is Demanded By Embassy

Bowe's Expulsion Seen Retaliation For Red's Ouster

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP) — Russia today expelled an American diplomat from Moscow, possibly in retaliation for the recent ouster of a Soviet official from Washington.

The State Department announced that Martin S. Bowe Jr., second secretary of the U. S. Embassy, has been declared personally unacceptable by the Soviet Foreign Office.

Bowe's home is Holyoke, Mass.

The U. S. Embassy protested, and demanded to know why Bowe's departure had been ordered.

Lincoln White, State Department press officer, said the Soviet Foreign Ministry declared Bowe must leave immediately because of "activities incompatible with his status as an accredited diplomat."

State Dept. In Dark

White was asked why Bowe's ouster might have been asked.

"We know of absolutely nothing," he replied.

The State Department last month expelled Gennadi Mashkantsev for trying to lure Soviet citizens in the United States back to the Soviet Union.

Mashkantsev denied he did anything wrong. His job was with the Soviet Embassy's consular service, which is supposed to look after Soviet citizens in the United States desiring help.

In response to questions, White said he had "no idea" whether Bowe was kicked out in retaliation for Mashkantsev's ouster.

Planned Vacation Trip

White pointed out that Bowe was ordered out of Moscow after he applied for exit and re-entry visas which would allow him and his wife to go to West Europe for a brief vacation and then return to Moscow. They had planned a vacation trip this month.

Bowe, 40, was assigned to Moscow Sept. 10, 1953. Previously he had served at Prague, Munich and Berlin. He has been a Foreign Service officer since January 1950.

Mashkantsev was ordered out of the United States after he got in touch with Peter Pirogov who fled the Soviet Union in a Red air force plane about eight years ago.

Pirogov lives now at Alexandria Va., across the Potomac River from Washington.

Troop Proposal Offered By U.S.

LONDON, May 7 (AP)—The United States offered today to tell the world beforehand of any international movement of U. S. troops, even including transfer of forces from the mainland to Alaska.

U. S. Delegate Harold Stassen made the offer to the U. N. Disarmament subcommittee on condition that other nations agree to give such advance notice.

Stassen also called on the Soviet Union to accept an international control system over imports and exports of arms.

Stassen's proposals got a noncommittal reception from the Soviet delegation.

Jules Moch of France gave firm support to the U. S. proposal on troop movements, authoritative sources said.

Stassen emphasized that both proposals should be included in a partial agreement setting the stage for a full-scale treaty ending the world arms race.

Stassen said the troop proposal would cover such movements as the transfer of soldiers from the U. S. mainland to Alaska because they would have to cross international boundaries or international waters.

Langley Removed From Office, Fined

PORTLAND, Ore., May 7 (AP)—Dist. Atty. William Langley of Portland, convicted of failure to prosecute gamblers, was removed from office today and fined $100.

Langley's attorneys immediately moved for a stay of judgment. Circuit Judge Frank J. Lonergan, who pronounced sentence, heard arguments on this in his chambers, but a decision hasn't been announced.

Langley, 41, was convicted April 13. Much of the evidence against him came from gambler James Elkins.

Six Named As Reds At Baltimore Probe Use 5th Amendment

BALTIMORE, May 7 (AP) — Six men invoked the Fifth Amendment before a congressional subcommittee today after an FBI undercover agent identified them as Communists who have infiltrated workers' ranks at the nation's largest tidewater steel mill.

All were employes of the Bethlehem Steel company's sprawling Sparrows Point plant. Each declined to say whether he was a Communist on grounds of possible self-incrimination.

They were identified as party members during a two-hour prenoon interrogation of Clifford C. Miller, Jr., an inspector at Sparrows Point who has been working for the FBI for the last five years. Miller was the first witness as the House un-American Activities Subcommittee opened a three-day hearing on Communist infiltration of industry.

The hearing, recessed in midafternoon, will resume tomorrow.

Miller listed 32 persons as Communists, most of them Bethlehem employes.

The small, brown-haired man told the probers the party has burrowed underground where "it is more menacing than ever."

Balking at subcommittee questions were: Aaron Ostrofsky, Irving Spector, William Wood, Levi Williamson, Joseph Henderson, and Benjamin Fino, all of Baltimore.

Fino, a native of Mexico with a degree in mining engineering from the University of Texas, said he held several government jobs during the 1940s, most of them in marine and coastal survey work.

When asked if he was at that time a Communist, he said: "Not to my knowledge."

When asked if he was now a Communist, Fino replied: "I invoke the privilege." And to later questions he answered only: "Fifth Amendment."

Ostrofsky, a welder identified by Miller as head of the party's steel section at Sparrows Point, asked whether he belonged to any organization conspiring to overthrow the government by force. He said: "Not to my knowledge."

Spector told the subcommittee he was employed at the Army's Aberdeen Proving Ground from 1941 to 1946, but wouldn't reply when committee counsel Richard Arens asked him if he were dismissed for security reasons.

Injured were John W. Ronine of Clear Spring, Md., the driver; Joseph Coziel, 22, of Warren, Ohio, and Jessyie Johnston, 17, of Whitesett, Fayette County, Pa.

The McKeesport Hospital reported all three in fair condition. They were detained for observation. The bus was en route from Pittsburgh to Hagerstown, Md.

Torrio, First Bigtime Bootlegger, Dies At 75

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP)—Johnny Torrio, first of the bigtime bootleggers and the man who gave Scarface Al Capone his start, is dead.

So obscure had he become that his passing went unnoticed for three weeks.

Torrio's death at the age of 75 came to light today when his will was filed for probate in Brooklyn. He left an estimated $200,000 to his widow, Anna.

Torrio died of a heart attack while in a barber's chair in Brooklyn, April 16.

Start Of Battle Over Housing Bill Delayed

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP) — House leaders late today postponed until tomorrow the start of debate on a hotly disputed housing bill designed to prime the flow of home mortgage credit and provide additional benefits to veterans.

Scheduled for consideration during the day, the bill was delayed by an extended floor scrap over denial of funds for operation of the government's new flood and disaster insurance program.

A free-for-all legislative battle was in prospect over provisions of the housing bill to set up a new veterans mortgage program within the Federal Housing Administration, and to authorize use of National Service Life Insurance trust funds to aid GI home financing.

Both Republicans and Democrats had their own bills. Complicating the political division was opposition of many Democrats to veterans housing proposals contained in the Democratic-sponsored measure.

The hint of a presidential veto preceded the start of debate. Rep. Talle (R-Iowa), author of a substitute bill agreeable to the administration, said the President would not accept a "bad bill" containing the veterans preference provisions.

The Talle substitute omits all the veterans provisions contained in the measure sponsored by Rep. Rains (D-Ala) and sent to the House by the Democratic majority of the House Banking Committee.

Sinatra Sues Look, Writer For Libel

LOS ANGELES, May 7 (AP) — Frank Sinatra today sued Look magazine and writer Bill Davidson for $2,300,000, charging libel.

The federal court action cited an article about Sinatra in the current issue of Look. The article was written by Davidson.

Sinatra's petition said the article reported Sinatra sang the national anthem at last summer's Democratic national convention, and:

"Halfway down the runway Sinatra encountered an elderly gentleman, who put his hand on Sinatra's arm and said, 'Aren't you going to sing "The Yellow Rose of Texas" for us, Frank?'

"Sinatra looked at the man coldly and said, 'Take the hand off the suit, creep.' The elderly gentleman was Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn."

Included in Sinatra's action was a telegram signed by Speaker Rayburn, a Texas Democrat, saying: "No such meeting as described ever occurred."

Dulles Flies Home, Reports To President

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles came back today from a week in Europe and reported to President Eisenhower on the state of the Atlantic Alliance.

Dulles and his undersecretary, Christian A. Herter, spent about 20 minutes with the President. Dulles told newsmen later he had given Eisenhower "some of my impressions" of the 15-nation meeting at Bonn, Germany, of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Council.

The NATO meeting was highlighted by a communique that the member nations would use atomic bombs if necessary to defend themselves.

AFL-CIO Sifts Corruption Charges Against Bakers

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP) — Organized labor's own clean-up squad today sifted corruption charges against officials of the Bakery Workers Union. This is a matter due to get attention soon at hearings before Senate rackets investigators.

The closed session by the AFL-CIO's five-man ethical practices committee, which recessed its bakers' probe until May 25, was outwardly uneventful except for a verbal tiff later between rival attorneys.

Meantime Sen. McClellan (D-Ark), chairman of the Senate committee investigating improper labor-management activities, announced postponement of scheduled New York City area hearings from mid-May until at least mid-June.

McClellan ordered the delay after consulting with the Justice Department. He said it was felt improper to probe the New York area situation during the trial, due to start within a few days, of Johnny (Dio) Dioguardi, New York racketeer.

Dio is under indictment in connection with the acid blinding a year ago of labor columnist Victor Riesel.

McClellan said he expects the New York hearings to start around June 15, with Dio due to be "an important witness."

Other sources reported that the Senate committee probably will hold open hearings on Bakery Workers Union rackets charges in the interval before the New York hearings get under way, although no date has been set.

The Senate committee is due to question Teamsters Union President Dave Beck again tomorrow on his handling of that union's funds.

Plane Pilot Spots, Rescues Lost Girl

OLD FORGE, N. Y., May 7 (AP) —Joan (Penny) Grabb, 11, was rescued today after spending a dark and frightening 14½ hours in dense wilderness and near-freezing cold.

Penny said she had been "chased into the woods by coyotes" and became lost. She was unharmed.

A veteran bush pilot, flying a small plane equipped with pontoons, spotted Penny's bright blue sweater in a remote spot near the shore of Big Otter Lake, about 6½ miles northwest of this Adirondack mountain resort. He and three companions landed the plane on the lake and worked their way through the woods to Penny.

Huddled with Penny was her pet beagle dog, Blackie.

Anglo-German Talks Launched

BONN, Germany, May 7 (AP)— Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer exchanged views on Western defense and prospects for world disarmament in a secret meeting today.

They talked for 2½ hours on the first day of the British leader's three-day visit to West Germany.

Informants said there was "a wide coincidence of views," but gave no details to support this assessment.

Macmillan flew to Bonn by jet transport in response to a long-standing invitation for a wide-ranging review of British-German relations with the 81-year-old chancellor.

Adenauer's Christian Democratic party called it "a talk between friends and allies who have left behind them the dark shadows of an unhappy past and worked together for years, closely and in full confidence."

The immediate objective of the meetings was to try to reconcile the widely differing German and British views on Western defense.

McCarthy Laid To Rest Beside Grave Of Parents

APPLETON, Wis., May 7 (AP)— The hectic career of Joseph Raymond McCarthy, its 48 years marked by hard-won triumphs and hard-fought defeats that were climaxed by a turbulent decade in the U. S. Senate, came to a quiet close today.

After funeral services in the overflowing old church where McCarthy was baptized as a child, the body of Wisconsin's Republican junior senator was borne along a two-mile route lined by hundreds more of his old friends and neighbors.

Then, with the throng hushed, McCarthy's body was lowered into a grave beneath a sheltering oak, on a wooded bluff overlooking the beautiful Fox River Valley, in the family plot beside his parents.

The Rev. Adam Grill, pastor of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church who had given McCarthy religious instruction as a local farm boy, intoned a prayer at the grave.

McCarthy's grave is on a wooded promontory above the river, immediately beside the red granite slab marking the grave of his mother, Bridget Tierney McCarthy, who died in 1941.

McCarthy died at Bethesda, Md., last Thursday, four days after he was hospitalized with a liver ailment. After Washington services — including the first in the Senate since that of Sen. William E. Borah — his body was flown to Wisconsin yesterday.

An official delegation of 21 senators, House leaders, White House representatives, former senators and high-ranking personal and political friends of McCarthy followed the funeral plane in six other aircraft yesterday and this morning to attend the last rites.

"Halfway down the runway Sinatra encountered an elderly gentleman, who put his hand on Sinatra's arm and said, 'Aren't you going to sing "The Yellow Rose of Texas" for us, Frank?'

"Sinatra looked at the man coldly and said, 'Take the hand off the suit, creep.' The elderly gentleman was Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn."

Included in Sinatra's action was a telegram signed by Speaker Rayburn, a Texas Democrat, saying: "No such meeting as described ever occurred."

Dulles Flies Home, Reports To President

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles came back today from a week in Europe and reported to President Eisenhower on the state of the Atlantic Alliance.

Dulles and his undersecretary, Christian A. Herter, spent about 20 minutes with the President. Dulles told newsmen later he had given Eisenhower "some of my impressions" of the 15-nation meeting at Bonn, Germany, of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Council.

The NATO meeting was highlighted by a communique that the member nations would use atomic bombs if necessary to defend themselves.

AFL-CIO Sifts Corruption Charges Against Bakers

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP) — Organized labor's own clean-up squad today sifted corruption charges against officials of the Bakery Workers Union. This is a matter due to get attention soon at hearings before Senate rackets investigators.

The closed session by the AFL-CIO's five-man ethical practices committee, which recessed its bakers' probe until May 25, was outwardly uneventful except for a verbal tiff later between rival attorneys.

Meantime Sen. McClellan (D-Ark), chairman of the Senate committee investigating improper labor-management activities, announced postponement of scheduled New York City area hearings from mid-May until at least mid-June.

McClellan ordered the delay after consulting with the Justice Department. He said it was felt improper to probe the New York area situation during the trial, due to start within a few days, of Johnny (Dio) Dioguardi, New York racketeer.

Dio is under indictment in connection with the acid blinding a year ago of labor columnist Victor Riesel.

McClellan said he expects the New York hearings to start around June 15, with Dio due to be "an important witness."

Other sources reported that the Senate committee probably will hold open hearings on Bakery Workers Union rackets charges in the interval before the New York hearings get under way, although no date has been set.

The Senate committee is due to question Teamsters Union President Dave Beck again tomorrow on his handling of that union's funds.

Plane Pilot Spots, Rescues Lost Girl

OLD FORGE, N. Y., May 7 (AP) —Joan (Penny) Grabb, 11, was rescued today after spending a dark and frightening 14½ hours in dense wilderness and near-freezing cold.

Penny said she had been "chased into the woods by coyotes" and became lost. She was unharmed.

A veteran bush pilot, flying a small plane equipped with pontoons, spotted Penny's bright blue sweater in a remote spot near the shore of Big Otter Lake, about 6½ miles northwest of this Adirondack mountain resort. He and three companions landed the plane on the lake and worked their way through the woods to Penny.

Huddled with Penny was her pet beagle dog, Blackie.

Anglo-German Talks Launched

BONN, Germany, May 7 (AP)— Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer exchanged views on Western defense and prospects for world disarmament in a secret meeting today.

They talked for 2½ hours on the first day of the British leader's three-day visit to West Germany.

Informants said there was "a wide coincidence of views," but gave no details to support this assessment.

Macmillan flew to Bonn by jet transport in response to a long-standing invitation for a wide-ranging review of British-German relations with the 81-year-old chancellor.

Adenauer's Christian Democratic party called it "a talk between friends and allies who have left behind them the dark shadows of an unhappy past and worked together for years, closely and in full confidence."

The immediate objective of the meetings was to try to reconcile the widely differing German and British views on Western defense.

McCarthy Laid To Rest Beside Grave Of Parents

APPLETON, Wis., May 7 (AP)— The hectic career of Joseph Raymond McCarthy, its 48 years marked by hard-won triumphs and hard-fought defeats that were climaxed by a turbulent decade in the U. S. Senate, came to a quiet close today.

After funeral services in the overflowing old church where McCarthy was baptized as a child, the body of Wisconsin's Republican junior senator was borne along a two-mile route lined by hundreds more of his old friends and neighbors.

Then, with the throng hushed, McCarthy's body was lowered into a grave beneath a sheltering oak, on a wooded bluff overlooking the beautiful Fox River Valley, in the family plot beside his parents.

The Rev. Adam Grill, pastor of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church who had given McCarthy religious instruction as a local farm boy, intoned a prayer at the grave.

McCarthy's grave is on a wooded promontory above the river, immediately beside the red granite slab marking the grave of his mother, Bridget Tierney McCarthy, who died in 1941.

McCarthy died at Bethesda, Md., last Thursday, four days after he was hospitalized with a liver ailment. After Washington services — including the first in the Senate since that of Sen. William E. Borah — his body was flown to Wisconsin yesterday.

An official delegation of 21 senators, House leaders, White House representatives, former senators and high-ranking personal and political friends of McCarthy followed the funeral plane in six other aircraft yesterday and this morning to attend the last rites.

Plans For Turnbull Dinner Set Off New Speculation

BALTIMORE, May 7 (AP) — Announcement today that a testimonial dinner will be held May 27 for John Grason Turnbull touched off new speculation that the Democratic State senator will be a candidate for some office next year.

Turnbull, Senate floor leader from Baltimore County, has been mentioned as a likely candidate for the gubernatorial nomination. But that particular field is getting crowded. State Comptroller J. Millard Tawes and H. C. (Curly) Byrd, former president of the University of Maryland, have filed for the nomination—more than a year ahead of the 1958 primary.

There has also been talk Turnbull might run for the U. S. Senate, and more recently he has been reported lowering his sights to the office of Maryland attorney general. The incumbent, C. Ferdinand Sybert, also is reported to be interested in the Democratic nomination for governor.

Whatever the office Turnbull may seek, the testimonial dinner apparently will be the kickoff. Such affairs have become the popular mode for airing one's possible candidacy or for making the candidacy announcement if things have progressed that far.

Bill Gives Woman $3,500 Tax Refund

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP) — A Maryland woman would get an income tax refund of $3,500 under a bill passed today by the House.

The bill, which now goes to the Senate, would provide repayment to Mrs. Cornelia S. Roberts of Bowie.

A committee report said Mrs. Roberts erroneously overpaid that amount for 1945.

Modern machines can plant about one thousand seedling trees in an hour.

Queen Annes Residents Vote Teacher Bonus

CENTREVILLE, Md., May 7 (AP) —Residents of Queen Annes County have voted to give their public school teachers a bonus that may average to about $200.

The action was taken at a meeting last night by some 400 persons.

What the exact figure will be is up to the Board of County Commissioners. It will be a compromise between two plans offered at the meeting. One would pay teachers an average of $200, ranging from $100 in the lowest pay scale to $300 in the highest.

That plan, to cost $34,000 a year, would mean a hike in the county tax rate of 9 cents.

The second, calling for an average bonus of $300, would cost $48,000. It would mean taxpayers would foot an additional 13 cents in their tax rate.

Public school teachers in the county receive $3,300 a year to start and can work up to a $4,900 maximum.

The board of commissioners called last night's meeting after the Board of Education asked for help. Harry C. Rhodes, superintendent of county schools, said one principal and 21 teachers had handed in their resignations effective at the end of the term. Queen Annes has 144 on its payroll at the present time.

The cross-section of taxpayers who authorized the bonus decided to wait for a formal salary increase to see what the Legislature does about overriding Gov. McKeldin's veto of a teachers' pay raise. That veto instigated the meeting here last night.

Washington Co. Teachers Given $200 Pay Boost

HAGERSTOWN, May 7 (AP) — Washington County school teachers today were granted a $200 annual pay boost by county commissioners.

The raise, effective in September, will boost the salary scale for the county's 750 teachers from the present $3,400 to $5,200 scale to $3,600 to start and $5,400 after five years.

Chester Delphey, president of the Board of County Commissioners, said the increase will require a $60,000 supplement to the Board of Education's budget this year. That is equivalent to a three-cent raise in the county's property tax rate. But Delphey said the money will be transferred from surplus funds this year.

Baltimore's Crime Rate Takes Big Drop

BALTIMORE, May 7 (AP) — The Baltimore crime rate dropped 26 per cent in April compared with the same month a year ago, but some major crimes were on the upswing, police reported today.

Police Commissioner James M. Hepbron said there was a "remarkable" decrease of 271 cases of auto thefts, even though the rate is climbing on a national scale. There were 402 such cases reported for April 1957.

The average decrease of crimes reported was 20 cases per day last month, Hepbron said. Increases were noted in murder, manslaughter, miscellaneous sex offense and store holdups.

One reason attributed to the reduced overall rate was the incorporation of police dogs to walk beats with some foot patrolmen. And Chief Inspector Fred L. Ford said there was an average of 70 more men working each day as a result of a sharp reduction in the sick list.

Hagerstown Airport Project Authorized

HAGERSTOWN, May 7 (AP) — Plans to expand Hagerstown Municipal Airport to better accommodate jet airplanes today received the blessing of the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

City Engineer Claude Williams said he received a letter from Joseph Mott, CAA district engineer at Harrisburg, Pa., authorizing the city to ask for bids after minor changes in the plans are made.

The work calls for lengthening runways from 4,000 to 5,200 feet and relocating U.S. 111 around the airport.

If President Eisenhower goes to the people now in search of support for his legislative program he will be submitting his popularity and his persuasive powers to a severe test.

The school program and foreign aid, two of the major issues remaining before Congress, involve big spending. And there is a strong tide of public opinion running against spending.

On civil rights, another big issue, the tide runs with Eisenhower, but currently the opposition is both vocal and unswerving.

One of his great difficulties is that, while everybody wants the government to reduce its spending, nobody wants to take cuts which affect them.

That puts the pressure on Congress for cutting in broad general fields where personal interests are not so directly involved, and that means foreign aid. This brings into the debate a not inconsiderable body of opinion which doubts that the foreign aid program is producing results commensurate with its costs.

People have not yet fully identified the foreign aid program with the national defense program.

In this situation, the President will be trying to sell foreign aid against a background of general opposition to the over-all record budget.

Where heretofore he has faced the voters with broad general programs which have been more liked than disliked, the issues are now reduced to a narrower range —that of spending—where opposition is specific, active and rising.

It's a mere item when Boston businessmen re-enact the famous tea party, casting chests labeled "Waste," "Big Budget" and "Spending" into the harbor. But it's indicative.

The President has always tried to avoid pressurizing Congress. Indeed, the new constitutional limit on the presidential term strictly qualifies the pressure which a second-termer can apply.

With the Republicans in a minority at the Capitol, and with many of them including their leader, Sen. Knowland, determined to respond to the public demand for economy, the administration has been reduced to pleading.

Dandelion and bacon salad is a favorite dish in the French province of Champagne.

Russia's Choice Of Kuzmin Is Puzzler

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
AP Foreign News Analyst

Students of Soviet affairs are puzzled about the appointment of a virtually unknown party functionary to head the Soviet Union's top economic agency.

The appointment was announced in Moscow Saturday night. The previously obscure official thus startingly elevated was Iosif I. Kuzmin who is now a first deputy premier of the U.S.S.R. and chairman of its state planning commission. Under terms of a coming board economic reorganization of the Soviet Union the commission is to have greatly enhanced authority.

Kuzmin has thus been suddenly catapulted to a level with such well known members of the ruling Communist party presidium as L. M. Kaganovich, V. M. Molotov, A. I. Mikoyan, M. G. Pervukhin and M. Z. Saburov, who also hold the rank of first deputy premier. These men, with Premier Bulganin, form a body known as the Bureau of the Council of Ministers of the U.S.S.R. It can take decisions on behalf of the entire government apparatus.

Parallel to the puzzle of Kuzmin's elevation is the mystery of the turnabout in the role which Mikhail G. Pervukhin, presidium member and business executive, was originally scheduled to play in the Soviet economic reorganization.

In late December, when the plans for broad reorganization of the Soviet economy were announced in Moscow, Pervukhin was named chairman of the state economic commission with a galaxy of top economic executives, mostly former premiers of the U.S.S.R, serving under him. He was to have authority for planning and coordination of economic activity — and was specifically slated to play a leading role in working out the coming reorganization.

But at the end of March there was publication in Moscow of "theses" of the economic reorganization plan—over the signature of party boss Nikita Khrushchev. This document, surprisingly provided for liquidation of the new super-economic authority headed by Pervukhin and turned its functions over to the state planning commission which was head by Nikolai K. Baibakov. The latter is regarded by some as a protege of Khrushchev.

WASHINGTON, May 7 (INS)—If the United States government was a business enterprise and the boss was required by law to retire in 1960 at the age of 70, his job normally would go to the man who best knew the work.

The man also would need acknowledged leadership within the organization and be so thoroughly familiar with all departments and their trials and tribulations that there would be no interruption in the progress of the organization when the boss hung up his glove.

If this were the case, the next president of the United States would be Sherman Adams. In any large or even small corporation, with the boss soon to retire, Adams would be the one tapped for the top job.

But the astonishing thing about this city, and indeed about Gov. Adams himself, is that his name never appears on the list of possible heirs to the White House job. Some who are mentioned prominently haven't the merest fraction of the drive, intelligence, skill, rhinoceros toughness, or resourcefulness that Adams displays daily without fanfare.

One must live in Washington for a time, or have dealings with the White House, to comprehend even vaguely the exalted position Adams holds. Since January, 1953, he has been without question the number two man in Washington and therefore, perhaps, in the world.

He is an immeasurably more important leader than much better known men with considerably better known jobs.

He is the one man on whom President Eisenhower has depended from the start for firm, honest, selfless answers. Sherman Adams was president of the United States, really, during Eisenhower's recuperation from his heart attack, and yet his name was mentioned much less during that time than, say, Marilyn Monroe or Elvis Presley.

It is a tribute to the man that a country which had abruptly lost the leadership of probably the world's most popular individual sailed on as evenly as if nothing had happened. Somebody was minding the wheel as well as the store. During that period nothing was done in government without the knowledge, if not the approval, of Sherman Adams.

The power which the former New Hampshire governor possesses would, in the hands of another man, be considered a providentially sent means by which he could build his political future. In his case, there is considerable foundation for such construction. Adams is only 58 years old, an offshoot of the Adams family which helped get the republic started, Marine veteran from the First World War, successful lumber man, vote getter par excellence. Happily married, he has four children, is a church-goer, owns to a New England frugality, mixed with international conscience.

But the White House chief of staff has never bothered to convert his power to political influence.? He who might with a nod of the head pave a highway to the big office down the hall apparently doesn't go in for road building. Adams is feared, even hated, by avalanches of special pleaders he ruggedly keeps away from the President.

Whenever there is an attack on the White House, Adams' door flies open and he takes the blow on his flint-like jaw. He feels that it is fitting and proper for him thus to fend for his boss.

Adams can take it. But a question in the White House is, "Can the people who work for him?"

He's up at 6 a.m., at his desk at 7:30 and wonders why in thunderation everybody else is not. He works until 6:30 each night. It is a gruelling day of service for the crisp, sometimes devantatingly blunt buffer between the world at large and his boss. Adams has worn out three cars driving to and from work since 1953, and two stenographers within the past year.

Streams of White House personnel tiptoe in and out of his office each day for advice or approval. He could handle the White House job blindfolded, this unique figure in our complex time. Yet Sherman Adams is mentioned less frequently for the presidency than, let us say, Perry Como.

Bomb-Like Gadget Broadcasts Taped Surrender Plea To Foe

BALTIMORE, May 7 (AP)—Private note to those guys who were at Guadalcanal: Remember Washin' Machine Charlie? And Tokyo Rose?

They're as passe as the P38, prop-driven airplane and pineapple gin.

The Air Force has devised a new method by which it hopes to talk enemy troops into surrendering.

It works this way:

A high-flying bomber drops a bomb-like gadget. After descending to 12,000 feet, a ribbon-type parachute opens, slowing the missile's fall. At 6,500 feet, the missile breaks apart and a 66-foot main parachute opens with part of the missile still attached.

At 5,000 feet, the nose of the remaining part separates, exposing a speaker. Then from 4,000 feet to the ground, the speaker broadcasts a taped plea to enemy troops to surrender.

The project was developed by the Air Force's Air Research and Development Command at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio. Final tests were conducted at Ft. Bragg, N. C.

U. S. troops on Guadalcanal in World War II nicknamed a Japanese flyer, who came over regularly to drop propaganda leaflets, Washin' Machine Charlie. Tokyo Rose was the named used by a female radio announcer broadcasting propaganda for the Japanese throughout the Pacific.

Rocket Ships May Span Seas By 1977

PITTSBURGH, May 7 (AP)—Passenger-carrying rocket ships will fly the Atlantic Ocean or zoom from New York to Los Angeles in a single hour within the next 20 years, an eminent international rocket expert forecast today.

Willie Ley, German-born author and advocate of space travel, made these predictions prior to an address before the Alcoa branch of the Scientific Research Society of America.

Ley said the best guess among rocket experts is that the Vanguard, a U. S. Air Force project, will make its first trip to outer space by next January.

CHECKING HIS STATEMENTS — Clifford Miller, Jr., an FBI undercover agent in the Communist Party in Baltimore, told a House Un-American Activities subcommittee yesterday the party is trying to promote its revolutionary aims through heavy industry's working force. News, Pictures Sent To South Pole Over Air Waves

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 7 (AP)—News and news pictures have been transmitted to the men in Operation Deep Freeze in Antartica by radio facsimile for the first time.

The Radio Amateurs of Greater Syracuse sent a picture of a newspage over the air waves yesterday. The distance is 8,437 miles. The page, put together by RAGS, included a comic strip.

Similar transmissions have been made previously but not to Operation Deep Freeze. RAGS plans to begin regular transmissions at least twice a week.

The men at the South Pole said they appreciated the newspaper material because weather conditions between March and November usually cut them off from receipt of news otherwise.

In Operation Deep Freeze, 293 Navy personnel, scientists and civilians are compiling information in relation to the International Geophysical Year project.

Investigators Report "Weaknesses" And "Deficiencies" In Defense Buying

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP)—The staff of a House Appropriations subcommittee, in a report on defense buying, said today it found "weaknesses," "deficiencies," "delays" and "conflicts."

It recommended an over-all review of Army award practices.

The investigators reported:

1. The Army awarded a 4½-million-dollar contract to the Pontiac division of General Motors Corp. last June 30 for 20mm. guns without incorporating in the contract 51 changes or improvements made in a previous order for the same gun.

2. That 127 Navy airplane radio sets were in "unauthorized" use aboard submarines, and that others were in jeeps or on "loan" to civilian authorities. Meanwhile the Navy is planning to buy more of the radios to meet its aircraft needs, the report said.

3. That at the very time an Air Force spokesman was listing airplane fuel flow transmitters to the House Appropriations Committee last year as a well-stocked item where buying could be deferred, the item was in critically short supply and other Air Force officials had taken steps to buy more.

These instances were among a large number cited by the subcommittee staff in a followup study to a 1956 inquiry into the contract and supply problems of the armed services.

But the investigators found some things to praise, too. They said the Army Signal Corps has taken "notable steps" to improve its contract delivery schedules. The Air Force, they said, is expected to save up to 3½ million dollars a year with a new procedure on excess property and has already saved millions more than anticipated by using two-way radio sets to speed supply information.

The 158-page study also included statements by the military. The services admitted some of the allegations and disputed others.

Perkins McGuire, assistant secretary of defense, reported progress in 1956 toward "the most efficient and effective supply support at the least dollar cost."

The Army acknowledged including only 58 engineering changes in its 20mm. gun contract with Pontiac at a time when 109 improvements had already been incorporated in a previous contract with Pontiac.

But it said the automatic weapon was still in the process of development and in issuing a new contract a "cutoff point" in the number of changes had to be set somewhere.

The way it actually worked out, the Army said, was that Pontiac just kept a continuous production line with the first of the new-contract guns including all the improvements made in the last gun from the previous contract. The new contract finally had 67 changes added to the original 58.

Maryland Seeks Policemen In Pa.

BALTIMORE, May 7 (AP)—Maryland turned to Pennsylvania today in a hunt for new policemen.

Thomas L. Miller, personnel director of the Baltimore Police Department, said he has written to 315 Pennsylvania police chiefs asking that they refer to Baltimore their surplus applicants for police jobs.

Miller said Baltimore probably will need about 500 new policemen during the coming year as a result of deaths and resignations, plus authorization to hire 150 additional policemen.

The Baltimore policeman gets $4,000 his first year, and goes up to $4,500 by his third year.

The Air Force has devised a new method by which it hopes to talk enemy troops into surrendering.

It works this way:

A high-flying bomber drops a bomb-like gadget. After descending to 12,000 feet, a ribbon-type parachute opens, slowing the missile's fall. At 6,500 feet, the missile breaks apart and a 66-foot main parachute opens with part of the missile still attached.

At 5,000 feet, the nose of the remaining part separates, exposing a speaker. Then from 4,000 feet to the ground, the speaker broadcasts a taped plea to enemy troops to surrender.

The project was developed by the Air Force's Air Research and Development Command at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio. Final tests were conducted at Ft. Bragg, N. C.

U. S. troops on Guadalcanal in World War II nicknamed a Japanese flyer, who came over regularly to drop propaganda leaflets, Washin' Machine Charlie. Tokyo Rose was the named used by a female radio announcer broadcasting propaganda for the Japanese throughout the Pacific.

Rocket Ships May Span Seas By 1977

PITTSBURGH, May 7 (AP)—Passenger-carrying rocket ships will fly the Atlantic Ocean or zoom from New York to Los Angeles in a single hour within the next 20 years, an eminent international rocket expert forecast today.

Willie Ley, German-born author and advocate of space travel, made these predictions prior to an address before the Alcoa branch of the Scientific Research Society of America.

Ley said the best guess among rocket experts is that the Vanguard, a U. S. Air Force project, will make its first trip to outer space by next January.

CHECKING HIS STATEMENTS — Clifford Miller, Jr., an FBI undercover agent in the Communist Party in Baltimore, told a House Un-American Activities subcommittee yesterday the party is trying to promote its revolutionary aims through heavy industry's working force. Miller, a native of Charleston, W. Va., who said he has been spying on the party at the huge Bethlehem Steel Sparrows Point plant in Baltimore, was the first witness of the three-day hearing. Here he checks his testimony with Donald Johnson (right), stenographer at the hearing. (AP Photofax)

News, Pictures Sent To South Pole Over Air Waves

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 7 (AP)—News and news pictures have been transmitted to the men in Operation Deep Freeze in Antartica by radio facsimile for the first time.

The Radio Amateurs of Greater Syracuse sent a picture of a newspage over the air waves yesterday. The distance is 8,437 miles. The page, put together by RAGS, included a comic strip.

Similar transmissions have been made previously but not to Operation Deep Freeze. RAGS plans to begin regular transmissions at least twice a week.

The men at the South Pole said they appreciated the newspaper material because weather conditions between March and November usually cut them off from receipt of news otherwise.

In Operation Deep Freeze, 293 Navy personnel, scientists and civilians are compiling information in relation to the International Geophysical Year project.

Investigators Report "Weaknesses" And "Deficiencies" In Defense Buying

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP)—The staff of a House Appropriations subcommittee, in a report on defense buying, said today it found "weaknesses," "deficiencies," "delays" and "conflicts."

It recommended an over-all review of Army award practices.

The investigators reported:

1. The Army awarded a 4½-million-dollar contract to the Pontiac division of General Motors Corp. last June 30 for 20mm. guns without incorporating in the contract 51 changes or improvements made in a previous order for the same gun.

2. That 127 Navy airplane radio sets were in "unauthorized" use aboard submarines, and that others were in jeeps or on "loan" to civilian authorities. Meanwhile the Navy is planning to buy more of the radios to meet its aircraft needs, the report said.

3. That at the very time an Air Force spokesman was listing airplane fuel flow transmitters to the House Appropriations Committee last year as a well-stocked item where buying could be deferred, the item was in critically short supply and other Air Force officials had taken steps to buy more.

These instances were among a large number cited by the subcommittee staff in a followup study to a 1956 inquiry into the contract and supply problems of the armed services.

But the investigators found some things to praise, too. They said the Army Signal Corps has taken "notable steps" to improve its contract delivery schedules. The Air Force, they said, is expected to save up to 3½ million dollars a year with a new procedure on excess property and has already saved millions more than anticipated by using two-way radio sets to speed supply information.

The 158-page study also included statements by the military. The services admitted some of the allegations and disputed others.

Perkins McGuire, assistant secretary of defense, reported progress in 1956 toward "the most efficient and effective supply support at the least dollar cost."

The Army acknowledged including only 58 engineering changes in its 20mm. gun contract with Pontiac at a time when 109 improvements had already been incorporated in a previous contract with Pontiac.

But it said the automatic weapon was still in the process of development and in issuing a new contract a "cutoff point" in the number of changes had to be set somewhere.

The way it actually worked out, the Army said, was that Pontiac just kept a continuous production line with the first of the new-contract guns including all the improvements made in the last gun from the previous contract. The new contract finally had 67 changes added to the original 58.

Maryland Seeks Policemen In Pa.

BALTIMORE, May 7 (AP)—Maryland turned to Pennsylvania today in a hunt for new policemen.

Thomas L. Miller, personnel director of the Baltimore Police Department, said he has written to 315 Pennsylvania police chiefs asking that they refer to Baltimore their surplus applicants for police jobs.

Miller said Baltimore probably will need about 500 new policemen during the coming year as a result of deaths and resignations, plus authorization to hire 150 additional policemen.

The Baltimore policeman gets $4,000 his first year, and goes up to $4,500 by his third year.

"new safe All-in-One capsule discovery for EASY REDUCING

All-in-One Plan now helps you take off your fat while you eat the foods you choose

Do you like sweets, candy, cake, butter, gravy potatoes? Have you tried one thing after another to reduce, spent dollar after dollar for pills and tablets and in spite of everything you've tried you're still too fat? Well, be as skeptical as you like, but NOW, right NOW, there's a wonderful new kind of capsule that helps you take off pounds and inches of ugly fat safely, quickly and so much easier you hardly know what's happening. You don't suffer starvation dieting hunger, you take no drugs, you don't exercise. In fact, you don't even diet one bit more than you want to, because you automatically eat less and here's why...

counteracts hunger

Just recently a well known scientist perfected a new tiny capsule that combines not one but ALL THE RECOGNIZED proven aids to reducing. It combines the vitamins and minerals often lost when cutting off fattening foods containing these needed vitamins and minerals. It combines the vegetable cellulose that has no calories yet expands when it absorbs water thereby helping give the feeling of a full, contented stomach. In fact these tiny capsules are so packed with vitamins and minerals, protein and non-caloric filling food, they actually equal and exceed many a meal.

fat goes fast

You'll be surprised at the fat you lose the first week, the inches that disappear the first month. No hunger, no strict dieting, no drugs, no exercise. And the cost is absolutely nothing unless you grow slim, more youthful looking, more active and enjoy better health.

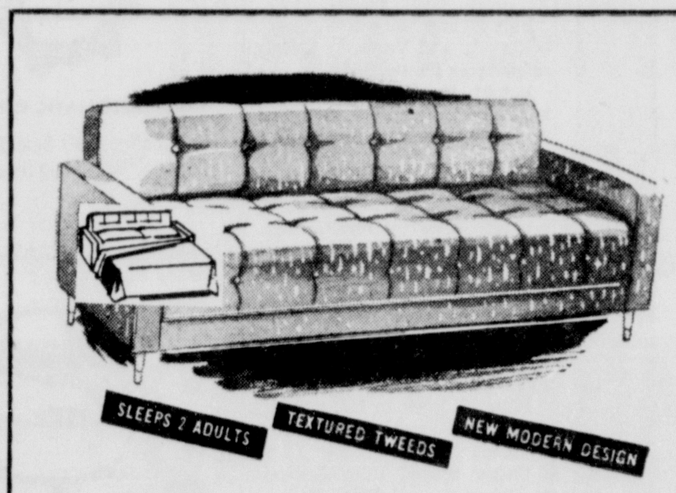

We certify that ALL-IN-ONE CAPSULES are entirely safe for human consumption

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

Take Stock Of Yourself

Any problems today? Take your own personal inventory and decide!

Is your hair becomingly styled? Is you skin fresh and clear? Do your eyes sparkle? Does your makeup look natural? Is your voice pleasingly pitched?

Your Thighs

How can thighs be built up? Walking is good—so is massage. Instead of bending from the waist to any task, squat down. And try this: With feet together, hands on the back of a chair, rise to your toes and squat to the floor. Spread your knees wide. In squatting position, stretch the right, then the left leg to the side. Rise to your full height and repeat the sequence 10 to 15 times.

Is it possible to reduce the bossom? While you're standing straight, feet astride, swing the arms in broad backward circles, 10 times slowly and 10 times rapidly. Another exercise (to be performed in sitting position) is this: arms over your head, thrust them back 6 times; repeat with arms at a slight outward angle, 6 times; then 6 hard pushes with arms at shoulder level.

A Facial Problem

How can you get rid of blackheads? Remove stubborn blackheads near the skin surface this way: wring out a washcloth in hot water and hold it over the problem area. Remove it after a few seconds and gently press around the blackboard, using a small piece of cotton or a special blackhead extractor. Disinfect the area afterwards with alcohol. Never, never squeeze a blackhead!

Tomorrow: Care for the little girl's hair.

Large Downtown Building Is Sold

A number of appartments are located on the three upper floors. Finan said there are no plans to change any of the present tenants.

Boy Put On Probation On Loitering Charge

A 16-year-old local boy was given his "last chance" in Juvenile Court yesterday.

Juvenile Magistrate Fred H. Anderson tried the youth after he had been arrested by Officer Harry Iser for loitering around the local bus station.

Magistrate Anderson sentenced the youth to the Maryland Training School for Boys, and then suspended the sentence and placed him on probation for two years.

The judge noted that the boy had a previous record in juvenile court, and that the loitering has been going on for more than a year.

Japanese Operate On Hiroshima Girls

HIROSHIMA, Japan, May 7 (AP)—The first of a series of plastic surgery operations in Japan on 18 Hiroshima girls disfigured by the 1945 A-bomb blast started yesterday.

Machiki Yoshimoto, 21, was the first patient. Her treatment is to correct deformities on her right arm. The 17 others will be treated later.

Selected by American doctors, they were unable to go to New York for surgery, as did an earlier group of 25 in May 1955.

Dr. Tomio Harada and Dr. Sadamu Takahashi, who accompanied the 25 to the United States to learn plastic surgery techniques, conducted the operation today. It lasted two hours.

Surgery costs will be paid by the government. Norman Cousins, editor of the U. S. magazine Saturday Review and head of the Hiroshima Peace Assn., is contributing. Cousins sponsored the original 25.

The organization held its fourth annual meeting in the LaVale Fire Hall over the weekend.

Run-off ballots are being mailed to the state vice president, John R. Arrington, Marriottsville. The results will be listed in about two weeks.

Elected to the two vice president positions were William Eggers, of Oakland, and Damon Wright, Flintstone.

Re-elected secretary was George Swain of Little Orleans.

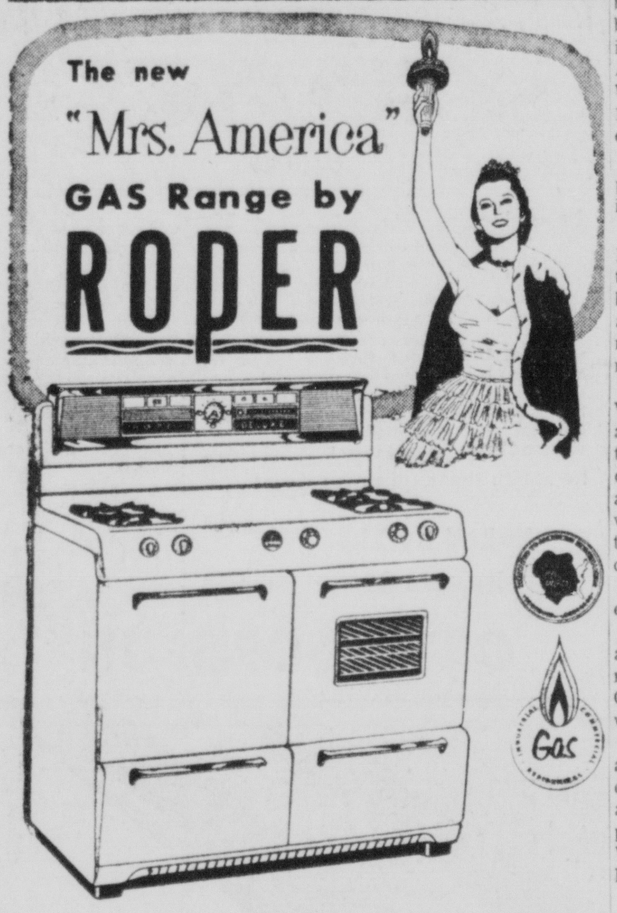

Ross said the state convention of the rural letter carriers will be held at Frostburg State Teachers College July 15-16.

Plans for the convention were discussed at the Allegany-Garrett meeting which was attended by Arrington; Perry H. Smith, Rhodesdale, state secretary; and W. Fred Coursey, Church Hill, chairman of the state executive committee.

One of the features of the meeting in LaVale was a demonstration by a representative of a firm which manufactures safety equipment and right-hand drive equipment.

Legal Experts To Speak Here On Court Rules

Three top Maryland legal experts will speak at a rules symposium in Cumberland on June 1 from 2 to 6 p. m. at the Court House under auspices of the Allegany County Bar Association.

They are Chief Judge Emory H. Niles, of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City; Chief Judge John B. Gray Jr., of the Seventh Judicial Circuit comprising Calvert, Prince George, Charles and St. Mary's counties, and Frederick W. Invernizzi, former professor of law at the University of Maryland now serving as a reporter for the rules committee of the Maryland Bar Association and an administrative officer of the Maryland courts.

Following the afternoon session on the new court rules the Allegany County Bar Association will be host at a dinner at the Cumberland Country Club for the visitors and members of the Bar Associations of Garrett and Washington counties. More than 100 lawyers will attend the two events.

The Bar Association discussed plans for the program at a meeting Monday at the Court House.

William Offutt Doub, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Doub, this city, was admitted to membership in the association. He is associated with the B&O Railroad legal department in Baltimore.

A discussion was held on the Workmen's Compensation Law and efforts which will be made to prevent delays in procedures during litigation. This includes a program whereby doctors and witnesses would not have to wait too long before hearings in such cases are held.

Two committees were appointed today by the Bar Association.

W. Earle Cobey is chairman of a special group considering a minimum fees schedule. William C. Walsh and William S. Jenkins will serve with him.

A committee to study the unauthorized practice of law will consist of James Alfred Avirett as chairman and Clarence Lippel, Albert A. Doub, Horace P. Whitworth Jr., and Estel C. Kelley.

District 16 volunteer firemen were called early this morning when a large pile of discarded oil filters from Diesel engines ignited in the vicinity of construction work by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad below Evitts Creek.

The alarm was sounded at 2 a. m., and was answered by four men. Firemen said the filters are used as warning lights at night.

Early Monday afternoon firemen from South End station answered an alarm at the same location when the filters were ignited.

The District 16 firemen are currently conducting their annual coin card campaign to raise funds to support the company. Last year a total of $400 was collected.

Kelly Employes Charity Fund Donates $480 To Allegany County Cancer Drive

A check for $480 from the Kelly Employes Charity Fund yesterday sent Allegany County's 1957 Cancer Crusade over the $7,000 mark to exceed last year's final general total, William Walsh, president of Allegany County Chapter, Maryland Division, Inc., American Cancer Society, announced yesterday.

"The donation from employes of the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company plant is the largest we've received this year," Walsh said, "and was accompanied by a report outlining the distribution of an additional $120 to cancer drives in other counties where workers reside."

A check of Allegany County Chapter's donations yesterday showed approximately $5,000 reported as a result of the women's division canvass of homes, with returns remaining to be made by about ten communities.

The other $2,000 represents donations made as a result of letters mailed to employe charity groups, professional men, industrial plants, businessmen and various organizations. Meanwhile, the special gifts committee is contacting about 300 business and industrial leaders.

Other large donations reported today include $100 from employes of the George F. Hazelwood Company, $50 from First National Bank employes, and $52.10 from workers at the Post Office.

W. M. Petrea, secretary-treasurer of the Kelly Employes Charity Fund, in his letter to the chapter, stated the following additional cancer donations, based on the percentage of Kelly workers living in different areas, will be made: Mineral County, West Virginia, $48; Bedford County, Pennsylvania, $42; Hampshire County, West Virginia, and Somerset County, Pennsylvania, $12 each, and Garrett County, $6.

The breakdown for Allegany County, as outlined by Petrea, follows: Cumberland, $292; Frostburg, $76.80; Lonaconing, $28.40; Midland, Flintstone and Mt. Savage, $14.40 each; Westernport, Eckhart, Corriganville, Barrelville, Barton, Cresaptown and Oldtown, $9.60 each, and Ellerslie, $4.80.

Liquor Board To Hear Two Remonstrances May 21

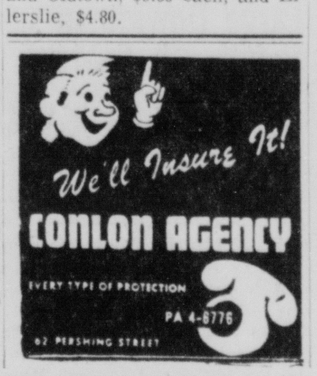

Two remonstrance hearings have been set by the Allegany County Board of Alcoholic Beverage License Commissioners for Tuesday, May 21 starting at 10 a.m.

Residents near premises at 800 Williams Street, object to issuance of an off sale beer license to Joseph L. Snyder. The property is the former Laing service station. They cited the nearness of Fort Hill High School and Constitution Park.

Over 100 residents of the 1000-block on Oldtown Road have protested issuance of an on and off sale beer and wine license to Kathleen Seaders and Thomas O'Toole for premises at 1000 Oldtown Road. The premises were formerly occupied by the Allegany Instrument Company. Lack of suitable parking space and also the location of several other similar establishments was cited in the remonstrance filed.

Walter C. Capper, who had been scheduled to step down as yesterday's session of the board, will continue to serve until the commission of Estel C. Kelley, local attorney and member of the Allegany County delegation to the General Assembly, arrives.

Mr. Kelley said he will submit his formal resignation to the governor as a delegate prior to being sworn in as a new member of the board.

C&A Begins Fire Program

A program of training in fighting fires has been started by the C&A Gas Company with the outdoor sessions held near the firm's compressor station at Ellerslie.

The program is part of the overall plan of the Columbia Gas System, Pittsburgh Group Companies, of which the C&A is part. John Andreini, assistant to the safety director, Pittsburgh Group Companies, is instructor.

A uniform program of fighting fires and training for operating personnel is included in the course. The firm hopes to minimize the possible extent of injury to personnel and damage to equipment and facilities in an emergency.

The class was attended by 138 employes of C&A and workers of Division 6 of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company from Downington, Eagle, Ellwood and Brinker compression stations in nearby Pennsylvania.

The class included lectures and films and demonstrations on use of fire extinguishing devices and equipment. The men were served lunch at the Methodist Church in Ellerslie.

Two Area Men Participating In State Tree Plan

Two area men are taking part in the Maryland Tree Farm Committee program.

David W. Sowers Jr., Hancock, of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company, is chairman of the committee and is also inspector for Allegany, Washington and Frederick counties.

John Adams Jr., 174 Fourth Street, Oakland, will be inspector for Garrett County. The inspectors, whose work is voluntary, will work with foresters in their areas.

Through the industry-operated tree farm program, private landowners who practice good forestry to produce continuing crops of timber are publicly recognized. General requirements for certification are: The land must be privately owned; the owner must protect his woods from fire, insects, disease and destructive grazing; and he must harvest timber in the proper manner to insure repeated crops.

Auto Accident Victim To Be Buried Thursday

A funeral service for 22-year-old Wilbert Frank Voit of Slanesville, W. Va., who died yesterday morning in Memorial Hospital of injuries from an auto accident near Romney, will be held Thursday at 11 a. m. (EST) at Salem Methodist Church near Slanesville.

Rev. Lehmann Channell will officiate and interment will be in the adjoining cemetery.

Mr. Voit, a veteran of two years in the Army and an employe of the Potomac Edison Company at Romney, was critically injured when he was hurled from the car early Sunday when it went out of control about four miles east of Romney on U. S. Route 50.

In "fair" condition at Memorial Hospital is Odell Smith, 22, of RD 1, Paw Paw, who was a passenger in the car. He was also thrown from the vehicle.

West Virginia State Police who qestioned Smith yesterday at the hospital reported that Voit was the driver of the car which failed to negotiate a left turn, careened into an embankment, flipped over and slid across the highway on its top.

Last year Voit was critically injured in a one-car crash in Romney which claimed the lives of Larry D. Saville, 19, of Augusta, and Harold C. Brown, 20, of Wilmington, Del., who was visiting relatives in Romney.

Smith told police yesterday that he and Voit had taken a friend home late Saturday evening and had stopped at a tavern six-tenths of a mile west of where the accident occured. Police surmise the accident occurred about 12:05 a. m. Sunday. Police indicated that no charges will be preferred.

Voit, who graduated from Capon Bridge High School, was born in Cumberland December 31, 1934 and was a son of Kenneth and Margaret (Haines) Voit of Slanesville.

Auto Accident Victim To Be Buried Thursday

A funeral service for 22-year-old Wilbert Frank Voit of Slanesville, W. Va., who died yesterday morning in Memorial Hospital of injuries from an auto accident near Romney, will be held Thursday at 11 a. m. (EST) at Salem Methodist Church near Slanesville.

Rev. Lehmann Channell will officiate and interment will be in the adjoining cemetery.

Mr. Voit, a veteran of two years in the Army and an employe of the Potomac Edison Company at Romney, was critically injured when he was hurled from the car early Sunday when it went out of control about four miles east of Romney on U. S. Route 50.

In "fair" condition at Memorial Hospital is Odell Smith, 22, of RD 1, Paw Paw, who was a passenger in the car. He was also thrown from the vehicle.

West Virginia State Police who questioned Smith yesterday at the hospital reported that Voit was the driver of the car which failed to negotiate a left turn, careened into an embankment, flipped over and slid across the highway on its top.

Last year Voit was critically injured in a one-car crash in Romney which claimed the lives of Larry D. Saville, 19, of Augusta, and Harold C. Brown, 20, of Wilmington, Del., who was visiting relatives in Romney.

Smith told police yesterday that he and Voit had taken a friend home late Saturday evening and had stopped at a tavern six-tenths of a mile west of where the accident occured. Police surmise the accident occurred about 12:05 a. m. Sunday. Police indicated that no charges will be preferred.

Voit, who graduated from Capon Bridge High School, was born in Cumberland December 31, 1934 and was a son of Kenneth and Margaret (Haines) Voit of Slanesville.

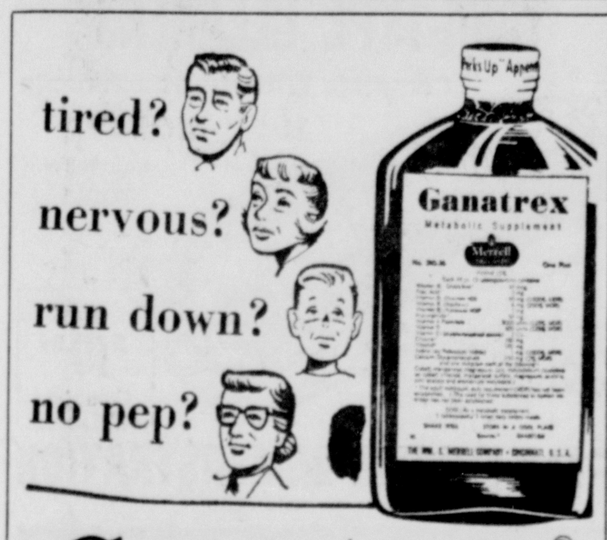

Surviving besides his parents are four brothers, Kenneth, of Romney, Ward, Dennis, and Max Voit, at home, three sisters, Kathryn, Judy and Dorothy also at home, his paternal grandfather, Ward Voit, Sharon, Pa. and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Pearl Haines, Augusta.

Allegany County Leads In Integration

Allegany County, which has a smaller proportion of Negroes in its public school system than any other Maryland county outside of all-white Garrett County, is the Maryland county closest to full integration.

That fact is emphasized in an article on Maryland school integration in the Baltimore Sunday Sun.

Of the 278 Negro pupils in Allegany County, 160 are in formerly white schools, or about 58 per cent. The 160 Negroes are in 12 schools having a total white enrollment of 8,181. The other 7,244 white pupils attend 22 all-white schools.

Allegany County's total pupil school enrollment for 1956-57 is 15,703, of whom 1.8 per cent are Negroes. Carver School on Frederick Street, which now runs through the first nine grades, has an all-Negro enrollment of 118 children.

Washington County, just east of this county, which has only 2.2 per cent Negroes, is second to Allegany County in the extent of its integration. There 155 out of 382 Negro pupils, or 40.6 per cent, are in mixed classes. The mixed classes are in 11 schools in eight communities of Washington County. Only one all-Negro school is left, the North Street School in Hagerstown.

Throughout the 23 Maryland counties there are 352,141 pupils, 12.2 per cent of whom are Negroes. In the 23 counties there are 501 all-white schools, 155 all-Negro and 138 mixed. Of the white pupils, 220,042 attend all-white schools and 89,292 mixed schools. Of the Negro pupils, 41,080 attend all-Negro schools and 1,727 are in mixed schools.

Baltimore City has 154,996 pupils, 43.2 per cent of whom are Negroes. There are 34 white, 53 Negro and 80 mixed schools in Baltimore City. Of the white pupils, 28,281 attend all-white schools and 59,802 mixed.

Among the Negroes in Baltimore City schools, 47,704 attend all-Negro schools and 19,209 mixed schools.

Youths Placed On Probation In Local Thefts

Three local boys, ranging in age from 12 to 14, were given hearings Monday in Juvenile Court in connection with a series of breaking and enterings last month in the North End section.

The youths were apprehended last Monday night by Detective Joseph Stitcher after one of the boys admitted being implicated in five cases and the other two admitted participating in one burglary.

Magistrate Morris Baron placed two of the trio on probation for a six-month period, and withheld sentencing the third pending a medical report.

Stitcher said the three admitted entering the home of Thomas Harbaugh, 425 Franklin Street, last Sunday night and taking a child's piggy bank containing approximately $10, a purse, several packs of cigarets and a key case.

Attempted entries were also made at 502 Holland Street where a window was damaged, and at 709 Shawnee Avenue where a screen was removed from a rear window and the window pried up several inches. Entrance was not gained, police said.

The home of Dennis A. Griffin, 618 Shriver Avenue, was also entered and $12 in pennies stolen.

The fifth theft was at 419 Columbia Street where $10 worth of costume jewelry was taken.

Flag Used At White House Presented County Board

An American Flag which has been flown over the White House has been presented to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners for use atop the Court House

Commissioner James Orr presented the flag yesterday on behalf of the Woman's Republican Club of Cumberland. U. S. Sen. J. Glenn Beall obtained the flag for the GOP group. It is five by eight feet.

Resolutions of appreciation were ordered drawn up by the board to be presented to Dr. Karl W. Kolb, dentist with the Allegany County Health Department and Miss Ann Hardy and Mrs. Rose Loible, public health nurses with the department, who are retiring.

Marvin Windle and Roland Varner appeared before the board to ask that something be done about the dusty condition of Avenue Y in Potomac Park. They said motorists speeding on the street cause clouds of dust to rise. The board said the avenue would be considered in the forthcoming oiling program by the County Roads Department.

Allegany County Leads In Integration

Allegany County, which has a smaller proportion of Negroes in its public school system than any other Maryland county outside of all-white Garrett County, is the Maryland county closest to full integration.

That fact is emphasized in an article on Maryland school integration in the Baltimore Sunday Sun.

Of the 278 Negro pupils in Allegany County, 160 are in formerly white schools, or about 58 per cent. The 160 Negroes are in 12 schools having a total white enrollment of 8,181. The other 7,244 white pupils attend 22 all-white schools.

Allegany County's total pupil school enrollment for 1956-57 is 15,703, of whom 1.8 per cent are Negroes. Carver School on Frederick Street, which now runs through the first nine grades, has an all-Negro enrollment of 118 children.

Washington County, just east of this county, which has only 2.2 per cent Negroes, is second to Allegany County in the extent of its integration. There 155 out of 382 Negro pupils, or 40.6 per cent, are in mixed classes. The mixed classes are in 11 schools in eight communities of Washington County. Only one all-Negro school is left, the North Street School in Hagerstown.

Throughout the 23 Maryland counties there are 352,141 pupils, 12.2 per cent of whom are Negroes. In the 23 counties there are 501 all-white schools, 155 all-Negro and 138 mixed. Of the white pupils, 220,042 attend all-white schools and 89,292 mixed schools. Of the Negro pupils, 41,080 attend all-Negro schools and 1,727 are in mixed schools.

Baltimore City has 154,996 pupils, 43.2 per cent of whom are Negroes. There are 34 white, 53 Negro and 80 mixed schools in Baltimore City. Of the white pupils, 28,281 attend all-white schools and 59,802 mixed.

Among the Negroes in Baltimore City schools, 47,704 attend all-Negro schools and 19,209 mixed schools.

Youths Placed On Probation In Local Thefts

Three local boys, ranging in age from 12 to 14, were given hearings Monday in Juvenile Court in connection with a series of breaking and enterings last month in the North End section.

The youths were apprehended last Monday night by Detective Joseph Stitcher after one of the boys admitted being implicated in five cases and the other two admitted participating in one burglary.

Magistrate Morris Baron placed two of the trio on probation for a six-month period, and withheld sentencing the third pending a medical report.

Stitcher said the three admitted entering the home of Thomas Harbaugh, 425 Franklin Street, last Sunday night and taking a child's piggy bank containing approximately $10, a purse, several packs of cigarets and a key case.

Attempted entries were also made at 502 Holland Street where a window was damaged, and at 709 Shawnee Avenue where a screen was removed from a rear window and the window pried up several inches. Entrance was not gained, police said.

The home of Dennis A. Griffin, 618 Shriver Avenue, was also entered and $12 in pennies stolen.

The fifth theft was at 419 Columbia Street where $10 worth of costume jewelry was taken.

Flag Used At White House Presented County Board

An American Flag which has been flown over the White House has been presented to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners for use atop the Court House

Commissioner James Orr presented the flag yesterday on behalf of the Woman's Republican Club of Cumberland. U. S. Sen. J. Glenn Beall obtained the flag for the GOP group. It is five by eight feet.

Resolutions of appreciation were ordered drawn up by the board to be presented to Dr. Karl W. Kolb, dentist with the Allegany County Health Department and Miss Ann Hardy and Mrs. Rose Loible, public health nurses with the department, who are retiring.

Marvin Windle and Roland Varner appeared before the board to ask that something be done about the dusty condition of Avenue Y in Potomac Park. They said motorists speeding on the street cause clouds of dust to rise. The board said the avenue would be considered in the forthcoming oiling program by the County Roads Department.

U.S. Welcomes A Guest From Vietnam

Washington welcomes the President of the Republic of Vietnam today in an atmosphere very different from that which prevailed in both the United States and Indochina three years ago. Fall of the French fortress of Dienbienphu to Red forces on May 7, 1954, had made the West pessimistic about salvaging any part of Indochina for the free world.

Today the picture is vastly more encouraging. American foreign aid has helped to make the new Southeast Asian republic a going concern, but chief credit apparently belongs to America's guest, President Ngo Dinh Diem.

After the defeat and withdrawal of the French, Diem had the task of consolidating the power of the native government at Saigon against dissident armed religious sects, underworld racketeers, a Communist underground, other rebellious elements. Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) told the Senate, after a trip to Vietnam in 1955, that "Diem's success in surmounting almost impossible odds is attributable largely to his courage, integrity, and nationalism."

In the autumn of 1955 Diem was overwhelming victor in a national referendum. The people thereby empowered him to declare Vietnam a republic and proclaim himself provisional president in place of the absentee chief of state, Bao Dai. In 1956 Vietnam elected a national assembly, which drew up a constitution guaranteeing individual rights and freedoms for all citizens.

The Republic of Vietnam still has grave internal problems and still is separated from the northern section that was cut off for the Communists. If it is not yet exactly a strong outpost of the free world in Southeast Asia, President Diem still appears optimistic of making it so with a continuing assist from the United States.

These Days

Alger Hiss' Book

I approached Alger Hiss' book "In the Court of Public Opinion" with as much objectivity as I could muster because Hiss is entitled to his day in the court of public opinion as he was in the court of law.

I did not therefore compare his statements with those of Whittaker Chambers or de Toledano and Lasky's "Seeds of Treason," or the two versions authored by Earl Jowitt, a British lawyer turned journalist.

Instead, I took the 24-page opinion of Federal Judge Henry W. Goddard, an outstanding jurist before whom Hiss appeared and who denied the motion for a new and third trial on July 22, 1952. Concerning this decision, Hiss says:

". . . Judge Goddard denied the motion for a new trial on July 22, during the sessions of the Democratic Convention that was to nominate Adlai E. Stevenson, who had been one of my character witnesses. Judge Goddard's decision reached the press before it reached my counsel, and when Mr. Lane applied at the courthouse for the opinion, he found that all copies had been distributed already . . ."

It would seem from this statement that Alger Hiss has written a lawyer's brief designed to lay the foundation for a new trial. Were Judge Goddard a youngster, deep in politics, it would be possible to ponder the legitimacy of Alger Hiss' indirect charge of bias. Judge Goddard, however, was a man of outstanding reputation, having been appointed to the court in 1923 and sitting continuously until his death in 1955. At the time of his decision in the Hiss Case, he was 76 years old. To assume that he would choose to end his long and honorable judicial career in the mire of bias is an absurdity which can do Hiss no good.

The issue was whether Hiss' lawyer had discovered any new evidence to justify a new trial, after Hiss had had two trials, one which ended in a hung jury; the second of which brought him a conviction. Goddard stated the charges against Hiss as follows:

". . . The first count charged him with perjury when he testified under oath that he had never, nor had his wife in his presence, turned over any documents of the State Department or of any other Government organization, or copies of such documents, to Whittaker Chambers or to any other unauthorized person.

"The second count charged him with perjury when he testified that he thought he could definitely say that he did not see Chambers after January 1, 1937."

The new book addresses itself to these issues and it is difficult to find any data in the book which is not answered in the Goddard decision, although it is intended that one should find it because on a near to blank page, inevitably attracting attention, is the paragraph:

"Reproductions of material offered as evidence on the motion for a new trial will be found following page 374."

Concerning new evidence, Judge Goddard said:

"The federal courts have quite generally applied the rule announced in Berry V. Georgia, 10 Ga. 511, requiring a party seeking a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence to show the following vital elements:

" '(a) The evidence must be in fact, newly discovered, i.e. discovered since the trial; (b) facts must be alleged from which the court may infer diligence on the part of the movant; (c) the evidence relied on, must not be merely cumulative or impeaching; (d) it must be material to the issues involved; and (e) it must be such, and of such nature, as that, on a new trial, the newly discovered evidence would probably produce an acquittal' . . ."

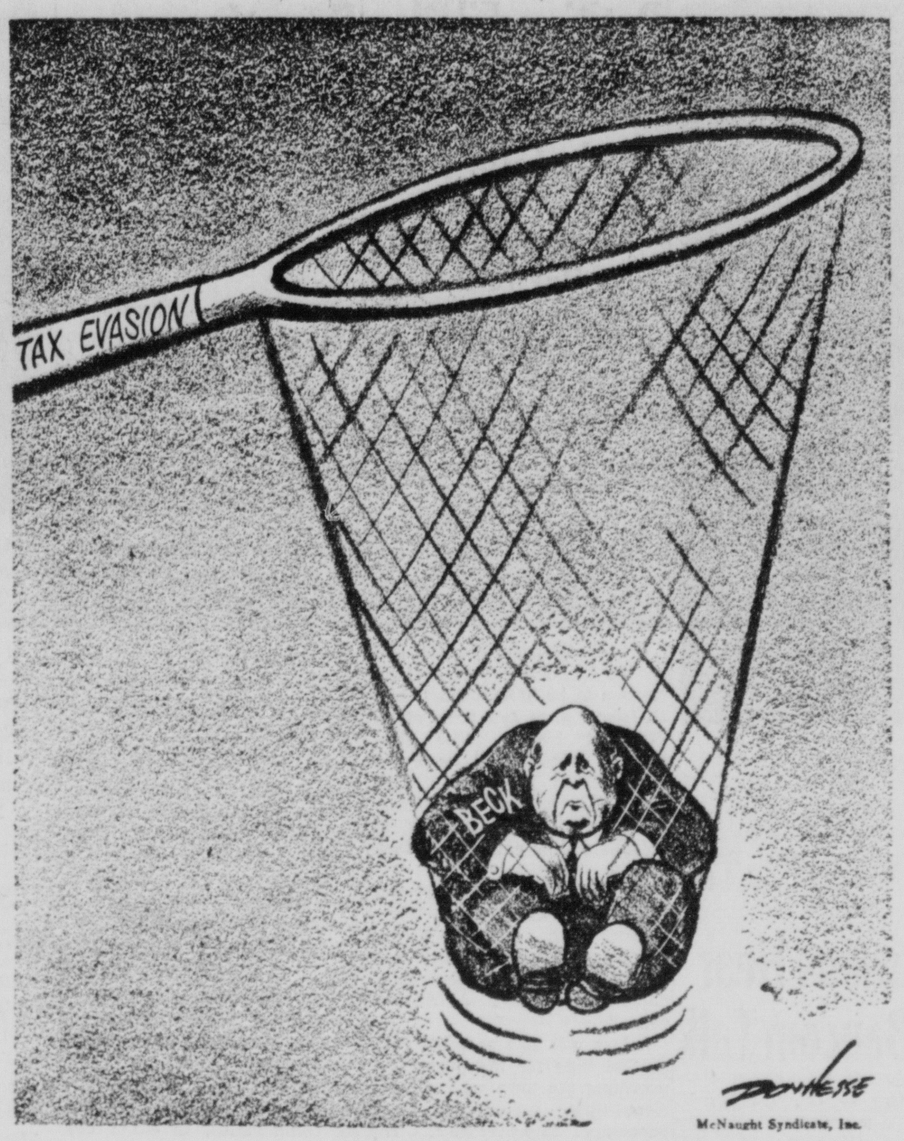

Further, Judge Goddard says:

"The contention of the defendant is that under either rule he is entitled to another trial. On the contrary, I am of the opinion, after a full consideration of all the defendant has offered, that . . . he is not entitled to a new trial. The defendant has submitted no proof, which would support a finding by a jury . . . There is no newly discovered evidence which would justify the conclusion that if it were presented to a jury, it would probably result in a verdict of acquittal."

The Hiss Case, like all such, will always be subject to dispute, many accepting his innocence and martyrdom; many regarding him as a proved spy. This book does not clear up the situation any more than John Foster Dulles' suppression of pertinent pages of the Yalta record helps Hiss.

Drama In The Shadow Of The Sacred Kaaba

By Joseph Alsop

BEIRUT, Lebanon:

The latest and not the least extraordinary scene in the vast Middle Eastern drama has now been played in Holy Mecca, according to deeply interesting and apparently authentic recent reports.

The cause of the scene was King Saud of Saudi Arabia's discovery that the Egyptian military attache in his capital was briskly engaged in organizing and financing armed leftwing terrorist activities ultimately directed against the Saudi Arabian government. King Saud's emotions, on learning of this latest manifestation of the loyal affection of his Egyptian ally, can be easily imagined.

Because of his discovery King Saud refused to receive Egypt's President Nasser when Nasser wished to confer with him about the Jordan crisis. He was too busy, he said, making his devotions in Mecca. Therefore Nasser sent his satellite, Syrian President Shukri Kuwatly, whom Saud particularly likes, to conciliate the Arabian King by all means possible.

The means adopted was not to deny the activities of the Egyptian military attache, which were undeniable. Instead, Nasser's knowledge of those activities was passionately denied.

In part, at least, the grand denial scene was played in the very shadow of the sacred Kaaba, where King Saud had gone to pray. And at one point, apparently, an Egyptian member of the delegation accompanying President Kuwatly actually clutched the Kaaba's great embroidered curtain, to give force to his oath that Egypt's right hand knew not what Egypt's left hand did.

The episode so completely belongs to the ornate tradition of Middle Eastern politics, that its hard practical significance may perhaps escape attention. But it has the very greatest and hardest practical significance all the same.

The discovery of an Egyptian military attache in full career as a leftwing terrorist organizer is not the truly significant feature. Indeed, this has become almost a monthly occurrence in this part of the world. Already there have been similar episodes, usually with such melodramatic trimmings as the disclosure of large bomb or dynamite caches in the Egyptian officer's possession, in Libya, the Sudan and Lebanon. And in Jordan, the Egyptian military attache, Fuad Hilal, was well known to be leading organizer of the plot against King Hussein.

The real point of the marvelous scene in Mecca was, rather, the sharp emphasis it gave to a major reversal of the role that is deeply affecting the whole Middle Eastern political situation.

It was not so long ago — as late as last September in fact — when Egypt's military attaches and other agents were working, all over the Middle East, in closest collaboration with the Saudi Arabian embassies. Not to put too fine a point upon it, Saudi Arabian money was everywhere being used to finance Egyptian political and propaganda activities. Furthermore, the largest of King Saud's dollars was going to extreme leftwing Arab Nationalists, and particularly to the Communist-linked Baathists, in Syria and Jordan.

Very probably, indeed, the terrorist bands which the Egyptian military attache was training and equipping in Saudi Arabia were originally intended for export. They were only turned against King Saud himself when the King finally grasped the danger to his own government of the pro-Egyptian, leftist and revolutionary activity that his dollars were paying for in so many other countries.

This important awakening occurred last October. But it is now abundantly clear that when King Saud turned off the tap of his oil-earned dollars, the Egyptians at once called on the masters of the Kremlin, who turned on the tap of their rubles. The same underground, terrorist, pro-Egyptian activity that was once financed by Saudi Arabia is now financed by the Soviet Union.

This raises two kinds of questions. First, the changed relationship between King Saud and Nasser, like the Jordanian crisis, raises the gravest questions about the future of Nasser's quadripartite Arab alliance of Egypt, Syria, Jordan and Saudi Arabia. Second, Nasser's vastly increased dependence on the Soviets raises even greater questions about the extent to which he can still be considered a free agent. But answers can only be attempted in a subsequent report.

Democrat Leader Lyndon Johnson Made Secret Deal In McLeod Case

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — A significant unreported incident took place inside the closed-door session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee during consideration of Scott McLeod as ambassador to Ireland. It illustrated how difficult it is for the Democrats to show any sign of leadership against the Eisenhower Administration when their alleged leader is frequently in secret cahoots with the administration.

Just before McLeod's name was to be voted on, Chairman Theodore Francis Green of Rhode Island, oldest and most revered member of the Senate, said he had had a talk with Chris Herter, acting Secretary of State, who requested that a vote on McLeod be postponed for a week.

Senator Fulbright of Arkansas immediately moved one week's postponement.

This brought protest from Republicans. Senator Alex Smith of New Jersey, the former Princeton professor, said he couldn't understand it. Senator William Knowland of California, the Republican leader, left the room. He came back in a minute looking red in the face.

"I am authorized by the Administration to say that consideration of McLeod not be postponed," he announced.

He said that Acting Secretary Herter's earlier request had been based on a phone conversation with Chairman Green in which Green had said McLeod could not be confirmed.

Usually mild Chairman Green corrected Knowland vigorously. He said he had phoned Herter to say that there would be a big vote against McLeod, and while it might fall short of blocking McLeod, it might embarrass the Administration. He had asked the State Department therefore to consider withdrawing McLeod's nomination.

That was why Herter had asked for one week's delay in order to take the matter up at the White House.

Secret Deal

What Acting Secretary Herter hadn't known, when Chairman Green phoned him, was that Sen. Lyndon Johnson, the alleged Democratic leader, had already made a deal with Republican Leader Knowland to confirm McLeod. Regardless of what the opposition was, regardless of the time-honored custom of Democratic debate, regardless of what was brought out in the hearings, Johnson had agreed that enough Democratic votes would line up for McLeod to confirm him.

Knowland, of course, knew this when he stomped out of the committee room to phone Herter. He also knew that President Eisenhower scares easy when it comes to the Senate. He, Knowland, has scared him a good many times himself. He knew that Ike never wanted to appoint McLeod in the first place, did so only to please John Foster Dulles. Finally, Knowland knew that a week's delay was likely to scare the President into withdrawing McLeod's name.

That was why he talked tough to Herter, in effect told him to get some backbone.

Note 1—Significantly, Lyndon Johnson's satellite, Senator Mike Mansfield of Montana, the Democratic whip, voted for McLeod in the secret Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Leo Graybill, Democratic national committeeman from Montana, expressed surprise at Mansfield's position. He did not know that a deal had been made by Lyndon. What makes other Senators sore about the Johnson leadership is that these matters are never discussed in the democratic fashion, in a party caucus. They are decided by Johnson privately, discussed with a few Senators by telephone. Johnson has held only one Democratic caucus this year, held only one in the four preceding years.

Note 2—Johnson boycotted the Democratic meeting in Washington over the weekend, did not appear at the $100 a plate dinner or the Democratic breakfast. He did not appear at a single, solitary session.

Mailbag

Col. James Stack, Tacoma, Wash.—Thanks for the word that neither you nor Edgar Eisenhower had anything to do with promoting the drainage ditch which the Army Engineers dug at American Lake to prevent flooding, and that you live some miles away from the lake. I am happy to make a correction. You will be interested in knowing that the information to the contrary came from an authorized Army spokesman—doubtless because you have been so active around Fort Lewis that the Army attributed various moves involving decisions in Washington to you or Edgar. I am sure what you say is correct, however, and I am happy to make it clear that you and Edgar had nothing to do with influencing Washington in favor of the drainage ditch.

C. I. Claflin, Buffalo, N. Y.—I appreciate your calling my attention to my unintentional error in referring to the burial place of Christ in Old Jerusalem as where "Christ is buried." I agree with you that I should have said, where "Christ was buried," since He has risen.

D. K., New York City—It is true that most Americans who have sought to achieve power by undemocratic means and who have maligned others came to tragic and sometimes violent ends. Huey Long died by an assassin's bullet. Theodore Bilbo of Mississippi died of cancer. Sen. McCarthy died of cirrhosis of the liver from over-drinking. Senator Huey Long of Louisiana did not use the Bilbo or McCarthy tactic of unjust accusation. He campaigned for better schools, free school books, bridges, highways, and generally for things that would help people. He taxed big business and fought it. Big business fought him bitterly. It was sometimes said that he robbed the rich to help the poor.

Why The 6th Fleet Moved

At a conference with State Department officials the other day, Secretary John Foster Dulles brought up the Alsop column reporting that the 6th Fleet had been sent to the Eastern Mediterranean in order to keep Israel from attacking Jordan.

"What about the Alsop column?" Dulles asked.

Dulles's staff assured him that in this case the usually accurate Alsop brothers were not accurate, that the 6th Fleet had been sent to quiet Syria and Egypt, not watch Israel, and that there was nothing in the situation which he, Dulles, did not already know about.

Assured, the Secretary of State chuckled:

"Well, a story like that won't hurt us with the Arabs," he said.

Causes And Treatment Of Adolescent Acne

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

There is more to the treatment of acne than salves and lotions. Most victims are adolescents who may be embarrassed by reference to their appearance. Some blame their pimples and blackheads on bad habits and feel too guilty to ask for help.

The wise physician takes the emotional aspect of the problem and deals directly with the boy or girl rather than the father or mother. Once cooperation and confidence are attained, the usual treatment is recommended.

Soap and water remove dirt and excess oil. In many instances the plug that is blocking the sebaceous gland must be expressed carefully. The local application of sulphur at night softens the skin and helps clear away the blackheads. There are dozens of products containing this chemical, varying from simple ointments to tailor made prescriptions.

Dandruff is a frequent accompaniment and should be treated with shampoos containing selenium or sulfonated detergents. The most beneficial diet in acne omits chocolate, nuts, seafood, coffee, pork, candies, and fried foods. Exposure to the sun is beneficial and now and then it is necessary to use anti-biotics or X-ray therapy. The antituberculosis remedy, isoniazid, was used on 20 victims of acne, with good results in nine.

There is hope for those who have been left with unsightly scars through neglect of the condition. Dermabrasion smoothes the scarred skin with an electrically driven wire brush. The procedure has been used for several years and dermatologists now are able to predict who will be helped. They reject as many as three out of five patients seeking treatment.

In this group are men and women who regard their scarred skin as solely responsible for life's failures and discontentments. Dermabrasion may aid their appearance but they never are satisfied with the improvement because it does not bring the social and economic success they expect.

Dermatologists feel justified in not treating them because there always is a possibility of converting a minor psychological disturbance into a severe one. On the other hand, some of the most enthusiastic patients have had severe scarring and they are happy over any improvement because it means less disfigurement.

COPING WITH ALCOHOL

Mrs. E. writes: My daughter, in her late forties, has become an alcoholic. This habit is breaking up her marriage. How do you go about getting help?

REPLY

Consult your physician, spiritual adviser, or AA. This is a difficult problem to cope with unless the alcoholic admits he is sick and cannot control his actions.

LINIMENTS

E. A. S. writes: Are liniments helpful because their ingredients penetrate the skin or is it the massage that makes a person feel better?

REPLY

Massage. Liniments impart a feeling of warmth to the skin but they do not penetrate the underlying tissues.

PRINCE MASHUR

E. N. writes: What is little Prince Mashur suffering from?

REPLY

The boy was born with cerebral palsy and has some residual muscle spasms, stiffness, and shortening of the tendons of the foot. In addition, the right arm is partially paralyzed. But the physicians are hopeful.

SHOULD BE INVESTIGATED

C. R. writes: Is blood in the urine a sign of cancer?

REPLY

Yes, but there are other more common causes. Send a stamped self-addressed envelope for leaflet on hematuria (blood in the urine.)

OLDER NAME

J. E. writes: What is dementia precox?

REPLY

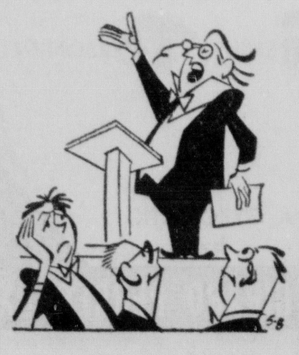

An older name for schizophrenia. The term implies dementia of the young but no longer is used because this form of insanity also occurs in older persons.

TOMORROW: Highway accident studies.

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnosis or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

At M. I. T., they tell of a windy old mossback who lectured once at Yale. "Every letter in your university's name stands for something," he boomed. "The 'Y' is for 'youth,' the 'A' is for 'ambition,' the 'L' is for 'loyalty' and the 'E' is for 'endeavor'—and I mean to say few words about each of these subjects." Two hours later he droned to an end, and most of his audience had sneaked out or fallen asleep. "Does anybody wish to add anything to what I have said?" he inquired rashly.

"I do," proclaimed a student in the front row. "Let us just give thanks you aren't speaking at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology!"

At Dartmouth college, in Hanover, N. H., drama director Walter Roach bit into a slice of juicy cherry pie, almost broke a tooth on a pit therein. He rallied sufficiently to observe, "This pie is more to be pitted than dentured!"

On The Side

By E. V. Durling

Fried eggs are rarely properly cooked when served in restaurants. This brings about the ruination of many a plate of ham and eggs. The reason fried eggs are seldom cooked as they should be is because restaurant cooks are in too much of a hurry. They apply too much heat to the eggs too quickly. Eggs should be fried with a moderate even heat.

GOLFERS

How many clubs does a golfer need? The average golfer now feels he needs 14 different clubs. He doesn't. Seven clubs are enough for anybody who really knows how to play golf. Speaking of golf clubs, did you know Jerry Travis never used a driver. He used a No. 1 Iron off the tee. Jerry won the national Amateur Golf championship four times and the Open Championship once.

Queries from clients. Q. Have the so-called "quarter horses" now being used as a mutuel machine race track wagering medium any thoroughbred blood in them? A. Only about 10 per cent of the type of horse you mention have any thoroughbred blood. Ancestry of great majority is a combination of the American quarter horse and the Spanish cow horse. . . Q. I claim Merle Oberon was originally a dance hall hostess. Right? A. Merle was a dance hostess but not in a dance hall. She was so employed at the Cafe De Paris, London. Her name then was Estelle O'Brien Thompson.

Which is the correct spelling, Katherine or Katharine? Most females so named spell it Katherine. That is wrong according to Katharine Cornell. She maintains the "a" in the middle and the "e" only at the end is correct. When Miss Cornell's name was spelled with an "e" in the middle in a newspaper she used to send the editor a post card reading, "Katharine is the correct spelling of the early martyrologists."

BALLAD HISTORY

Who wrote the ballad titled "Down By The Old Mill Stream"? That's what a Toledo, Ohio, subscriber asks. Every Ohioan should know the answer to that. Why? Well, the stream referred to is in Ohio. Tell Taylor wrote the song aforementioned while fishing on the Blanchard River, near Findlay, Ohio.

HORSES AND WOMEN

The great majority of redhaired women cannot acquire a sun tan. That is possible for only a brown-eyed redhead. I am referring, of course, to natural redheads. If you see a blue-eyed or green-eyed red-haired woman with a tan, it is very probable she is a synthetic redhead. Keep that in mind, young fellow. It is very important insofar as understanding and handling females is concerned whether a woman is a natural redhead or is merely featuring a dyeing job. The characters of the two are very different.

U.S. Welcomes A Guest From Vietnam

Washington welcomes the President of the Republic of Vietnam today in an atmosphere very different from that which prevailed in both the United States and Indochina three years ago. Fall of the French fortress of Dienbienphu to Red forces on May 7, 1954, had made the West pessimistic about salvaging any part of Indochina for the free world.

Today the picture is vastly more encouraging. American foreign aid has helped to make the new Southeast Asian republic a going concern, but chief credit apparently belongs to America's guest, President Ngo Dinh Diem.

After the defeat and withdrawal of the French, Diem had the task of consolidating the power of the native government at Saigon against dissident armed religious sects, underworld racketeers, a Communist underground, other rebellious elements. Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) told the Senate, after a trip to Vietnam in 1955, that "Diem's success in surmounting almost impossible odds is attributable largely to his courage, integrity, and nationalism."

In the autumn of 1955 Diem was overwhelming victor in a national referendum. The people thereby empowered him to declare Vietnam a republic and proclaim himself provisional president in place of the absentee chief of state, Bao Dai. In 1956 Vietnam elected a national assembly, which drew up a constitution guaranteeing individual rights and freedoms for all citizens.

The Republic of Vietnam still has grave internal problems and still is separated from the northern section that was cut off for the Communists. If it is not yet exactly a strong outpost of the free world in Southeast Asia, President Diem still appears optimistic of making it so with a continuing assist from the United States.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

Alger Hiss' Book

I approached Alger Hiss' book "In the Court of Public Opinion" with as much objectivity as I could muster because Hiss is entitled to his day in the court of public opinion as he was in the court of law.

I did not therefore compare his statements with those of Whittaker Chambers or de Toledano and Lasky's "Seeds of Treason," or the two versions authored by Earl Jowitt, a British lawyer turned journalist.

Instead, I took the 24-page opinion of Federal Judge Henry W. Goddard, an outstanding jurist before whom Hiss appeared and who denied the motion for a new and third trial on July 22, 1952. Concerning this decision, Hiss says:

". . . Judge Goddard denied the motion for a new trial on July 22, during the sessions of the Democratic Convention that was to nominate Adlai E. Stevenson, who had been one of my character witnesses. Judge Goddard's decision reached the press before it reached my counsel, and when Mr. Lane applied at the courthouse for the opinion, he found that all copies had been distributed already . . ."

It would seem from this statement that Alger Hiss has written a lawyer's brief designed to lay the foundation for a new trial. Were Judge Goddard a youngster, deep in politics, it would be possible to ponder the legitimacy of Alger Hiss' indirect charge of bias. Judge Goddard, however, was a man of outstanding reputation, having been appointed to the court in 1923 and sitting continuously until his death in 1955. At the time of his decision in the Hiss Case, he was 76 years old. To assume that he would choose to end his long and honorable judicial career in the mire of bias is an absurdity which can do Hiss no good.

The issue was whether Hiss' lawyer had discovered any new evidence to justify a new trial, after Hiss had had two trials, one which ended in a hung jury; the second of which brought him a conviction. Goddard stated the charges against Hiss as follows:

". . . The first count charged him with perjury when he testified under oath that he had never, nor had his wife in his presence, turned over any documents of the State Department or of any other Government organization, or copies of such documents, to Whittaker Chambers or to any other unauthorized person.

"The second count charged him with perjury when he testified that he thought he could definitely say that he did not see Chambers after January 1, 1937."

The new book addresses itself to these issues and it is difficult to find any data in the book which is not answered in the Goddard decision, although it is intended that one should find it because on a near to blank page, inevitably attracting attention, is the paragraph:

"Reproductions of material offered as evidence on the motion for a new trial will be found following page 374."

Concerning new evidence, Judge Goddard said:

"The federal courts have quite generally applied the rule announced in Berry V. Georgia, 10 Ga. 511, requiring a party seeking a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence to show the following vital elements:

"'(a) The evidence must be in fact, newly discovered, i.e. discovered since the trial; (b) facts must be alleged from which the court may infer diligence on the part of the movant; (c) the evidence relied on, must not be merely cumulative or impeaching; (d) it must be material to the issues involved; and (e) it must be such, and of such nature, as that, on a new trial, the newly discovered evidence would probably produce an acquittal' . . ."

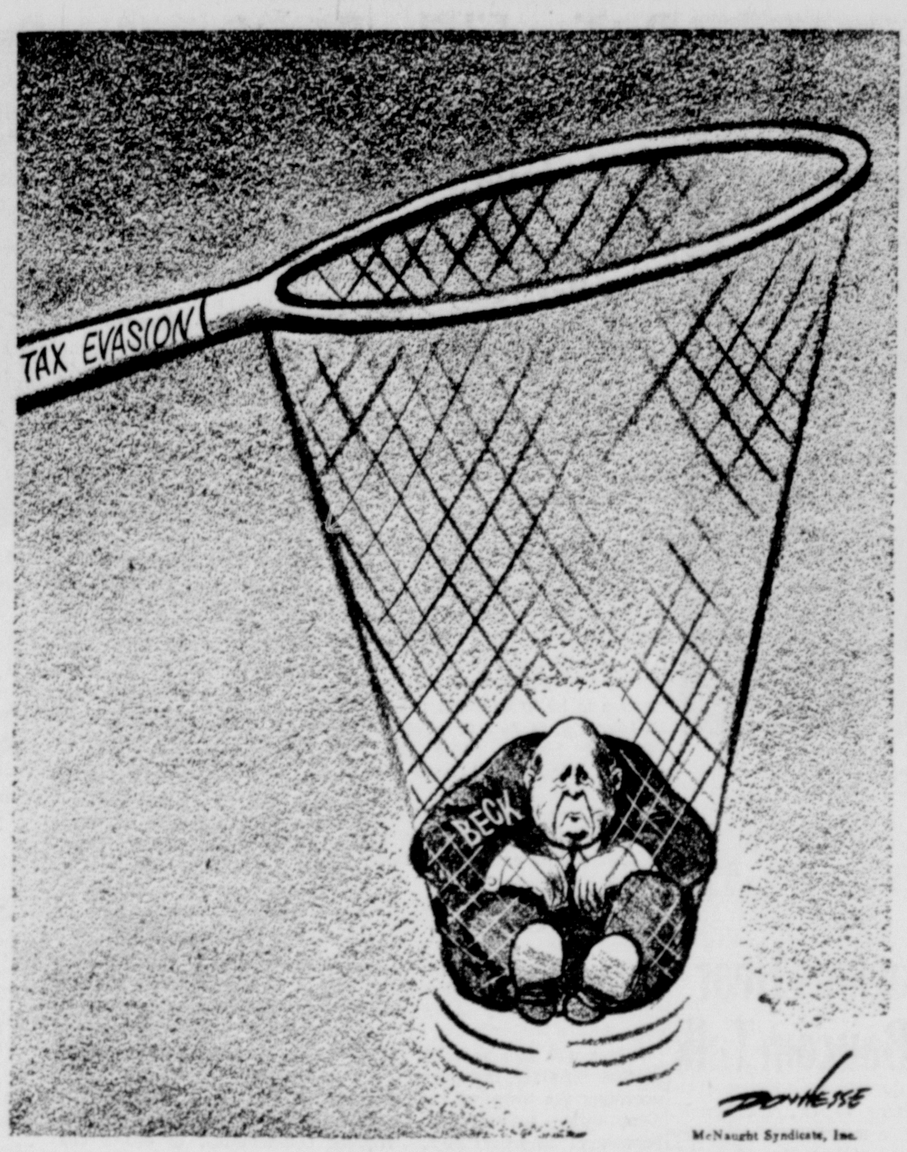

Further, Judge Goddard says:

"The contention of the defendant is that under either rule he is entitled to another trial. On the contrary, I am of the opinion, after a full consideration of all the defendant has offered, that . . . he is not entitled to a new trial. The defendant has submitted no proof, which would support a finding by a jury . . . There is no newly discovered evidence which would justify the conclusion that if it were presented to a jury, it would probably result in a verdict of acquittal."

The Hiss Case, like all such, will always be subject to dispute, many accepting his innocence and martyrdom; many regarding him as a proved spy. This book does not clear up the situation any more than John Foster Dulles' suppression of pertinent pages of the Yalta record helps Hiss.

Democrat Leader Lyndon Johnson Made Secret Deal In McLeod Case

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — A significant unreported incident took place inside the closed-door session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee during consideration of Scott McLeod as ambassador to Ireland. It illustrated how difficult it is for the Democrats to show any sign of leadership against the Eisenhower Administration when their alleged leader is frequently in secret cahoots with the administration.

Just before McLeod's name was to be voted on, Chairman Theodore Francis Green of Rhode Island, oldest and most revered member of the Senate, said he had had a talk with Chris Herter, acting Secretary of State, who requested that a vote on McLeod be postponed for a week.

Senator Fulbright of Arkansas immediately moved one week's postponement.

This brought protest from Republicans. Senator Alex Smith of New Jersey, the former Princeton professor, said he couldn't understand it. Senator William Knowland of California, the Republican leader, left the room. He came back in a minute looking red in the face.

"I am authorized by the Administration to say that consideration of McLeod not be postponed," he announced.

He said that Acting Secretary Herter's earlier request had been based on a phone conversation with Chairman Green in which Green had said McLeod could not be confirmed.

Usually mild Chairman Green corrected Knowland vigorously. He said he had phoned Herter to say that there would be a big vote against McLeod, and while it might fall short of blocking McLeod, it might embarrass the Administration. He had asked the State Department therefore to consider withdrawing McLeod's nomination.

That was why Herter had asked for one week's delay in order to take the matter up at the White House.

Secret Deal

What Acting Secretary Herter hadn't known, when Chairman Green phoned him, was that Sen. Lyndon Johnson, the alleged Democratic leader, had already made a deal with Republican Leader Knowland to confirm McLeod. Regardless of what the opposition was, regardless of the time-honored custom of Democratic debate, regardless of what was brought out in the hearings, Johnson had agreed that enough Democratic votes would line up for McLeod to confirm him.

Knowland, of course, knew this when he stomped out of the committee room to phone Herter. He also knew that President Eisenhower scares easy when it comes to the Senate. He, Knowland, has scared him a good many times himself. He knew that Ike never wanted to appoint McLeod in the first place, did so only to please John Foster Dulles. Finally, Knowland knew that a week's delay was likely to scare the President into withdrawing McLeod's name.

That was why he talked tough to Herter, in effect told him to get some backbone.

Note 1—Significantly, Lyndon Johnson's satellite, Senator Mike Mansfield of Montana, the Democratic whip, voted for McLeod in the secret Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Leo Graybill, Democratic national committeeman from Montana, expressed surprise at Mansfield's position. He did not know that a deal had been made by Lyndon. What makes other Senators sore about the Johnson leadership is that these matters are never discussed in the democratic fashion, in a party caucus. They are decided by Johnson privately, discussed with a few Senators by telephone. Johnson has held only one Democratic caucus this year, held only one in the four preceding years.

Note 2—Johnson boycotted the Democratic meeting in Washington over the weekend, did not appear at the $100 a plate dinner or the Democratic breakfast. He did not appear at a single, solitary session.

Mailbag

Col. James Stack, Tacoma, Wash.—Thanks for the word that neither you nor Edgar Eisenhower had anything to do with promoting the drainage ditch which the Army Engineers dug at American Lake to prevent flooding, and that you live some miles away from the lake. I am happy to make a correction. You will be interested in knowing that the information to the contrary came from an authorized Army spokesman—doubtless because you have been so active around Fort Lewis that the Army attributed various moves involving decisions in Washington to you or Edgar. I am sure what you say is correct, however, and I am happy to make it clear that you and Edgar had nothing to do with influencing Washington in favor of the drainage ditch.

C. I. Claflin, Buffalo, N. Y.—I appreciate your calling my attention to my unintentional error in referring to the burial place of Christ in Old Jerusalem as where "Christ is buried." I agree with you that I should have said, where "Christ was buried," since He has risen.

D. K., New York City—It is true that most Americans who have sought to achieve power by undemocratic means and who have maligned others came to tragic and sometimes violent ends. Huey Long died by an assassin's bullet. Theodore Bilbo of Mississippi died of cancer. Sen. McCarthy died of cirrhosis of the liver from over-drinking. Senator Huey Long of Louisiana did not use the Bilbo or McCarthy tactic of unjust accusation. He campaigned for better schools, free school books, bridges, highways, and generally for things that would help people. He taxed big business and fought it. Big business fought him bitterly. It was sometimes said that he robbed the rich to help the poor.

Why The 6th Fleet Moved

At a conference with State Department officials the other day, Secretary John Foster Dulles brought up the Alsop column reporting that the 6th Fleet had been sent to the Eastern Mediterranean in order to keep Israel from attacking Jordan.

"What about the Alsop column?" Dulles asked.

Dulles's staff assured him that in this case the usually accurate Alsop brothers were not accurate, that the 6th Fleet had been sent to quiet Syria and Egypt, not watch Israel, and that there was nothing in the situation which he, Dulles, did not already know about.

Assured, the Secretary of State chuckled:

"Well, a story like that won't hurt us with the Arabs," he said.

Drama In The Shadow Of The Sacred Kaaba

By Joseph Alsop

BEIRUT, Lebanon:

The latest and not the least extraordinary scene in the vast Middle Eastern drama has now been played in Holy Mecca, according to deeply interesting and apparently authentic recent reports.

The cause of the scene was King Saud of Saudi Arabia's discovery that the Egyptian military attache in his capital was briskly engaged in organizing and financing armed leftwing terrorist activities ultimately directed against the Saudi Arabian government. King Saud's emotions, on learning of this latest manifestation of the loyal affection of his Egyptian ally, can be easily imagined.

Because of his discovery King Saud refused to receive Egypt's President Nasser when Nasser wished to confer with him about the Jordan crisis. He was too busy, he said, making his devotions in Mecca. Therefore Nasser sent his satellite, Syrian President Shukri Kuwatly, whom Saud particularly likes, to conciliate the Arabian King by all means possible.

The means adopted was not to deny the activities of the Egyptian military attache, which were undeniable. Instead, Nasser's knowledge of those activities was passionately denied.

In part, at least, the grand denial scene was played in the very shadow of the sacred Kaaba, where King Saud had gone to pray. And at one point, apparently, an Egyptian member of the delegation accompanying President Kuwatly actually clutched the Kaaba's great embroidered curtain, to give force to his oath that Egypt's right hand knew not what Egypt's left hand did.

The episode so completely belongs to the ornate tradition of Middle Eastern politics, that its hard practical significance may perhaps escape attention. But it has the very greatest and hardest practical significance all the same.

The discovery of an Egyptian military attache in full career as a leftwing terrorist organizer is not the truly significant feature. Indeed, this has become almost a monthly occurrence in this part of the world. Already there have been similar episodes, usually with such melodramatic trimmings as the disclosure of large bomb or dynamite caches in the Egyptian officer's possession, in Libya, the Sudan and Lebanon. And in Jordan, the Egyptian military attache, Fuad Hilal, was well known to be leading organizer of the plot against King Hussein.

The real point of the marvelous scene in Mecca was, rather, the sharp emphasis it gave to a major reversal of the role that is deeply affecting the whole Middle Eastern political situation.

It was not so long ago — as late as last September in fact — when Egypt's military attaches and other agents were working, all over the Middle East, in closest collaboration with the Saudi Arabian embassies. Not to put too fine a point upon it, Saudi Arabian money was everywhere being used to finance Egyptian political and propaganda activities. Furthermore, the largest of King Saud's dollars was going to extreme leftwing Arab Nationalists, and particularly to the Communist-linked Baathists, in Syria and Jordan.

Very probably, indeed, the terrorist bands which the Egyptian military attache was training and equipping in Saudi Arabia were originally intended for export. They were only turned against King Saud himself when the King finally grasped the danger to his own government of the pro-Egyptian, leftist and revolutionary activity that his dollars were paying for in so many other countries.

This important awakening occurred last October. But it is now abundantly clear that when King Saud turned off the tap of his oil-earned dollars, the Egyptians at once called on the masters of the Kremlin, who turned on the tap of their rubles. The same underground, terrorist, pro-Egyptian activity that was once financed by Saudi Arabia is now financed by the Soviet Union.

This raises two kinds of questions. First, the changed relationship between King Saud and Nasser, like the Jordanian crisis, raises the gravest questions about the future of Nasser's quadripartite Arab alliance of Egypt, Syria, Jordan and Saudi Arabia. Second, Nasser's vastly increased dependence on the Soviets raises even greater questions about the extent to which he can still be considered a free agent. But answers can only be attempted in a subsequent report.

Fried eggs are rarely properly cooked when served in restaurants. This brings about the ruination of many a plate of ham and eggs. The reason fried eggs are seldom cooked as they should be is because restaurant cooks are in too much of a hurry. They apply too much heat to the eggs too quickly. Eggs should be fried with a moderate even heat.

Causes And Treatment Of Adolescent Acne

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

There is more to the treatment of acne than salves and lotions. Most victims are adolescents who may be embarrassed by reference to their appearance. Some blame their pimples and blackheads on bad habits and feel too guilty to ask for help.

The wise physician takes the emotional aspect of the problem and deals directly with the boy or girl rather than the father or mother. Once cooperation and confidence are attained, the usual treatment is recommended.

Soap and water remove dirt and excess oil. In many instances the plug that is blocking the sebaceous gland must be expressed carefully. The local application of sulphur at night softens the skin and helps clear away the blackheads. There are dozens of products containing this chemical, varying from simple ointments to tailor made prescriptions.

Dandruff is a frequent accompaniment and should be treated with shampoos containing selenium or sulfonated detergents. The most beneficial diet in acne omits chocolate, nuts, seafood, coffee, pork, candies, and fried foods. Exposure to the sun is beneficial and now and then it is necessary to use anti-biotics or X-ray therapy. The antituberculosis remedy, isoniazid, was used on 20 victims of acne, with good results in nine.

There is hope for those who have been left with unsightly scars through neglect of the condition. Dermabrasion smoothes the scarred skin with an electrically driven wire brush. The procedure has been used for several years and dermatologists now are able to predict who will be helped. They reject as many as three out of five patients seeking treatment.

In this group are men and women who regard their scarred skin as solely responsible for life's failures and discontentments. Dermabrasion may aid their appearance but they never are satisfied with the improvement because it does not bring the social and economic success they expect.

Dermatologists feel justified in not treating them because there always is a possibility of converting a minor psychological disturbance into a severe one. On the other hand, some of the most enthusiastic patients have had severe scarring and they are happy over any improvement because it means less disfigurement.

COPING WITH ALCOHOL

Mrs. E. writes: My daughter, in her late forties, has become an alcoholic. This habit is breaking up her marriage. How do you go about getting help?

REPLY

Consult your physician, spiritual adviser, or AA. This is a difficult problem to cope with unless the alcoholic admits he is sick and cannot control his actions.

LINIMENTS

Massage. Liniments impart a feeling of warmth to the skin but they do not penetrate the underlying tissues.

REPLY

An older name for schizophrenia. The term implies dementia of the young but no longer is used because this form of insanity also occurs in older persons.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

At M. I. T., they tell of a windy old mossback who lectured once at Yale. "Every letter in your university's name stands for something," he boomed. "The 'Y' is for 'youth,' the 'A' is for 'ambition,' the 'L' is for 'loyalty' and the 'E' is for 'endeavor'—and I mean to say few words about each of these subjects." Two hours later he droned to an end, and most of his audience had sneaked out or fallen asleep. "Does anybody wish to add anything to what I have said?" he inquired rashly.

"I do," proclaimed a student in the front row. "Let us just give thanks you aren't speaking at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology!"

At Dartmouth college, in Hanover, N. H., drama director Walter Roach bit into a slice of juicy cherry pie, almost broke a tooth on a pit therein. He rallied sufficiently to observe, "This pie is more to be pitted than dentured!"

Variety Fair Is Scheduled At Mt. Savage

Event Planned For June 11

MT. SAVAGE — The Mt. Savage High School faculty will sponsor a Tri-State Variety Fair at the school on Tuesday, June 11, to raise funds to purchase an electronic organ for the school auditorium.

Alfred H. Benna, who is resigning as principal of the high school after five years in that capacity here, is in charge of arrangements. This fair will be conducted on the final day of the 1956-57 school year as his farewell effort in behalf of the Mt. Savage school.

This will be Mr. Benna's second such fair at Mt. Savage. His first one, two years ago, attracted some 3,000 persons from many communities in the Tri-State area. This year he is hoping for an attendance of 5,000 between 7 and 11 p. m. June 11.

Many different businesses and professions will have exhibits in the school gymnasium, auditorium, cafeteria and corridors. The school principal said there will be one of each business except in the field of electronic organs. There two different companies will exhibit organs because the faculty has not yet determined from which the school organ will be purchased.

Mr. Benna had his first experience in a fair of this type when one was staged at the old Barton High School about 1949, when he was principal there. One also has been conducted at Valley High School in Lonaconing.

There will be entertainment, prizes and refreshments for the fair visitors and no admission will be charged.

Klondyke Sportsmen Organize New Club

KLONDYKE—A new Klondyke Valley Rod and Gun Club has been organized with David Morgan Sr. as its president.

The group will meet at 7 p. m. today at Winebrenner's Place in Woodland. Its principal objective will be to get Wright's Run stocked with fish. The club is open to men and boys of the area.

Other officers are George Nolan, vice president; John William Hunt, secretary; Henry Cullen, treasurer, and Leslie Cutter Sr., Ralph Clark, Joseph Goodwin, Danny Cullen, Clinton Cutter, John Hersick Jr. and John Sigler Sr., delegates to the Western Maryland Wild Life Association.

Alumni To Meet

WESTERNPORT — The first meeting of the Alumni Association in the new Bruce High School will be held today at 8 p. m. Additional plans will be made for the homecoming and the annual banquet and dance.

Rotarians Hear Dr. Baucom Talk

Frostburg — Dr. Thomas V. Baucom, a member of the faculty of Frostburg State Teachers College, was the speaker at the dinner meeting of the Frostburg Rotary Club held in the sunday school room of the Zion Evangelical and Reformed Church Monday evening.

He explained to the group "the mathematics of the digital calculator" and told of the many different systems and bases used by mathmeticians and calculators today, as well as in ancient times. Contrary to popular belief, Baucom stated, the standard system of Calculation as taught in our schools today, using the base of ten, is not the most efficient or accurate system by any means; some of the electronic calculators now in use by our armed forces use a base of two and eight, and the machines used and constructed by the Bell Telephone Company use a base of four and five.

Dr. Bancom used a blackboard to illustrate his talk, and entertained the members with a number of illustrations of computations using various bases.

Dr. Harold Reese of Baltimore; Lt. Commander Albert C. Cheskam, Richmond, Va.; Max Bastian and Theodore Bell of Cumberland and Captain Daniel Biggs of the Salvation Army, Cumberland, were visitors.

Birthday Observed

ELLERSLIE — Rev. and Mrs. Paul O'Brien entertained Saturday with a birthday party for their son, Sammy, on the occasion of his seventh birthday. Games were played and refreshments were served. Attending were Debbie and Harvey Cook, Becky and Lettie Stahlman, Jean Wenrich, Dickie Nixon, Stanley Stuby, Linda Shroyer, Sandra Iames and Kathy Shroyer.

Names to be printed on the People's Ticket include: For mayor, Robert Wills; for council, Adolph F. Hokamp, Rex Chilcote and Sebastian "Gus" Barbarito.

The Citizens Ticket nominated April 8 is comprised of Mayor Rodney Baker, candidate for reelection; Joseph Maybury and James Bissett, incumbent councilmen and Elmer J. Shaver, council.

A levy will also be voted upon at that time for the purpose of providing the town with a sufficient water supply and other necessary improvements. The levy is for three years only. The increase in the tax rate follows: For Class I property, 6.25 cents on each $100 valuation; Class II, 12.5 cents and Class IV, 25 cents.

Mills told council that his entire ticket was in favor of the levy and that they would vote for it.

Building permits were granted to S. L. Frostburg Police Get Radio Link

Two Transmitters Are Installed

FROSTBURG — Through the cooperation of the Allegany County Civilian Defense organization and the Frostburg Fire Department, short wave radio transmitters have been installed on the desks of the city clerk and the chief of police in the City Hall here.

These two new sending-receiving units are similar to the set which has been in service at the fire station for some time, and which has proven so valuable during a number of fires, both locally and in nearby communities.

The two units were furnished by the Allegany County Civilian Defense organization, and were installed by a group of Frostburg firemen, under the direction of Kenneth Close, radio officer of the department, who will be in charge of the units here.

In case of fire it is possible to keep in close touch with all fire fighting equipment at the scene of the blaze and in case of an emergency should all other means of communication fail, it would still be possible to communicate easily and quickly with surrounding communities, to either call for help, or answer a request for assistance.

At present, in addition to the central units set up in Frostburg, transmitters are in service in Shaft, Clarysville, Midland, Barton and Westernport. Within a short time, Lonaconing, Mt. Savage, Ellerslie, Luke and McCoole will also be equipped with similar sending-receiving units, tying the entire section together in a compact defense unit group, able to call upon one another at any hour of the day or night.

PTA To Sponsor Rummage Sale

FROSTBURG — The Parent-Teacher Association of St. Michael's School will hold a rummage sale in the Eagles Building, East Main Street, Friday and Saturday between 10 a. m. and 5 p. m. The committee in charge is Mrs. Monica Barry, chairman; Mrs. Nellie Alexander and Mrs. Marie Beechie.

Banquet Planned

FROSTBURG — Victory Class of First English Baptist Church will hold the annual mother-daughter banquet in the lower auditorium of the church on May 10, at 6:30 p. m.

Variety Fair Is Scheduled At Mt. Savage

Event Planned For June 11

MT. SAVAGE — The Mt. Savage High School faculty will sponsor a Tri-State Variety Fair at the school on Tuesday, June 11, to raise funds to purchase an electronic organ for the school auditorium.

Alfred H. Benna, who is resigning as principal of the high school after five years in that capacity here, is in charge of arrangements. This fair will be conducted on the final day of the 1956-57 school year as his farewell effort in behalf of the Mt. Savage school.

This will be Mr. Benna's second such fair at Mt. Savage. His first one, two years ago, attracted some 3,000 persons from many communities in the Tri-State area. This year he is hoping for an attendance of 5,000 between 7 and 11 p. m. June 11.

Many different businesses and professions will have exhibits in the school gymnasium, auditorium, cafeteria and corridors. The school principal said there will be one of each business except in the field of electronic organs. There two different companies will exhibit organs because the faculty has not yet determined from which the school organ will be purchased.

Mr. Benna had his first experience in a fair of this type when one was staged at the old Barton High School about 1949, when he was principal there. One also has been conducted at Valley High School in Lonaconing.

There will be entertainment, prizes and refreshments for the fair visitors and no admission will be charged.

Flintstone FFA Officers

Herb Score Injured As Indians Beat Yankees, 2-1

Cleveland Ace Struck In Eye By Line Drive

Hurt In Opening Frame; Reliefer Lemon Is Victor

CLEVELAND, May 7 (AP) — The Cleveland Indians beat the New York Yankees 2-1 tonight on two unearned runs and lost for an indefinite period the services of their prize southpaw, Herb Score, who was struck in the right eye by a hard-hit liner.

Score was taken to a hospital, and it will be "several days" before full extent of the damage to his badly cut eye can be ascertained.

HERB SCORE

Bob Lemon took over when Score was carried off the field with two out in the first inning and held the Yanks to six hits.

Chicago Beats Bucs In 14th

PITTSBURGH, May 7 (AP)—The Chicago Cubs scored four runs in the 14th inning tonight and hung on for a 10-8 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates who were pushed into the National League cellar. Dale Long, a former Pirate drove in what proved to be the winning run.

The Pirates scored twice in the ninth to forge a 6-6 tie, the fourth consecutive night game they have rallied for a tie and gone on to lose.

And in the 14th, after the Cubs had scored four times, the Pirates tried to come back again but Jackie Collum—the sixth Cub pitcher—came in to stop the rally.

A crowd of 9,957 watched the contest which required four hours and 17 minutes. The victory went to Turk Lown who gave up one hit in 4 2-3 innings. The defeat was charged to Laurin Pepper, recently recalled from Hollywood.

Bill Thompson Hits Three Home Runs In R.C. Loop Opener

Bill Thompson slammed three home runs and won his own game in the role of relief hurler as the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company celebrated its debut in the Rocking Chair Softball League by defeating Ritter's Social Club yesterday at Penn Avenue Field by the score of 11-8.

A five-run outburst, including Thompson's third circuit wallop with a mate aboard, decided the battle in the top of the 7th frame.

Thompson had supplanted "Bud" Law on the mound in the fifth inning and got credit for the victory. Bill hammered across six runs with his round-trippers, his second coming with two on the hassocks. Okie Joe Thompson contributed three hits and John Harbaugh had two for the winners. Bob Koelker banged two doubles and a triple, Ritter had a pair of two-baggers and Zimmerman connected for two singles for Ritter's. Marshall Barbe went the route on the hillock for the losers.

Outdoor Trims Moose

"Pete" Elliott's pitching coupled with the hitting of Ronnie Cage, "Bub" Porter and Kenny Troutman who racked up eight of their team's ten hits enabled the Cumberland Outdoor Club to whip the Loyal Order of Moose at Stitcher Field by the score of 9-5.

Cage banged a homer and two singles, Porter had three singles and Troutman smacked a double and single. Esposito and Angellatta shared four of the Moose team's nine safeties.

Elks Wallop Caseys

At Campobello, the B.P.O. Elks hammered K. of C. pitchers for 15 hits and easily won by the score of 15-5.

"Tag" Reel and Roy Mangus with three hits each and Bill Underdonk with a homer sparked the attack for the Elks. Reel's Bob McGreevy and Norman Geatz with two hits each, led the blows included a pair of doubles. Caseys, Roy Mangus, Elks' centerfielder, and Mickey Clark, Knights' shortstop, were the field stars. Dick Klavuhn, who was relieved by Underdonk in the fifth, was the winning pitcher. Gene Scaletta took the loss.

The Celanese-VFW opener was postponed by mutual agreement. The scores:

Brewer Wins Over Chisox

25,953 See Bosox Cop 4-3 Decision

Chicago, May 7 (AP) — Tom Brewer's excellent three-hit pitching and Ted Williams' big bat pulled the Boston Red Sox to a 4-3 triumph over the Chicago White Sox tonight before a crowd of 25,953.

Williams singled home a run in the first, walked three times in a row—twice intentionally — before blasting a two-run ninth inning homer to ice Brewer's third triumph against two defeats.

Williams' homer, his sixth of the season, proved to be the big blow. Brewer got careless and served a two-run homer to Larry Doby with two out in the ninth.

Score Reported In Good Spirits

CLEVELAND, May 7 (AP)—A hard line drive by Gil McDougald of the New York Yankees hit pitcher Herb Score in the right eye in the first inning of tonight' game. His eye was badly cut.

The Cleveland Indians' ace southpaw was carried from the field on a stretcher, bleeding profusely from the nose and mouth. He was taken immediately to Lakeside Hospital. He remained conscious.

Dr. Don Kelly, Tribe physician, said it would be several days before he could determine whether any permanent damage was done to the eye.

Cardinals Bow To Giants, 8-5

Ray Katt's Hitting Highlights Victory

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP) — Ray Katt drove in three runs with a double and two singles to lead the New York Giants to an 8-5 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals tonight. Katt's two-run single in the fifth inning highlighted a three-run rally erasing a 5-3 St. Louis lead.

The Giants pounded Herman Wehmeier and Bob Smith, his successor, for 15 hits, their biggest assault of the season. Red Schoendienst and Dusty Rhodes hit home runs, both coming in the first inning to give the Giants a quick 2-0 lead. Everybody in the Giant lineup hit safely at least once with the exception of the pitchers.

Pete Burnside started for the Giants but he couldn't protect a 3-0 lead and was derricked in the fifth when the Cards assaulted him for five hits and as many runs. The hits included home runs by Ken Boyer and Wally Moon, a double by Hal Smith and a triple by Wehmeier.

Robin Roberts Defeats Spahn

Phils Get 13 Hits, Trim Braves, 8-4

PHILADELPHIA, May 7 (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies slapped Milwaukee pitching for 13 hits tonight, handing Warren Spahn his first defeat of the season in an 8-4 victory behind Robin Roberts.

Spahn left for a pinchhitter after giving up five runs and seven hits in four innings. He had won four straight this season, on no occasion allowing more than two runs.

Granny Hamner, the Phillies veteran infielder and a team sparkplug, signalled the end of his experiment as a pitcher by returning to the lineup at second base. He opened the third inning by driving one of lefty Spahn's pitches into the upper left field stands and also singled in his four trips to the plate.

Stan Lopata, Phillies slugger who has been anything but awesome this season, snapped to life with a perfect night at the plate—three singles and a double—and drove in one run. But Chico Fernandez, Phillies' shortstop, did the most damage to Milwaukee's chances by singling twice to drive in three runs.

BROOKLYN, May 7 (AP) — The Cincinnati Redlegs pounded three Brooklyn pitchers for 14 hits to defeat the Dodgers 9-2 tonight for their eighth straight victory. Hal Jeffcoat spaced six hits for his second triumph as the Redlegs climbed to within a half game of second place and a game and a half behind the league leading Milwaukee Braves.

In winning for the first time at Ebbets Field, Jeffcoat walked three and struck out three. Both Brooklyn runs were unearned.

Art Schult got three hits to pace the Reds' attack which included six doubles, two by Don Hoak. The red hot infielder also drew two walks, stole a base and drove in two runs. Frank Robinson and Roy McMillan also batted in a pair of runs as Johnny Podres went down to his second defeat.

Gino Cimoli, who collected five hits, including a game-winning home run against Milwaukee last night, continued his torrid hitting for Brooklyn, banging two singles in four times at bat. The biggest Dodger hit was a two-bagger by Don Zimmer in the fifth.

Hundley To Enter Army On Thursday

CHARLESTON, W. Va., May 7 (AP)—Rod Hundley, West Virginia University's All-America basketball star from Charles, said today that he will leave here Thursday morning for a two-year tour of active duty in the Army.

Hundley, first choice in the National Basketball Assn. player draft last April 17, said he had exhausted all possibilities of obtaining additional deferrment from the draft board here. The "Hot Rod" hoped to continue work on his college degree this summer at the University.

The All-America's status upon completion of Army duty is that he belongs to the Minneapolis Lakers, if he decides to try professional basketball.

Bassey-Hamia Scrap May Be Held June 7

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP)—The International Boxing Club today began negotiations for a Hogan (Kid) Bassey-Cherif Hamia featherweight championship fight at Syracuse, N. Y., June 7 to replace the doubtful light heavyweight title fuss between Archie Moore and Tony Anthony.

Harry Markson, IBC managing director, said he had received no word from Moore, the 175-pound champion who is in Germany, and that he couldn't wait any longer. He came to terms with Bassey's manager George Biddles, by telephone today and dispatched a representative to France to talk to Hamia.

Cleveland Ace Struck In Eye By Line Drive

Hurt In Opening Frame; Reliefer Lemon Is Victor

CLEVELAND, May 7 (AP) — The Cleveland Indians beat the New York Yankees 2-1 tonight on two unearned runs and lost for an indefinite period the services of their prize southpaw, Herb Score, who was struck in the right eye by a hard-hit liner.

Score was taken to a hospital, and it will be "several days" before full extent of the damage to his badly cut eye can be ascertained.

HERB SCORE

Bob Lemon took over when Score was carried off the field with two out in the first inning and held the Yanks to six hits.

Chicago Beats Bucs In 14th

PITTSBURGH, May 7 (AP)—The Chicago Cubs scored four runs in the 14th inning tonight and hung on for a 10-8 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates who were pushed into the National League cellar. Dale Long, a former Pirate drove in what proved to be the winning run.

The Pirates scored twice in the ninth to forge a 6-6 tie, the fourth consecutive night game they have rallied for a tie and gone on to lose.

And in the 14th, after the Cubs had scored four times, the Pirates tried to come back again but Jackie Collum—the sixth Cub pitcher—came in to stop the rally.

A crowd of 9,957 watched the contest which required four hours and 17 minutes. The victory went to Turk Lown who gave up one hit in 4 2-3 innings. The defeat was charged to Laurin Pepper, recently recalled from Hollywood.

Bill Thompson Hits Three Home Runs In R.C. Loop Opener

Bill Thompson slammed three home runs and won his own game in the role of relief hurler as the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company celebrated its debut in the Rocking Chair Softball League by defeating Ritter's Social Club yesterday at Penn Avenue Field by the score of 11-8.

A five-run outburst, including Thompson's third circuit wallop with a mate aboard, decided the battle in the top of the 7th frame.

Thompson had supplanted "Bud" Law on the mound in the fifth inning and got credit for the victory. Bill hammered across six runs with his round-trippers, his second coming with two on the hassocks. Okie Joe Thompson contributed three hits and John Harbaugh had two for the winners. Bob Koelker banged two doubles and a triple, Ritter had a pair of two-baggers and Zimmerman connected for two singles for Ritter's. Marshall Barbe went the route on the hillock for the losers.

Outdoor Trims Moose

"Pete" Elliott's pitching coupled with the hitting of Ronnie Cage, "Bub" Porter and Kenny Troutman who racked up eight of their team's ten hits enabled the Cumberland Outdoor Club to whip the Loyal Order of Moose at Stitcher Field by the score of 9-5.

Cage banged a homer and two singles, Porter had three singles and Troutman smacked a double and single. Esposito and Angellatta shared four of the Moose team's nine safeties.

Elks Wallop Caseys

At Campobello, the B.P.O. Elks hammered K. of C. pitchers for 15 hits and easily won by the score of 15-5.

"Tag" Reel and Roy Mangus with three hits each and Bill Underdonk with a homer sparked the attack for the Elks. Reel's Bob McGreevy and Norman Geatz with two hits each, led the blows included a pair of doubles. Caseys. Roy Mangus, Elks' centerfielder, and Mickey Clark, Knights' shortstop, were the field stars. Dick Klavuhn, who was relieved by Underdonk in the fifth, was the winning pitcher. Gene Scaletta took the loss.

The Celanese-VFW opener was postponed by mutual agreement. The scores:

Brewer Wins Over Chisox

25,953 See Bosox Cop 4-3 Decision

Chicago, May 7 (AP) — Tom Brewer's excellent three-hit pitching and Ted Williams' big bat pulled the Boston Red Sox to a 4-3 triumph over the Chicago White Sox tonight before a crowd of 25,953.

Williams singled home a run in the first, walked three times in a row—twice intentionally — before blasting a two-run ninth inning homer to ice Brewer's third triumph against two defeats.

Williams' homer, his sixth of the season, proved to be the big blow. Brewer got careless and served a two-run homer to Larry Doby with two out in the ninth.

Score Reported In Good Spirits

CLEVELAND, May 7 (AP)—A hard line drive by Gil McDougald of the New York Yankees hit pitcher Herb Score in the right eye in the first inning of tonight' game. His eye was badly cut.

The Cleveland Indians' ace southpaw was carried from the field on a stretcher, bleeding profusely from the nose and mouth. He was taken immediately to Lakeside Hospital. He remained conscious.

Dr. Don Kelly, Tribe physician, said it would be several days before he could determine whether any permanent damage was done to the eye.

Ray Katt's Hitting Highlights Victory

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP) — Ray Katt drove in three runs with a double and two singles to lead the New York Giants to an 8-5 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals tonight. Katt's two-run single in the fifth inning highlighted a three-run rally erasing a 5-3 St. Louis lead.

The Giants pounded Herman Wehmeier and Bob Smith, his successor, for 15 hits, their biggest assault of the season. Red Schoendienst and Dusty Rhodes hit home runs, both coming in the first inning to give the Giants a quick 2-0 lead. Everybody in the Giant lineup hit safely at least once with the exception of the pitchers.

Pete Burnside started for the Giants but he couldn't protect a 3-0 lead and was derricked in the fifth when the Cards assaulted him for five hits and as many runs. The hits included home runs by Ken Boyer and Wally Moon, a double by Hal Smith and a triple by Wehmeier.

Robin Roberts Defeats Spahn

Phils Get 13 Hits, Trim Braves, 8-4

PHILADELPHIA, May 7 (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies slapped Milwaukee pitching for 13 hits tonight, handing Warren Spahn his first defeat of the season in an 8-4 victory behind Robin Roberts.

Spahn left for a pinchhitter after giving up five runs and seven hits in four innings. He had won four straight this season, on no occasion allowing more than two runs.

Granny Hamner, the Phillies veteran infielder and a team sparkplug, signalled the end of his experiment as a pitcher by returning to the lineup at second base. He opened the third inning by driving one of lefty Spahn's pitches into the upper left field stands and also singled in his four trips to the plate.

Stan Lopata, Phillies slugger who has been anything but awesome this season, snapped to life with a perfect night at the plate—three singles and a double—and drove in one run. But Chico Fernandez, Phillies' shortstop, did the most damage to Milwaukee's chances by singling twice to drive in three runs.

BROOKLYN, May 7 (AP) — The Cincinnati Redlegs pounded three Brooklyn pitchers for 14 hits to defeat the Dodgers 9-2 tonight for their eighth straight victory. Hal Jeffcoat spaced six hits for his second triumph as the Redlegs climbed to within a half game of second place and a game and a half behind the league leading Milwaukee Braves.

In winning for the first time at Ebbets Field, Jeffcoat walked three and struck out three. Both Brooklyn runs were unearned.

Art Schult got three hits to pace the Reds' attack which included six doubles, two by Don Hoak. The red hot infielder also drew two walks, stole a base and drove in two runs. Frank Robinson and Roy McMillan also batted in a pair of runs as Johnny Podres went down to his second defeat.

Gino Cimoli, who collected five hits, including a game-winning home run against Milwaukee last night, continued his torrid hitting for Brooklyn, banging two singles in four times at bat. The biggest Dodger hit was a two-bagger by Don Zimmer in the fifth.

Hundley To Enter Army On Thursday

CHARLESTON, W. Va., May 7 (AP)—Rod Hundley, West Virginia University's All-America basketball star from Charles, said today that he will leave here Thursday morning for a two-year tour of active duty in the Army.

Hundley, first choice in the National Basketball Assn. player draft last April 17, said he had exhausted all possibilities of obtaining additional deferment from the draft board here. The "Hot Rod" hoped to continue work on his college degree this summer at the University.

The All-America's status upon completion of Army duty is that he belongs to the Minneapolis Lakers, if he decides to try professional basketball.

Bassey-Hamia Scrap May Be Held June 7

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP)—The International Boxing Club today began negotiations for a Hogan (Kid) Bassey-Cherif Hamia featherweight championship fight at Syracuse, N. Y., June 7 to replace the doubtful light heavyweight title fuss between Archie Moore and Tony Anthony.

Harry Markson, IBC managing director, said he had received no word from Moore, the 175-pound champion who is in Germany, and that he couldn't wait any longer. He came to terms with Bassey's manager George Biddles, by telephone today and dispatched a representative to France to talk to Hamia.

Games Today
Allegany at Beall (4 p. m.)

Valley High School and Mt. Savage High School engaged in the eleventh extra inning battle of the Allegany County Interscholastic League season yesterday at Barton and Coach Johnny Meyers' Black Knights emerged the victors, 7-6, and moved within a half game of Fort Hill and Allegany, the circuit's deadlocked leaders.

It was the fifth time this season Valley had participated in an overtime contest and it was the second time the Knights had won. Two of the games ended in tie scores.

Yesterday's tilt was the 12th decided by the margin of a single run this season.

Young's Hit Wins

Valley sewed it up in the 9th inning when Tom Warnick singled, pilfered second base and crossed the platter on Ronnie "Butch" Young's single to center that broke the 6-6 deadlock.

In a duel between southpaws, Grover Fazenbaker was returned the winner over Wayne Fleegle. Fazenbaker yielded only six hits, whiffed 11 to boost his total victims to 43 and scored his two wins against one setback.

Warnick, Young and Muir obtained two hits each for Valley while Fleegle collected three of the six blows credited to the Indians. It was the fourth game that Mt. Savage lost by a single run.

Fleegle yielded 11 hits, struck out nine and suffered his second loss against one victory.

Bruce Takes 1-0 Battle

The first 1-0 game of the season also was recorded yesterday when Coach Leonard Ritchie's Bruce High Bulldogs eked out a decision over the Flintstone Aggies in the top of the 7th and final frame at Flintstone.

Jim Newlon emerged the winner over Wayne Boggs in a neat slab duel when "Pete" Guthrie got a life on an error by the shortstop, moved to second on Dick Wilson's sacrifice and scored the game's only run when Lynn Morris rapped a hit to left field.

Morris accounted for three of Bruce's six hits, including the game's only extra base wallop, a double. Dale Bible obtained two of the three safeties yielded by Newlon.

The game was completed in the fast time of one hour and 10 minutes.

LaSalle Downs Beall

LaSalle High's Explorers, still on the comeback trail, posted their third straight victory over Beall High's Mountaineers at Stitcher Field by the score of 4-2.

Matt Mullaney, who had lost three close decisions, went the route in yesterday's game to gain the nod over Marshall Winters.

Coach Norman Sell's Explorers exploded for three runs to put the game on ice in the third inning.

Each team collected eight hits. Charley Imes, Van Parsons and Garlitz of LaSalle and John Anderson and Jimmy Skidmore of Beall had two hits each.

Campers At Beall

Allegany and Beall are scheduled to clash today at 4 o'clock in Frostburg. A victory would enable the Campers to break their tie for first place with Fort Hill. The first Allegany-Beall game was a 7-7 tie and was halted in the 7th inning by rain.

LAVAGETTO CONGRATULATED — Harry (Cookie) Lavagetto (second from left) received congratulations at the Briggs Stadium, Detroit, yesterday after it was announced he would succeed Charlie Dressen as manager of the Washington Senators. President Calvin Griffith (left) announced that Dressen had been fired. Other players are unidentified. Cookie made his debut as manager yesterday as the Senators faced the Tigers. (AP Photofax)

Ward May Lose His Standing As Amateur

Denies He Took Expense Money

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP)—Harvie Ward Jr. of San Francisco, rated the world's outstanding amateur golfer, faced loss of his amateur standing today on possible expense money irregularities. But he could be reinstated immediately.

Ward's status as an amateur became clouded by testimony of his San Francisco automobile firm employer, Edward E. Lowery, before a grand jury investigating Lowery's income tax returns.

Lowery said he paid Ward's expenses to the Canadian golf championship in London, Ontario, and the U.S. National Amateur in Detroit in 1954. He was quoted as saying he did it as a reward for Harvie's "good work as a salesman."

Today Lowery, a former director of the U. S. Golf Assn., said Harvie "did not breach any amateur rules." Ward, 31, winner of the national amateur title the last two years and former champion of Britain and Canada, heatedly denied any infractions.

"I did not accept any expense money," Ward, formerly of Tarboro, N.C., said. "I borrowed $11,000, but it was strictly a loan. I have paid some of it back."

In New York, the U.S. Golf Assn. ruling body of golf, admitted it was caught completely off guard by the news but said an investigation would be made immediately.

Miranda Is Hurt

KANSAS CITY, May 7 (AP)—Willy Miranda, Baltimore Oriole shortstop, was injured in the second inning of tonight's game between Baltimore and Kansas City.

Miranda was carried from the field on a stretcher. There was no immediate report on the extent of his injury.

Deals Are Confusing

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Giants can get into more confusing baseball deals. Last year they sent Ray Katt and Whitey Lockman to the St. Louis Cardinals. Now they have them back, the result of two separate deals.

The Giants sought Jack Robinson and gave up Dick Littlefield to Brooklyn last December, but Robinson retired in January. They took Littlefield back. Then the day before the season opened Littlefield was dealt to the Chicago Cubs for Katt whom the Cards had sent to the Cubs last Dec. 10.

Murchison Group Reported Ready To Buy Charles Town

BALTIMORE, Md., May 7 (INS)—The Baltimore News-Post reported today that a group of Texans, headed by oil millionaire Clint Murchison, is ready to buy the Charles Town, W. Va., race track.

The newspaper said the Murchison syndicate holds an option to buy the track for four million dollars from its present Maryland owner, Albert J. Boyle.

Don Carter, who has been associated with Murchison for 17 years, said in Dallas today that the transfer "hasn't quite been finalized" but that he is "hopeful."

Carter added: "There are a few loose ends to be tied up in the deal but I don't believe there will be any slip."

Murchison's option to buy Charles Town expires May 15. But Carter said he was "almost certain" the transaction would be completed even before that date. The Charles Town track, under any ownership, is expected to apply for June 27-September 7 racing dates.

Coach Paul Kalbaugh's Elk Garden High School tossers tied Moorefield High School for first place in the Potomac Valley Conference by registering their eighth consecutive victory over the West Virginia School for the Deaf yesterday at Romney. The score was 17-1.

The undefeated Elks had two big innings, the second when they scored nine runs and the seventh when they chalked up five tallies.

Dewaine Murphy became the winningest pitcher in the area this season when he notched win No. 5. He toiled for six innings, yielded seven hits and one run and whiffed 11 batsmen, upping his season total to 45. Harvey pitched hitless and runless ball for the Elks in the final frame.

Elk Garden belted the offerings of Popovich and McCoy for 17 hits, including a pair of triples and a single by Paul Tasker and three one-base knocks by Murphy. Charles Buemi collected three of the Lions' seven safeties.

The West Virginia School for the Deaf was charged with 10 fielding bobbles.

Keyser Cops Slugfest

Keyser High School made its record 7-2 in the conference by taking a 17-13 slugfest from the Romney High Pioneers at Keyser.

Coach "Tack" Clark's aggregation racked up 18 hits to 15 for Clyde Green's outfit. Bill Maphis led all stickers with four hits in five trips, including a two-run homer and double. Bill Clevenger, Melvin Davis and Gary Keedy garnered three blows each to pace Keyser.

Keyser trailed 13-6 until the 6th when an 11-run rally settled the issue in favor of the Golden Tornado. The win went to Dave Wilson, his first of the season. Hartman took the loss.

Orioles Send Powis, Beamon To Coast

BALTIMORE, May 7 (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles today sent pitcher Charley Beamon to Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League on 24-hour recall and assigned outfielder Carl Powis to the same club.

The move cut the team's roster to 26 and paved the way for the return of Tito Francona, called up from the same team yesterday.

The Orioles still have to trim one more player from the squad by the May 15 cutoff date. Meanwhile, Brooks Robinson, injured rookie third baseman remains on the disabled list.

Lowery said he paid Ward's expenses to the Canadian golf championship in London, Ontario, and the U.S. National Amateur in Detroit in 1954. He was quoted as saying he did it as a reward for Harvie's "good work as a salesman."

Today Lowery, a former director of the U. S. Golf Assn., said Harvie "did not breach any amateur rules." Ward, 31, winner of the national amateur title the last two years and former champion of Britain and Canada, heatedly denied any infractions.

"I did not accept any expense money," Ward, formerly of Tarboro, N.C., said. "I borrowed $11,000, but it was strictly a loan. I have paid some of it back."

In New York, the U.S. Golf Assn. ruling body of golf, admitted it was caught completely off guard by the news but said an investigation would be made immediately.

Deals Are Confusing

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Giants can get into more confusing baseball deals. Last year they sent Ray Katt and Whitey Lockman to the St. Louis Cardinals. Now they have them back, the result of two separate deals.

The Giants sought Jack Robinson and gave up Dick Littlefield to Brooklyn last December, but Robinson retired in January. They took Littlefield back. Then the day before the season opened Littlefield was dealt to the Chicago Cubs for Katt whom the Cards had sent to the Cubs last Dec. 10.

Coach Paul Kalbaugh's Elk Garden High School tossers tied Moorefield High School for first place in the Potomac Valley Conference by registering their eighth consecutive victory over the West Virginia School for the Deaf yesterday at Romney. The score was 17-1.

The undefeated Elks had two big innings, the second when they scored nine runs and the seventh when they chalked up five tallies.

Dewaine Murphy became the winningest pitcher in the area this season when he notched win No. 5. He toiled for six innings, yielded seven hits and one run and whiffed 11 batsmen, upping his season total to 45. Harvey pitched hitless and runless ball for the Elks in the final frame.

Elk Garden belted the offerings of Popovich and McCoy for 17 hits, including a pair of triples and a single by Paul Tasker and three one-base knocks by Murphy. Charles Buemi collected three of the Lions' seven safeties.

The West Virginia School for the Deaf was charged with 10 fielding bobbles.

Keyser Cops Slugfest

Keyser High School made its record 7-2 in the conference by taking a 17-13 slugfest from the Romney High Pioneers at Keyser.

Coach "Tack" Clark's aggregation racked up 18 hits to 15 for Clyde Green's outfit. Bill Maphis led all stickers with four hits in five trips, including a two-run homer and double. Bill Clevenger, Melvin Davis and Gary Keedy garnered three blows each to pace Keyser.

Keyser trailed 13-6 until the 6th when an 11-run rally settled the issue in favor of the Golden Tornado. The win went to Dave Wilson, his first of the season. Hartman took the loss.

Orioles Send Powis, Beamon To Coast

BALTIMORE, May 7 (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles today sent pitcher Charley Beamon to Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League on 24-hour recall and assigned outfielder Carl Powis to the same club.

The move cut the team's roster to 26 and paved the way for the return of Tito Francona, called up from the same team yesterday.

The Orioles still have to trim one more player from the squad by the May 15 cutoff date. Meanwhile, Brooks Robinson, injured rookie third baseman remains on the disabled list.

Murchison Group Reported Ready To Buy Charles Town

BALTIMORE, Md., May 7 (INS)—The Baltimore News-Post reported today that a group of Texans, headed by oil millionaire Clint Murchison, is ready to buy the Charles Town, W. Va., race track.

The newspaper said the Murchison syndicate holds an option to buy the track for four million dollars from its present Maryland owner, Albert J. Boyle.

Don Carter, who has been associated with Murchison for 17 years, said in Dallas today that the transfer "hasn't quite been finalized" but that he is "hopeful."

Carter added: "There are a few loose ends to be tied up in the deal but I don't believe there will be any slip."

Murchison's option to buy Charles Town expires May 15. But Carter said he was "almost certain" the transaction would be completed even before that date. The Charles Town track, under any ownership, is expected to apply for June 27-September 7 racing dates.

Hartack Expects To Ride Gen. Duke In The Preakness

BALTIMORE, May 7 (AP)—Jockey Willie Hartack, who rode Iron Liege to victory in the Kentucky Derby, said today he will ride Gen. Duke in the $100,000 Preakness May 18 if the horse starts.

Iron Liege and Gen. Duke are stablemates in Mrs. Gene Markey's Calumet Farm string. Iron Liege, rated the No. 2 horse, won the derby in a thrilling race with Gallant Man after Gen. Duke was scratched because of a foot injury.

Hartack's decision to leave a winning mount in the middle of racing's triple crown series is unusual, but Willie has maintained since the start of the Florida racing season that Gen. Duke is the better of the two Calumet colts.

Flanagan Loses Decision To Cop

MINNEAPOLIS, May 7 (AP)—Del Flanagan, St. Paul welterweight who recently defeated Kid Gavilan in the ring, was arrested early today after losing a bout with a 200-pound policeman.

Flanagan, 28, and his brother Glen, 30-year-old boxer, were charged with disorderly conduct.

Patrolman Leo Bessner said he subdued Del after Flanagan landed a right to the cheek and a left to the eye.

Flanagan went down, but not out when Bessner countered. The officer then sat on the St. Paul scrapper until a patrol wagon arrived.

Del and Glen were arrested after a cab driver complained the two had been fighting in the back seat of the taxi. A policeman earlier had called the cab after some trouble in a downtown bar.

Police said Glen Flanagan stayed out of the foray between Del and Patrolman Bessner. Both were released on $25 bail, Glen immediately and Del about four hours later.

Red Disc Will Be Hung At Churchill Downs Finish Line

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 7 (AP)—Bill Corum, president of Louisville's Churchill Downs, said today a red disc will be hung over the track at the finish line before next year's Kentucky Derby.

The disc would eliminate any confusion such as last Saturday, when jockey Willie Shoemaker misjudged the finish line and momentarily eased up Gallant Man. Shoemaker's mount finished second to Iron Liege in a photo finish. Shoemaker was suspended yesterday for 15 days by Churchill Downs.

Southern Tops Masontown, 5-4

OAKLAND, Md., May 7—Southern High School rallied in the sixth and seventh innings today to gain a 5-4 decision over Masontown (W. Va.) High School.

Trailing 4-1, the Highlanders scored two runs in the sixth and two in the seventh to chalk up their fifth victory in eight starts.

Gary Bittinger tripled after two down in the seventh and scored the tying run when Wine was safe on an error. Bobby Shiffy's two base wallop sent Wine over with the deciding tally.

Reliefer Don Dewitt received credit for the win, his third against one loss this season. He fanned eight and gave up one base on balls.

Shiffy and Terry Colaw collected two hits each for Southern. The former banged a two-bagger and triple. Lawson accounted for two of Masontown's six safeties. The box:

Foytack Posts Second Victory Over Senators

Bolling And House Homer In 5-3 Game

DETROIT, May 7 (AP) — Home runs by Frank Bolling and Frank House plus the tight, three-hit pitching of righthander Paul Foytack spoiled Cookie Lavagetto's debut as Washington manager today as the Detroit Tigers beat the Senators, 5-3. The loss was Washington's ninth straight.

Bolling drove in two runs with his fourth homer and House scored two more with his second. Both blasts came in the fifth inning off sidearmer Ted Abernathy, first of three Washington pitchers.

Foytack, winning his second straight after a single loss, was in frequent trouble because of seven walks, but he never let the Senators get out of hand.

Lavagetto was named to succeed Charlie Dressen just two hours before the club took the field. The Washington club now has dropped 17 of its 21 games this season.

The Senators scored first in the third when Abernathy singled, advanced on a walk and a sacrifice and came home on Pete Runnels' sacrifice fly. They added their other two runs in the sixth. Roy Sievers walked and scored on Jim Lemon's double down the left field line. Lemon, who took third on the throw to the plate, scored on an infield out.

SPORTS GRILL

by Pat Robinson

International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 7—(INS)—It may be that for the first time in a great many years a Washington crew may not be seen in the intercollegiate rowing regatta on Lake Onondaga at Syracuse this year.

As you know, Washington was suspended from National Collegiate Athletic Association competition because of a little irregularity in regard to proselyting athletes.

This is a regrettable situation and one which we consider rather unfair for we can't understand why oarsmen, who may be the only 100 per cent pure amateurs in college athletics, should be punished for the sins, if any, of their football brethren.

The situation is particularly unpalatable because Washington has sent forth a great group of oarsmen who have taught and are teaching eastern oarsmen how to row.

The Onondaga regatta would not be the same without those tall boys from the northwest. They always were magnificent physical specimens and they knew their stuff.

And speaking of physical specimens, this year's Princeton crew is an eye-arresting outfit. They average 6' 3" or a little more and they'll tip the scale at an average 195.

Princeton probably will be at its best in the longer races. The Tigers are the Conn McCrearys of the water. They like to come from behind to win as they did against a very good Penn crew last Saturday when they appeared hopelessly beaten a quarter mile from the finish.

The eastern crews are further advanced than usual at this time because of good weather. Some of them have logged hundreds of miles and already are in perfect racing trim.

Eastern coaches agree that Yale, the Olympic champions, Cornell, which returns a crack crew intact, and always dangerous Navy, coached by the old maestro, Rusty Callow, will be the most powerful crews in the east.

No one seems to know just how good Harvard may be but we never saw a poor crew represent the Crimson.

Syracuse will have a far stronger boat than it has had in many years and Rutgers must be reckoned with hereafter. Both schools are making determined efforts to lure oarsmen. Columbia, which always is beautifully coached by Bud Raney but lacks power, will finish somewhere in the middle of the pack at Onondaga.

We don't know yet just how strong Stanford, California or Wisconsin may be but eastern coaches are confident that the East's best is sure to beat anything the west has to offer this year. There have been other years when they felt the same way only to suffer a rude awakening. Could happen again.

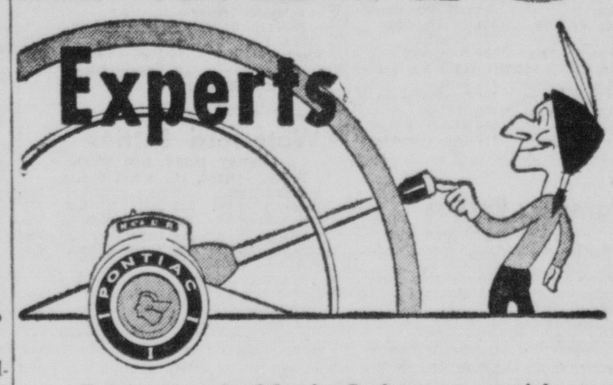

Gallant Man Is Questionable Starter

BALTIMORE, May 7 (AP) — Gallant Man, Ralph Lowe's runner-up in the Kentucky Derby, was "shaken" by his 30-hour train trip from Louisville to New York and is a questionable starter in the $100,000 added Preakness here, Pimlico officials said today.

Trainer Johnny Nerud told track operators he would not decide for "four or five days" whether the colt would be shipped to Pimlico for the May 18 race.

Early Turkish gardeners were the first to develop the tulip from wild flower to garden beauty.

Hartack Expects To Ride Gen. Duke In The Preakness

BALTIMORE, May 7 (AP)—Jockey Willie Hartack, who rode Iron Liege to victory in the Kentucky Derby, said today he will ride Gen. Duke in the $100,000 Preakness May 18 if the horse starts.

Iron Liege and Gen. Duke are stablemates in Mrs. Gene Markey's Calumet Farm string. Iron Liege, rated the No. 2 horse, won the derby in a thrilling race with Gallant Man after Gen. Duke was scratched because of a foot injury.

Hartack's decision to leave a winning mount in the middle of racing's triple crown series is unusual, but Willie has maintained since the start of the Florida racing season that Gen. Duke is the better of the two Calumet colts.

Flanagan Loses Decision To Cop

MINNEAPOLIS, May 7 (AP)—Del Flanagan, St. Paul welterweight who recently defeated Kid Gavilan in the ring, was arrested early today after losing a bout with a 200-pound policeman.

Flanagan, 28, and his brother Glen, 30-year-old boxer, were charged with disorderly conduct.

Patrolman Leo Bessner said he subdued Del after Flanagan landed a right to the cheek and a left to the eye.

Flanagan went down, but not out when Bessner countered. The officer then sat on the St. Paul scrapper until a patrol wagon arrived.

Del and Glen were arrested after a cab driver complained the two had been fighting in the back seat of the taxi. A policeman earlier had called the cab after some trouble in a downtown bar.

Police said Glen Flanagan stayed out of the foray between Del and Patrolman Bessner. Both were released on $25 bail, Glen immediately and Del about four hours later.

Mrs. George M. Young Wins CCC Tournament

Red Disc Will Be Hung At Churchill Downs Finish Line

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 7 (AP)—Bill Corum, president of Louisville's Churchill Downs, said today a red disc will be hung over the track at the finish line before next year's Kentucky Derby.

The disc would eliminate any confusion such as last Saturday, when jockey Willie Shoemaker misjudged the finish line and momentarily eased up Gallant Man. Shoemaker's mount finished second to Iron Liege in a photo finish. Shoemaker was suspended yesterday for 15 days by Churchill Downs.

Southern Tops Masontown, 5-4

OAKLAND, Md., May 7—Southern High School rallied in the sixth and seventh innings today to gain a 5-4 decision over Masontown (W. Va.) High School.

Trailing 4-1, the Highlanders scored two runs in the sixth and two in the seventh to chalk up their fifth victory in eight starts.

Gary Bittinger tripled after two down in the seventh and scored the tying run when Wine was safe on an error. Bobby Shiffy's two base wallop sent Wine over with the deciding tally.

Reliefer Don Dewitt received credit for the win, his third against one loss this season. He fanned eight and gave up one base on balls.

Shiffy and Terry Colaw collected two hits each for Southern. The former banged a two-bagger and triple. Lawson accounted for two of Masontown's six safeties. The box:

Foytack Posts Second Victory Over Senators

Bolling And House Homer In 5-3 Game

DETROIT, May 7 (AP) — Home runs by Frank Bolling and Frank House plus the tight, three-hit pitching of righthander Paul Foytack spoiled Cookie Lavagetto's debut as Washington manager today as the Detroit Tigers beat the Senators, 5-3. The loss was Washington's ninth straight.

Bolling drove in two runs with his fourth homer and House scored two more with his second. Both blasts came in the fifth inning off sidearmer Ted Abernathy, first of three Washington pitchers.

Foytack, winning his second straight after a single loss, was in frequent trouble because of seven walks, but he never let the Senators get out of hand.

Lavagetto was named to succeed Charlie Dressen just two hours before the club took the field. The Washington club now has dropped 17 of its 21 games this season.

The Senators scored first in the third when Abernathy singled, advanced on a walk and a sacrifice and came home on Pete Runnels' sacrifice fly. They added their other two runs in the sixth. Roy Sievers walked and scored on Jim Lemon's double down the left field line. Lemon, who took third on the throw to the plate, scored on an infield out.

SPORTS GRILL

by Pat Robinson

International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 7—(INS)—It may be that for the first time in a great many years a Washington crew may not be seen in the intercollegiate rowing regatta on Lake Onondaga at Syracuse this year.

As you know, Washington was suspended from National Collegiate Athletic Association competition because of a little irregularity in regard to proselyting athletes.

This is a regrettable situation and one which we consider rather unfair for we can't understand why oarsmen, who may be the only 100 per cent pure amateurs in college athletics, should be punished for the sins, if any, of their football brethren.

The situation is particularly unpalatable because Washington has sent forth a great group of oarsmen who have taught and are teaching eastern oarsmen how to row.

The Onondaga regatta would not be the same without those tall boys from the northwest. They always were magnificent physical specimens and they knew their stuff.

And speaking of physical specimens, this year's Princeton crew is an eye-arresting outfit. They average 6' 3" or a little more and they'll tip the scale at an average 195.

Princeton probably will be at its best in the longer races. The Tigers are the Conn McCrearys of the water. They like to come from behind to win as they did against a very good Penn crew last Saturday when they appeared hopelessly beaten a quarter mile from the finish.

The eastern crews are further advanced than usual at this time because of good weather. Some of them have logged hundreds of miles and already are in perfect racing trim.

Eastern coaches agree that Yale, the Olympic champions, Cornell, which returns a crack crew intact, and always dangerous Navy, coached by the old maestro, Rusty Callow, will be the most powerful crews in the east.

No one seems to know just how good Harvard may be but we never saw a poor crew represent the Crimson.

Syracuse will have a far stronger boat than it has had in many years and Rutgers must be reckoned with hereafter. Both schools are making determined efforts to lure oarsmen. Columbia, which always is beautifully coached by Bud Raney but lacks power, will finish somewhere in the middle of the pack at Onondaga.

We don't know yet just how strong Stanford, California or Wisconsin may be but eastern coaches are confident that the East's best is sure to beat anything the west has to offer this year. There have been other years when they felt the same way only to suffer a rude awakening. Could happen again.

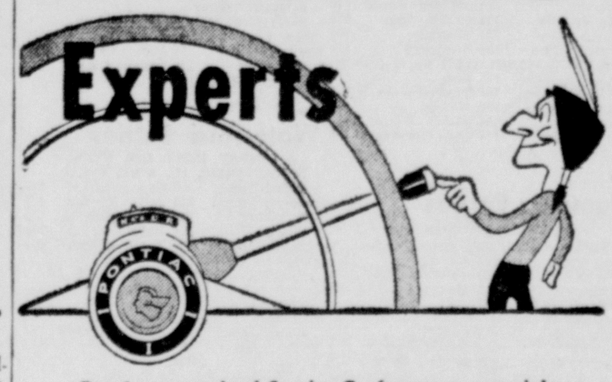

Gallant Man Is Questionable Starter

BALTIMORE, May 7 (AP) — Gallant Man, Ralph Lowe's runner-up in the Kentucky Derby, was "shaken" by his 30-hour train trip from Louisville to New York and is a questionable starter in the $100,000 added Preakness here, Pimlico officials said today.

Trainer Johnny Nerud told track operators he would not decide for "four or five days" whether the colt would be shipped to Pimlico for the May 18 race.

Early Turkish gardeners were the first to develop the tulip from wild flower to garden beauty.

Honey's Tiger Cops Pimlico 7th Race

BALTIMORE, May 7 (AP) — Honey's Tiger, owned by Mrs. Winifred B. Dietrich, outpaced a field of allowance racers in the six furlong Phoenix to win the seventh race at Pimlico race course today.

Honey's Tiger, ridden by Oliver Cutshaw, pulled away under a string ride to win in 1.12 2/5. For most of the race, the winner had stayed well back of the pacesetter although safely in second place.

Cutshaw was content to let Gay Warbler set the early pace and didn't go after the leader until well around the turn. Max Zipkin's Gay Warbler was weary after the first five furlongs and barely managed to show. Jose F. Siccardi's Invico was third.

Honey's Tiger paid $5.00, $3.20 and $2.60; Gay Warbler $3.80 and $2.80; Invicto $6.00.

Local Coin Club Is Entered In ANA Contest

The Western Maryland Coin Club, sponsored by the City Recreation Department, has entered a contest sponsored by the American Numismatic Association in conjunction with the May 6-12 observance of National Coin Week.

Points will be awarded for displays, exhibits, publicity, posters, special events and talks.

The contest on the theme, "Collecting coins for fun and profit," is being sponsored by the ANA to learn how clubs conducted Coin Week activities and the extent of their programs.

Six coin displays are being held throughout the city by the club.

The Cumberland Savings Bank display includes a complete set of Indian Head pennies and Jefferson nickels displayed by Sam Blank and a 20th Century set of U. S. coins by Billy Lewis.

The First National Bank display, by Martin L. Johnson, includes an almost complete set of commemorative half dollars, Spanish, German, English and U. S. gold coins, and the bank is showing a complete set of proof coins from 1935 to date.

The Liberty Trust Company has on display in its windows an exhibit of special interest to antique collectors and youngsters. Included are mechanical saving banks which deposit coins for safe keeping through some movement of the figures on the devices. The patents for these banks date back as far as 1879.

The Second National Bank has on display an exhibit of coins by John Dorn.

Rotary Club Honors Kopp On His 70th Birthday

Charles L. Kopp, retired superintendent of Allegany County public schools, was guest of honor at a "This Is Your Life" surprise program presented at yesterday's meeting of the Cumberland Rotary Club just two days after the educator's 70th birthday.

Mr. Kopp, who retired in 1952, had been superintendent of county schools since 1928.

Lewyn C. Davis, supervisor of junior high schools and a longtime friend of Mr. Kopp, presented a series of slides showing events in the retired superintendent's life from infancy in Carroll County to the present time.

Victor D. Heisey, principal of Fort Hill High School, who has known Mr. Kopp since the days when both were connected with the Clearfield, Pa., school system, paid tribute to him and then Mr. Davis presented Mr. Kopp a scrapbook containing congratulatory messages from more than 50 persons who have known him for years.

Among those who sent congratulatory letters were Senator J. Glenn Beall, Mayor Roy W. Eves, Harold D. Barber, president of the Cumberland Rotary Club; Randall Leopold, governor of Rotary District No. 264; Ivan C. Diehl, Milton Braun and Dr. Thomas Bess, past district governors of Rotary; George R. Means, general secretary of Rotary International; Dr. H. T. Bowersox, former pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Mr. Kopp's church.

Still other letters were sent by John L. Dunkle and Miss Lillian C. Compton, both former presidents of Frostburg State Teachers College; Dr. Paul R. Mort and Dr. Harold J. McNally, both professors of education at Columbia University; Ralph R. Webster, Mr. Kopp's successor as school superintendent; Richard T. Rizer, assistant superintendent; Benjamin C. Willis, general superintendent of schools in Chicago; Dr. Thomas G. Pullen Jr., state superintendent of schools; Dr. John J. Seidel, assistant state superintendent.

Among other letter contributors were Edmund S. Burke, president of the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company; Miss Grace A. Dorsey, state supervisor of elementary schools; Thomas A. Mont Jr., head football coach, University of Maryland; four county school superintendents — James M. Bennett, Wicomico County; Raymond O. McCullough, Talbot County; Paul D. Cooper, Worcester County, and Charles W. Willis, Harford County, and many others.

Clubs Elect New Officers

Two new Hi-Y clubs have been organized at Oldtown High School and will become affiliated with the Allegany County Hi-Y Council.

The two new groups held election of officers last week and a third club, the Central Tri-Hi-Y, elected its officers last night.

The new organizations are the Oldtown Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs. Officers for the coming year for the Hi-Y club are Pat Duckworth, president; Larry Crabtree, vice president; Gary Amick, secretary; Earl Twigg, treasurer; Lacy Simmons, chaplain; and John Newlon, historian.

Tri-Hi-Y officers from Oldtown High School are Helen Hoover, president; Mary June Wolfe, vice president; Sandy Bible, secretary; Patsy McCabe, treasurer; Kay Allen, chaplain; and Joann Barger, historian.

Central Tri-Hi-Y officers for the 1957-58 season are Charity Conrad, president; Maxine DeLozier, vice president; Lora Kline, secretary; Ida Gallagher, treasurer; Patricia Bittner, chaplain; Sandra Wotring, historian.

The county council now consists of 19 Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs and will hold its final meeting for the present season on Sunday at 3 p. m. in the Central YMCA Fiesta Room.

All club members and council delegates are urged to be present at this meeting, Lawrence H. Dehn, program secretary of the YMCA, said. The two newly formed clubs will be received at this meeting, he stated, and reports and pictures of the Model Legislature at Annapolis will be on the agenda.

Tawes Urges Mental Clinics

ANNAPOLIS, May 7 (AP) — Comptroller J. Millard Tawes, a candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in 1958, today urged "a greatly expanded" system of out-patient mental health clinics throughout Maryland.

Tawes announced his support for an increase in clinics in an address here at the annual meeting of the fourth district of the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs.

"The only way to keep down the cost of hospital care of the mentally ill," the comptroller said, "is to find ways and means of stopping the illness before hospitalization becomes necessary."

Tawes called for a tripling of the number of out-patient mental health units throughout the state.

"I want to assure you," he said, "that if I am elected governor of Maryland a year from next November, I am going to give this problem of increasing mental health clincs a number one priority on my list."

Tawes said he favors a regional rather than a county-by-county clinical set-up, in order to achieve "more efficient and more economical operations."

The Democratic gubernatorial candidate also spoke out against "the present subordinate status" of the mental health division in the State Department of Health.

Salvation Army Services Are Being Studied

Services of the Salvation Army in Cumberland are being evaluated at the request of the Salvation Army Advisory Board.

Commissioner Chesham, former Southern Territorial commander, has retired from active duty but has been accepting special assignments.

He said the Advisory Board had asked him to survey the current program and to make recommendations for continuing service to the people of Cumberland.

Honey's Tiger Cops Pimlico 7th Race

BALTIMORE, May 7 (AP) — Honey's Tiger, owned by Mrs. Winifred B. Dietrich, outpaced a field of allowance racers in the six furlong Phoenix to win the seventh race at Pimlico race course today.

Honey's Tiger, ridden by Oliver Cutshaw, pulled away under a string ride to win in 1.12 2/5. For most of the race, the winner had stayed well back of the pacesetter although safely in second place.

Cutshaw was content to let Gay Warbler set the early pace and didn't go after the leader until well around the turn. Max Zipkin's Gay Warbler was weary after the first five furlongs and barely managed to show. Jose F. Siccardi's Invico was third.

Honey's Tiger paid $5.00, $3.20 and $2.60; Gay Warbler $3.80 and $2.80; Invicto $6.00.

Local Coin Club Is Entered In ANA Contest

The Western Maryland Coin Club, sponsored by the City Recreation Department, has entered a contest sponsored by the American Numismatic Association in conjunction with the May 6-12 observance of National Coin Week.

Points will be awarded for displays, exhibits, publicity, posters, special events and talks.

The contest on the theme, "Collecting coins for fun and profit," is being sponsored by the ANA to learn how clubs conducted Coin Week activities and the extent of their programs.

Six coin displays are being held throughout the city by the club.

The Cumberland Savings Bank display includes a complete set of Indian Head pennies and Jefferson nickels displayed by Sam Blank and a 20th Century set of U. S. coins by Billy Lewis.

The First National Bank display, by Martin L. Johnson, includes an almost complete set of commemorative half dollars, Spanish, German, English and U. S. gold coins, and the bank is showing a complete set of proof coins from 1935 to date.

The Liberty Trust Company has on display in its windows an exhibit of special interest to antique collectors and youngsters. Included are mechanical saving banks which deposit coins for safe keeping through some movement of the figures on the devices. The patents for these banks date back as far as 1879.

The Second National Bank has on display an exhibit of coins by John Dorn.

"Hard luck" tokens, old currency, coin books and coin relics are included in the display at the Cumberland Free Public Library.

Rotary Club Honors Kopp On His 70th Birthday

Charles L. Kopp, retired superintendent of Allegany County public schools, was guest of honor at a "This Is Your Life" surprise program presented at yesterday's meeting of the Cumberland Rotary Club just two days after the educator's 70th birthday.

Mr. Kopp, who retired in 1952, had been superintendent of county schools since 1928.

Lewyn C. Davis, supervisor of junior high schools and a longtime friend of Mr. Kopp, presented a series of slides showing events in the retired superintendent's life from infancy in Carroll County to the present time.

Victor D. Heisey, principal of Fort Hill High School, who has known Mr. Kopp since the days when both were connected with the Clearfield, Pa., school system, paid tribute to him and then Mr. Davis presented Mr. Kopp a scrapbook containing congratulatory messages from more than 50 persons who have known him for years.

Among those who sent congratulatory letters were Senator J. Glenn Beall, Mayor Roy W. Eves, Harold D. Barber, president of the Cumberland Rotary Club; Randall Leopold, governor of Rotary District No. 264; Ivan C. Diehl, Milton Braun and Dr. Thomas Bess, past district governors of Rotary; George R. Means, general secretary of Rotary International; Dr. H. T. Bowersox, former pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Mr. Kopp's church.

Others who sent letters included Dr. Wilbur S. Paul, president of Gettysburg College, Mr. Kopp's alma mater; C. Paul Cessna, secretary of the Gettysburg College Alumni Association; four other college presidents — Dr. Ernest E. Church, Potomac State College; R. Bowen Hardesty, Frostburg State Teachers College, Dr. Wilbur Devilbiss, Salisbury State Teachers College, and Dr. Earl T. Hawkins, Towson State Teachers College.

Still other letters were sent by John L. Dunkle and Miss Lillian C. Compton, both former presidents of Frostburg State Teachers College; Dr. Paul R. Mort and Dr. Harold J. McNally, both professors of education at Columbia University; Ralph R. Webster, Mr. Kopp's successor as school superintendent; Richard T. Rizer, assistant superintendent; Benjamin C. Willis, general superintendent of schools in Chicago; Dr. Thomas G. Pullen Jr., state superintendent of schools; Dr. John J. Seidel, assistant state superintendent.

Among other letter contributors were Edmund S. Burke, president of the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company; Miss Grace A. Dorsey, state supervisor of elementary schools; Thomas A. Mont Jr., head football coach, University of Maryland; four county school superintendents — James M. Bennett, Wicomico County; Raymond O. McCullough, Talbot County; Paul D. Cooper, Worcester County, and Charles W. Willis, Harford County, and many others.

Clubs Elect New Officers

Two new Hi-Y clubs have been organized at Oldtown High School and will become affiliated with the Allegany County Hi-Y Council.

The two new groups held election of officers last week and a third club, the Central Tri-Hi-Y, elected its officers last night.

The new organizations are the Oldtown Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs. Officers for the coming year for the Hi-Y club are Pat Duckworth, president; Larry Crabtree, vice president; Gary Amick, secretary; Earl Twigg, treasurer; Lacy Simmons, chaplain; and John Newlon, historian.

Tri-Hi-Y officers from Oldtown High School are Helen Hoover, president; Mary June Wolfe, vice president; Sandy Bible, secretary; Patsy McCabe, treasurer; Kay Allen, chaplain; and Joann Barger, historian.

Central Tri-Hi-Y officers for the 1957-58 season are Charity Conrad, president; Maxine DeLozier, vice president; Lora Kline, secretary; Ida Gallagher, treasurer; Patricia Bittner, chaplain; Sandra Wotring, historian.

The county council now consists of 19 Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs and will hold its final meeting for the present season on Sunday at 3 p. m. in the Central YMCA Fiesta Room.

All club members and council delegates are urged to be present at this meeting, Lawrence H. Dehn, program secretary of the YMCA, said. The two newly formed clubs will be received at this meeting, he stated, and reports and pictures of the Model Legislature at Annapolis will be on the agenda.

Tawes Urges Mental Clinics

ANNAPOLIS, May 7 (AP) — Comptroller J. Millard Tawes, a candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in 1958, today urged "a greatly expanded" system of out-patient mental health clinics throughout Maryland.

Tawes announced his support for an increase in clinics in an address here at the annual meeting of the fourth district of the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs.

"The only way to keep down the cost of hospital care of the mentally ill," the comptroller said, "is to find ways and means of stopping the illness before hospitalization becomes necessary."

Tawes called for a tripling of the number of out-patient mental health units throughout the state.

"I want to assure you," he said, "that if I am elected governor of Maryland a year from next November, I am going to give this problem of increasing mental health clincs a number one priority on my list."

Tawes said he favors a regional rather than a county-by-county clinical set-up, in order to achieve "more efficient and more economical operations."

The Democratic gubernatorial candidate also spoke out against "the present subordinate status" of the mental health division in the State Department of Health.

Salvation Army Services Are Being Studied

Services of the Salvation Army in Cumberland are being evaluated at the request of the Salvation Army Advisory Board.

The survey is being made by Lt. Commissioner Albert E. Chesham, Richmond, Va., who will present a preliminary report on his study at an Advisory Board meeting Monday at noon at the Fort Cumberland Hotel.

Commissioner Chesham, former Southern Territorial commander, has retired from active duty but has been accepting special assignments.

He said the Advisory Board had asked him to survey the current program and to make recommendations for continuing service to the people of Cumberland.

The Salvation Army has conducted an active program in Cumberland for over 70 years, and currently operates corps at the Citadel at 115 North Mechanic Street and the South Cumberland Corps at 511 Virginia Avenue.

The bidding:

North	East	South	West
1 diamond	Pass	1 heart	Pass
2 hearts	Pass	4 hearts	Pass
Pass	Pass

Opening lead: Jack of hearts.

The lack luster array of cards shown in today's diagram produced an unexpected variety of results when the deal showed up in a recent tournament.

There was an epidemic of minus 50s when most North-South teams reached a contract of three no trump and went down before West's barrage of five spade tricks.

In several cases South, holding a balanced hand with 13 solid points, decided to get to game without furnishing to the enemy a blueprint of his holding. Accordingly he responded with a game forcing bid of two no trump—though such action ignored the requirement that all unbid suits should be protected.

Other Souths made the more orthodox response of one heart and, receiving a single raise from North gambled on the spade suit to contract for three no trump.

A few South players chose to contract for game in hearts. When West opened the jack of trumps, declarer won with the queen and drew two more trumps only to learn that the suit had not divided. In the hope that East would have to follow to three rounds of diamonds he started to run that suit but East ruffed in on the third round and cashed three spade tricks.

Only one North-South pair turned in a plus score. When West opened the jack of trumps declarer hit upon an almost sure fire method of bringing in the contract. The safety play which he contrived was to let West hold the opening lead. When a trump was continued declarer was able to draw all the trumps and run five diamonds and two clubs to bring his total of tricks to 10.

Tot Playing 'Cowboy' Shoots, Kills Mother

CANTON, Ill., May 7 (AP)—Police said a 2½-year-old boy, playing "cowboy" with a real gun, shot and killed his mother yesterday as they were riding in a car.

The youngster, Randy Brown, was in the rear seat of the auto. His mother, Mrs. Evelyn Brown, 22, was in front with the driver, Eugene J. Marlow, 28.

Deputy Sheriff Edward Fuller said Marlow told him the boy found a .22 caliber target pistol under the front seat, pointed it at the back of his mother's head and pulled the trigger. The bullet smashed into her brain.

Steels Lead Stock Market Retreat; W.Md. Ry. Up

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP)—Steels led the stock market downward today in a medium-sized decline but aircrafts, some oils and selected issues made gains.

The fall in steels had further justification in yesterday's industry report of operations at the lowest point since the period right after last summer's steel strike.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined 50 cents to $181.20, its steepest decline in weeks, moderate though it was. The industrial component was off 80 cents, the rails off 20 cents and the utilities off 20 cents.

Volume totaled 2,300,000 shares compared with 2,210,000 yesterday.

North American Aviation was the most active stock, up 1⅛ at 33¼ on 38,200 shares. Second was Sperry Rand, up ½ at 23⅝ on 36,200 shares. Third was Bethlehem Steel, off ½ at 45¾ on 36,100 shares.

Another wide mover today was Western Maryland Railway, up 5¼ at 71½ on 17,300 shares, which made it 15th most active. Wall Street experts are predicting an even better earnings performance for this stock this year than last and they note that it is thinly held by the public as Baltimore & Ohio holds 214,747 of its 660,908 outstanding shares.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

The bidding:

North	East	South	West
1 diamond	Pass	1 heart	Pass
2 hearts	Pass	4 hearts	Pass
Pass	Pass

Opening lead: Jack of hearts.

The lack luster array of cards shown in today's diagram produced an unexpected variety of results when the deal showed up in a recent tournament.

There was an epidemic of minus 50s when most North-South teams reached a contract of three no trump and went down before West's barrage of five spade tricks.

In several cases South, holding a balanced hand with 13 solid points, decided to get to game without furnishing to the enemy a blueprint of his holding. Accordingly he responded with a game forcing bid of two no trump—though such action ignored the requirement that all unbid suits should be protected.

Other Souths made the more orthodox response of one heart and, receiving a single raise from North gambled on the spade suit to contract for three no trump.

A few South players chose to contract for game in hearts. When West opened the jack of trumps, declarer won with the queen and drew two more trumps only to learn that the suit had not divided. In the hope that East would have to follow to three rounds of diamonds he started to run that suit but East ruffed in on the third round and cashed three spade tricks.

Only one North-South pair turned in a plus score. When West opened the jack of trumps declarer hit upon an almost sure fire method of bringing in the contract. The safety play which he contrived was to let West hold the opening lead. When a trump was continued declarer was able to draw all the trumps and run five diamonds and two clubs to bring his total of tricks to 10.

Tot Playing 'Cowboy' Shoots, Kills Mother

CANTON, Ill., May 7 (AP)—Police said a 2½-year-old boy, playing "cowboy" with a real gun, shot and killed his mother yesterday as they were riding in a car.

The youngster, Randy Brown, was in the rear seat of the auto. His mother, Mrs. Evelyn Brown, 22, was in front with the driver, Eugene J. Marlow, 28.

Deputy Sheriff Edward Fuller said Marlow told him the boy found a .22 caliber target pistol under the front seat, pointed it at the back of his mother's head and pulled the trigger. The bullet smashed into her brain.

Steels Lead Stock Market Retreat; W.Md. Ry. Up

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP)—Steels led the stock market downward today in a medium-sized decline but aircrafts, some oils and selected issues made gains.

The fall in steels had further justification in yesterday's industry report of operations at the lowest point since the period right after last summer's steel strike.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined 50 cents to $181.20, its steepest decline in weeks, moderate though it was. The industrial component was off 80 cents, the rails off 20 cents and the utilities off 20 cents.

Volume totaled 2,300,000 shares compared with 2,210,000 yesterday.

North American Aviation was the most active stock, up 1⅛ at 33¼ on 38,200 shares. Second was Sperry Rand, up ½ at 23⅝ on 36,200 shares. Third was Bethlehem Steel, off ½ at 45¾ on 36,100 shares.

Another wide mover today was Western Maryland Railway, up 5¼ at 71½ on 17,300 shares, which made it 15th most active. Wall Street experts are predicting an even better earnings performance for this stock this year than last and they note that it is thinly held by the public as Baltimore & Ohio holds 214,747 of its 660,908 outstanding shares.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, George S. Easton, who passed away May 8, 1950.
At twilight when twilight hour draws near,
And sunset flames the sky,
We think of you dear husband and father,
And the happy days gone by.
Thoughts of you come drifting back
Within our dreams to stay,
To know that you are resting,
When twilight ends the day.
LOVING WIFE AND CHILDREN

Cards of Thanks

We desire to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to all our friends and neighbors who were so kind to us during our recent bereavement, the death of our father, Peter A. McKenzie. Especially do we thank the pallbearers, those who sent floral tributes, those who donated the use of their cars for the funeral, and to all others who in any way rendered assistance.
The Family

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness extended to us during the illness and following the death of our beloved mother, Pauline V. Davis. We also wish to thank those who sent flowers, loaned cars or who in any manner assisted us.
C. R. DAVIS

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, George S. Easton, who passed away May 8, 1950.
At twilight when twilight hour draws near,
And sunset flames the sky,
We think of you dear husband and father,
And the happy days gone by.
Thoughts of you come drifting back
Within our dreams to stay,
To know that you are resting,
When twilight ends the day.
LOVING WIFE AND CHILDREN

Cards of Thanks

We desire to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to all our friends and neighbors who were so kind to us during our recent bereavement, the death of our father, Peter A. McKenzie. Especially do we thank the pallbearers, those who sent floral tributes, those who donated the use of their cars for the funeral, and to all others who in any way rendered assistance.
The Family

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness extended to us during the illness and following the death of our beloved mother, Pauline V. Davis. We also wish to thank those who sent flowers, loaned cars or who in any manner assisted us.
C. R. DAVIS

Keeping Up With Hollywood
by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD, May 7 (INS)—When I read Adela Rogers St. John's fascinating story "Sex and Mrs. McAdoo" in Cosmopolitan magazine several months ago, I thought at the time what a good movie it would make. Arthur Lubin must have had the same idea for he's bought Adela's story for his first independent as producer-director — thit is, his first since ending his RKO deal.

If Katherine Hepburn is reading this, she's Lubin's choice to play the role of the school teacher who becomes pesky to the board of education and, as punishment, is put out at a racetrack to coach young jockeys of school age (a state law). She gets her hands full with a tough young jock.

Couldn't help thinking when I heard that Monte Proser is negotiating to condense "Tobacco Road" into a musical for his Tropicana in Las Vegas,—what next? A singing version of "The Raven," maybe?

Seriously, Monte thinks that Erskine Caldwell's saga of "Po' White Trash" which was such a brilliant success on Broadway for ten years (and later as a movie) can be boiled down into a smash nightclub show backed with a top musical score. Ole Jeeter singin' the pore-folks blues would be somethin'. He says that the Tropicana showing would be a springboard for a longer musical for Broadway.

Sixteen, redhead and beautiful is the description of Jill St. John, who gets an exclusive long term contract at U-I and a starring role of all things.

Jill's first picture is "Summer Love" a sequel to "Rock, Pretty Baby," and she goes before the cameras in two weeks with John Saxon as her co-star. Billy Grady, Jr., who is producing this opus, says Jill is a real stunner, a native Los Angeles girl, and though only 16 has appeared in little theatres and has done TV work.

Director Richard Thorpe laughingly admits that the avalanche of fan protests had a lot to do with changing the title of Elvis Presley's MGM picture from "Jailhouse Kid" to "Treat Me Nice" to "Jailhouse Rock."

Thorpe says he isn't yet free of problems when the wild eyed Presley fans hear more about what's in store for Elvis. First, (in the plot) Elvis loses his voice and goes through a psychological fixation that he can't sing! Also, he has to sing three songs very badly and like an amateur to point up his improvement later on.

And last, the singing idol gets in a whale of a fist fight with Mickey Shaughnessy which he doesn't win! All this, plus his sideburns coming off, is a big switch for Presley.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random:

Bob Hope, laughing off those rumors that he and French comic Fernandel are having trouble making "Paris Holiday," sends word: "He's coming to Hollywood to make another movie with me."

Phyllis Kirk is the latest bedded with virus and really very sick.

Natalie Wood has been offered the lead in "A Certain Smile" but Jack Warner won't lend her.

Now I've heard everything. "Snowfire," the white horse of the McGowan studio's movie of the same name, is a special "entry" from the United States at the Cannes Film Festival.

Archie Mayo wires that he's had tremendous response following my article asking the Hungarian Olympic athletes to contact him for his picture. He's had eight long distance calls and 72 letters.

Syd Charisse and Tony Martin spend their ninth wedding anniversary May 9 in good old New York town. Tony's due to open at the Copa.

Before she took off for her London movie, Betsy Drake flew to San Francisco where husband Cary Grant is filming "Kiss Them for Me" to kiss him goodbye.

Kathy Grant's taking tennis lessons bright and early every morning from the pro at the Beverly Wilshire before reporting at Columbia.

That's all today. See you tomorrow!

Jesse Smith Elected Havre De Grace Mayor

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., May 7 (AP)—Jesse Smith was elected to a two-year term as mayor yesterday defeating two opponents as about 50 per cent of the city's 3,000 registered voters turned out in a municipal election.

Smith polled 1,213 votes, as against 575 for J. C. Van Cherie Sr. and 313 for M. Harold Bonney. Candidates carried no party labels.

Birth Announced

LONACONING — Mr. and Mrs. Howard Broadwater, Lonaconing, announce the birth of a daughter yesterday in Miners Hospital, Frostburg.

Announce Birth

MT. SAVAGE — Mr. and Mrs. James P. O'Rourke, Heidelberg, Germany, announce the birth of a son there last Saturday. The mother is the former Miss Rosemary Noonan of Mt. Savage.

Party Planned

WESTERNPORT — St. James Guild will hold a public card party at the parish house Thursday at 8 p. m. Bridge, 500 and setback will be played. Refreshments will be served.

"Dollar Begging"

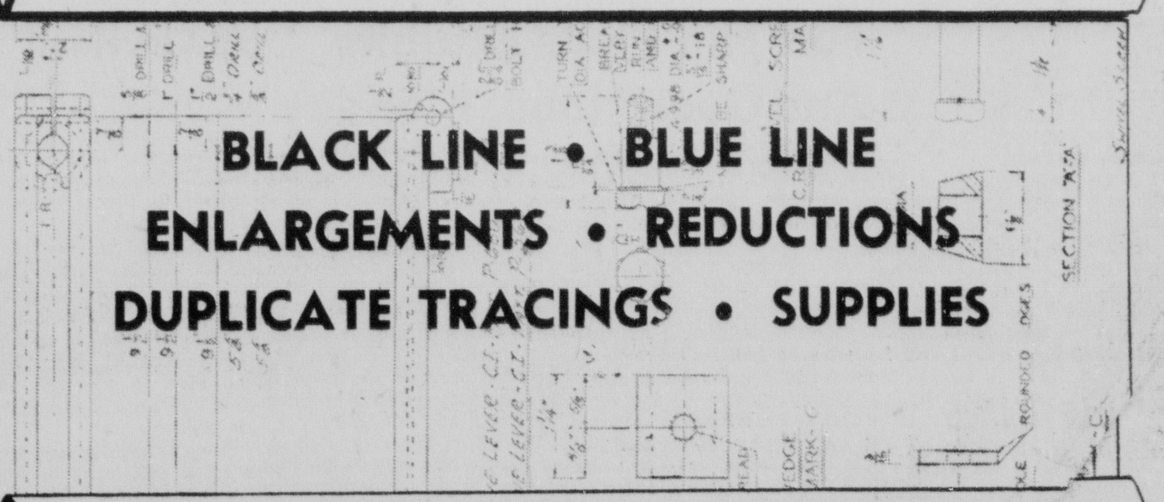

HONG KONG, May 7 (AP)—Communist North Viet Nam newspapers call South Viet Nam President Ngo Dinh Diem's visit to the United States "dollar begging to enable him to head off economic collapse."

WIFE PRESERVER

If your kitchen range is located so that grease splashes on the wall, attach a large aluminum-covered asbestos pad against the wall. It is easier to wash the grease from a removable pad than from the wall. Hot water and a soapy sponge used every day will keep the pad clean and odor-free.

Keeping Up With Hollywood
by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD, May 7 (INS)—When I read Adela Rogers St. John's fascinating story "Sex and Mrs. McAdoo" in Cosmopolitan magazine several months ago, I thought at the time what a good movie it would make. Arthur Lubin must have had the same idea for he's bought Adela's story for his first independent as producer-director — thit is, his first since ending his RKO deal.

If Katherine Hepburn is reading this, she's Lubin's choice to play the role of the school teacher who becomes pesky to the board of education and, as punishment, is put out at a racetrack to coach young jockeys of school age (a state law). She gets her hands full with a tough young jock.

Couldn't help thinking when I heard that Monte Proser is negotiating to condense "Tobacco Road" into a musical for his Tropicana in Las Vegas,—what next? A singing version of "The Raven," maybe?

Seriously, Monte thinks that Erskine Caldwell's saga of "Po' White Trash" which was such a brilliant success on Broadway for ten years (and later as a movie) can be boiled down into a smash nightclub show backed with a top musical score. Ole Jeeter singin' the pore-folks blues would be somethin'. He says that the Tropicana showing would be a springboard for a longer musical for Broadway.

Sixteen, redhead and beautiful is the description of Jill St. John, who gets an exclusive long term contract at U-I and a starring role of all things.

Jill's first picture is "Summer Love" a sequel to "Rock, Pretty Baby," and she goes before the cameras in two weeks with John Saxon as her co-star. Billy Grady, Jr., who is producing this opus, says Jill is a real stunner, a native Los Angeles girl, and though only 16 has appeared in little theatres and has done TV work.

Director Richard Thorpe laughingly admits that the avalanche of fan protests had a lot to do with changing the title of Elvis Presley's MGM picture from "Jailhouse Kid" to "Treat Me Nice" to "Jailhouse Rock."

Thorpe says he isn't yet free of problems when the wild eyed Presley fans hear more about what's in store for Elvis. First, (in the plot) Elvis loses his voice and goes through a psychological fixation that he can't sing! Also, he has to sing three songs very badly and like an amateur to point up his improvement later on.

And last, the singing idol gets in a whale of a fist fight with Mickey Shaughnessy which he doesn't win! All this, plus his sideburns coming off, is a big switch for Presley.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random:

Bob Hope, laughing off those rumors that he and French comic Fernandel are having trouble making "Paris Holiday," sends word: "He's coming to Hollywood to make another movie with me."

Phyllis Kirk is the latest bedded with virus and really very sick.

Natalie Wood has been offered the lead in "A Certain Smile" but Jack Warner won't lend her.

Now I've heard everything. "Snowfire," the white horse of the McGowan studio's movie of the same name, is a special "entry" from the United States at the Cannes Film Festival.

Archie Mayo wires that he's had tremendous response following my article asking the Hungarian Olympic athletes to contact him for his picture. He's had eight long distance calls and 72 letters.

Syd Charisse and Tony Martin spend their ninth wedding anniversary May 9 in good old New York town. Tony's due to open at the Copa.

Before she took off for her London movie, Betsy Drake flew to San Francisco where husband Cary Grant is filming "Kiss Them for Me" to kiss him goodbye.

Kathy Grant's taking tennis lessons bright and early every morning from the pro at the Beverly Wilshire before reporting at Columbia.

That's all today. See you tomorrow!

Jesse Smith Elected Havre De Grace Mayor

Smith polled 1,213 votes, as against 575 for J. C. Van Cherie Sr. and 313 for M. Harold Bonney. Candidates carried no party labels.

"Dollar Begging"

Double Crews Push Work In Wills Creek

Last Flood Control Contract Is Started

Hazelwood Construction Company crews are working into the night to expedite the construction of the temporary bridge across Wills Creek at Baltimore Street.

Crews this week have been drilling and shooting on double shifts to excavate rock from the right bank of the creek so the toe wall and vertical wall can be poured directly below the present Baltimore Street Bridge.

Work on the temporary span, now almost halfway across the stream, is halted until the wall which will serve as the west abutment can be poured.

Rex E. Dexter, resident engineer of the Corps of Engineers, said he has been advised the firm plans to put up forms as other crews excavate the channel from the bridge to Riverside Park.

Push All Contracts

Demolition of the present reinforced concrete bridge can begin as soon as the wooden span is placed into service. Only cars and foot traffic will be allowed to use the temporary bridge which is being erected for the city at a cost of $25,000. Heavy traffic will be detoured over Market and Valley streets.

Spring finds work under way on all the remaining contracts of the $18,000,000 Cumberland-Ridgeley flood control project.

The final contract, Section 2 of the Potomac River, was let recently to the E. J. Albrecht Company, of Chicago. It involves the area below the Industrial Dam.

Mr. Dexter said the firm has cleared most of the area between the river and the old C & O Canal near the Mill Race pumping station on the left side of the stream.

On the other side, the firm has started digging an inspection trench for part of the East Ridgeley levee between the Western Maryland Railway and the Potomac Edison Company power line.

Will Build Levee

The firm is also excavating near the Cumberland Cement and Supply Company plant and hopes to use part of the material being taken out for the East Ridgeley levee.

The Mill Race pumping station, he said, is completed up to where brick work begins, and many of the pipes and conduits to the station, and then to the river, have been completed.

The same firm is excavating rock from Wills Creek near the B & O Viaduct, and may be able to start pouring concrete in the creek this week.

Early this week, the firm was digging a drainage ditch adjacent to the flood wall and was placing topsoil and seeding areas in the Valley Street area.

Also taking part in the program will be Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Simpson; Mrs. Jeanie Hedrick and daughter, Holly, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Popp and daughter, Esther; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Michael; Beverly, Dennis and Larry Michael.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Warnick, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Springer, Paul Simpson, Becky and Patty Johnson and Walter Springer.

Seminary Head To Speak To St. Luke's Group Today

He has served as secretary and president of the West Virginia Synod and has worked on various boards of the United Lutheran Church in America. Dr. Baughman has held membership on the board of publication, common service committee, and as chairman of the United Lutheran Church committee on the call of the ministry.

Accident Gets Modern Dial Phone System

Changeover Date Scheduled June 8

A new and completely modern dial telephone system is being installed at Accident in preparation for a June 8 changeover from the present system in effect there, C&P Telephone Company spokesmen said yesterday.

C. L. Stem, manager of the Accident exchange, said installation crews already have reached the halfway mark in putting in the "most modern community dial equipment" as the C&P prepares to change the Accident local office to the "2-5" dial system as is now in use in the Cumberland area.

Mr. Stem says the "2-5" dial system means simply that a person dials two letters and then five numerals to get his party.

The Accident dial interexchange serves approximately 200 telephones in Accident and Friendsville, the company manager explained. Under the new system being installed, customers in the Garrett County communities will have a VAlley 6 exchange.

The system will handle all incoming calls on the new exchange and calls may be dialed directly to Accident and Friendsville. However, for the present, toll calls from the Garrett County communities will continue to be dialed through the Oakland exchange when the changeover is made.

The Accident changeover is a "step in the overall change to the 2-5 dial system throughout the country," said Robert Garner, manager of the C&P Telephone Company office in Cumberland.

Outside construction crews are placing almost two miles of additional cable in the Accident area that is needed for the conversion, and installation men have changed over approximately 40 per cent of the Accident exchange telephones to the new dial type.

Mr. Stem said every precaution will be taken to avoid interruption of service during the next month. He said that if there is an interruption while placing a call, the customer should hang up for a few minutes and place the call again.

Camera Club Will Plan Area Outings

The Cumberland Camera Club will meet today at 7:30 p. m. in City Hall Auditorium and plans will be made during the session for several picture-taking outings.

The outings will be held in the Cumberland area and within the next few weeks, according to William P. Price, secretary-treasurer.

Members who took pictures at the "Model Night" held at the last meeting were reminded they are expected to make at least one large print for the models and should submit small prints of all pictures taken during the meetings.

Area Priest Will Speak At Memorial

Rev. Myles J. McGowan, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Midland, will be the principal speaker at the Memorial Day program which will be held May 30 at the Soldier's Monument in Rose Hill Cemetery in honor of departed veterans.

Father McGowan served in the Air Force for three and a half years during World War II, attaining the rank of major, and now holds a similar rank in the National Guard.

Phone Lines Are Repaired

Service lines which were damaged by the fire in LaVale on Sunday were restored yesterday, according to Charles M. Smith, plant wire chief for the C&P Telephone Company here.

Some of the lines which were quickly put into operation for customers were on a temporary basis, but these also were tied in permanently last night.

Crews from Baltimore, Frederick, Hagerstown, Frostburg, and Oakland, together with Cumberland district personnel, worked continually on the burned-out lines until all repairs were completed.

Nearly 70 per cent of the phones were back in operation within 24 hours, company spokesmen said. Local phones were in service yesterday as early as 6 a. m. and toll circuits were in operation by 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

Mr. Smith said some of the work on the damaged lines could have been repaired sooner but the 35 linemen, installers and splicers were held up for a couple of hours as firemen tore down some of the walls of the three-story building as a safety measure.

Damage to telephone installations was not as bad as during the glass plant fire about six months ago, Mr. Smith stated, as the poles this time were farther away from the blaze.

He also noted that volunteer firemen kept spraying water on the burning poles during the intense heat, saving them from further damage.

Butler Murder Trial Opens At Keyser

Four Witnesses Give Testimony

Witnesses for the state began testifying yesterday afternoon in Mineral County Circuit Court at Keyser in the murder trial of Howard S. Butler after a lengthy delay in impaneling a jury.

Butler is being tried before Judge Ernest A. See and a 12-man jury for the December 30 slaying of Mrs. Velma Marie Sharon in his Piedmont apartment.

In a brief statement Prosecuting Attorney Donald C. Hott read the indictment charging Butler with murder and also gave a resume of the shooting.

The first witness to take the stand was Mr. William Greenhorn, father of the victim, who said his daughter and Butler had left his home about 7 p. m. the day of the shooting and it was the last time he saw her alive.

He said Butler had been acquainted with his daughter for about 15 years, and he had no knowledge of any trouble between the two during the year before her death. Mr. Greenhorn said Butler had visited his home on various occasions and had brought his daughter presents.

Heard Shots, Called Police

Mrs. John Bartlett who lives in an apartment to the rear of the apartment occupied by Butler was the second witness to take the stand. She told the jury that she had heard the shots and notified the telephone operator to call authorities after Butler had asked her to do so.

On examination by Edward J. Ryan, counsel for the defense, Mrs. Bartlett said she did not see Mrs. Sharon and Butler enter his apartment on the night of the fatal shooting but had observed them coming in on other occasions.

Gene Keyes, who was police chief at Piedmont at the time of the shooting, recounted events leading up to his finding the victim and Butler lying on a bed in Butler's apartment. He also identified the gun and showed a number of pictures and a drawing of the scene as evidence.

On December 31, Keyes said, he questioned Butler at Memorial Hospital in the presence of West Virginia State Trooper C. C. Oliver, Maryland State Trooper Carlton W. Lewis, and Butler's son, Charles.

Remembered Shooting

Keyes said Butler told him he and Mrs. Sharon had been at a restaurant-tavern in Burlington, W. Va. about 8:30 p. m. on December 30 and had entered the apartment in Piedmont about 10 p. m.

Butler said he vaguely remembered picking up the gun and began to shoot but didn't remember shooting out a light in the kitchen, according to Keyes.

Dr. Paul R. Wilson told the jury the victim was dead when he arrived on the scene and that he dressed Butler's wounds before he was sent to the hospital.

He also reported to the jury on the autopsy he performed on Mrs. Sharon.

The court adjourned about 4:45 p. m. yesterday and the trial will resume this morning.

119 Examined

Some 119 prospective jurors were examined before the necessary 20 were impaneled so that 12 could be chosen to try the case.

Remaining witnesses for the state include the two state troopers, Harley Dixon, Donald Mellor, both of Piedmont and Charles R. Spiker, present Piedmont chief of police.

Witnesses for the defense include Betty Raker, address unlisted, Butler's son Charles, Mrs. Bartlett and Ellsworth S. Boal, Westernport undertaker.

Attorney Ryan and Joseph A. Blundon of Keyser, council for Butler said yesterday Butler will take the witness stand.

Double Crews Push Work In Wills Creek

Last Flood Control Contract Is Started

Hazelwood Construction Company crews are working into the night to expedite the construction of the temporary bridge across Wills Creek at Baltimore Street.

Crews this week have been drilling and shooting on double shifts to excavate rock from the right bank of the creek so the toe wall and vertical wall can be poured directly below the present Baltimore Street Bridge.

Work on the temporary span, now almost halfway across the stream, is halted until the wall which will serve as the west abutment can be poured.

Rex E. Dexter, resident engineer of the Corps of Engineers, said he has been advised the firm plans to put up forms as other crews excavate the channel from the bridge to Riverside Park.

Push All Contracts

Demolition of the present reinforced concrete bridge can begin as soon as the wooden span is placed into service. Only cars and foot traffic will be allowed to use the temporary bridge which is being erected for the city at a cost of $25,000. Heavy traffic will be detoured over Market and Valley streets.

Spring finds work under way on all the remaining contracts of the $18,000,000 Cumberland-Ridgeley flood control project.

The final contract, Section 2 of the Potomac River, was let recently to the E. J. Albrecht Company, of Chicago. It involves the area below the Industrial Dam.

Mr. Dexter said the firm has cleared most of the area between the river and the old C & O Canal near the Mill Race pumping station on the left side of the stream.

On the other side, the firm has started digging an inspection trench for part of the East Ridgeley levee between the Western Maryland Railway and the Potomac Edison Company power line.

Will Build Levee

The firm is also excavating near the Cumberland Cement and Supply Company plant and hopes to use part of the material being taken out for the East Ridgeley levee.

The Mill Race pumping station, he said, is completed up to where brick work begins, and many of the pipes and conduits to the station, and then to the river, have been completed.

The same firm is excavating rock from Wills Creek near the B & O Viaduct, and may be able to start pouring concrete in the creek this week.

Early this week, the firm was digging a drainage ditch adjacent to the flood wall and was placing topsoil and seeding areas in the Valley Street area.

Accident Gets Modern Dial Phone System

Changeover Date Scheduled June 8

A new and completely modern dial telephone system is being installed at Accident in preparation for a June 8 changeover from the present system in effect there, C&P Telephone Company spokesmen said yesterday.

C. L. Stem, manager of the Accident exchange, said installation crews already have reached the halfway mark in putting in the "most modern community dial equipment" as the C&P prepares to change the Accident local office to the "2-5" dial system as is now in use in the Cumberland area.

Mr. Stem says the "2-5" dial system means simply that a person dials two letters and then five numerals to get his party.

The Accident dial interexchange serves approximately 200 telephones in Accident and Friendsville, the company manager explained. Under the new system being installed, customers in the Garrett County communities will have a VAlley 6 exchange.

The system will handle all incoming calls on the new exchange and calls may be dialed directly to Accident and Friendsville. However, for the present, toll calls from the Garrett County communities will continue to be dialed through the Oakland exchange when the changeover is made.

The Accident changeover is a "step in the overall change to the 2-5 dial system throughout the country," said Robert Garner, manager of the C&P Telephone Company office in Cumberland.

Outside construction crews are placing almost two miles of additional cable in the Accident area that is needed for the conversion, and installation men have changed over approximately 40 per cent of the Accident exchange telephones to the new dial type.

Mr. Stem said every precaution will be taken to avoid interruption of service during the next month. He said that if there is an interruption while placing a call, the customer should hang up for a few minutes and place the call again.

Affected by the Grabenstein Body Repair Shop blaze were some 310 lines, 750 stations and 130 toll circuits.

Nearly 70 per cent of the phones were back in operation within 24 hours, company spokesmen said. Local phones were in service yesterday as early as 6 a. m. and toll circuits were in operation by 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

Mr. Smith said some of the work on the damaged lines could have been repaired sooner but the 35 linemen, installers and splicers were held up for a couple of hours as firemen tore down some of the walls of the three-story building as a safety measure.

Damage to telephone installations was not as bad as during the glass plant fire about six months ago, Mr. Smith stated, as the poles this time were farther away from the blaze.

He also noted that volunteer firemen kept spraying water on the burning poles during the intense heat, saving them from further damage.

Butler Murder Trial Opens At Keyser

Four Witnesses Give Testimony

Witnesses for the state began testifying yesterday afternoon in Mineral County Circuit Court at Keyser in the murder trial of Howard S. Butler after a lengthy delay in impaneling a jury.

Butler is being tried before Judge Ernest A. See and a 12-man jury for the December 30 slaying of Mrs. Velma Marie Sharon in his Piedmont apartment.

In a brief statement Prosecuting Attorney Donald C. Hott read the indictment charging Butler with murder and also gave a resume of the shooting.

The first witness to take the stand was Mr. William Greenhorn, father of the victim, who said his daughter and Butler had left his home about 7 p. m. the day of the shooting and it was the last time he saw her alive.

He said Butler had been acquainted with his daughter for about 15 years, and he had no knowledge of any trouble between the two during the year before her death. Mr. Greenhorn said Butler had visited his home on various occasions and had brought his daughter presents.

Heard Shots, Called Police

Mrs. John Bartlett who lives in an apartment to the rear of the apartment occupied by Butler was the second witness to take the stand. She told the jury that she had heard the shots and notified the telephone operator to call authorities after Butler had asked her to do so.

On examination by Edward J. Ryan, counsel for the defense, Mrs. Bartlett said she did not see Mrs. Sharon and Butler enter his apartment on the night of the fatal shooting but had observed them coming in on other occasions.

Gene Keyes, who was police chief at Piedmont at the time of the shooting, recounted events leading up to his finding the victim and Butler lying on a bed in Butler's apartment. He also identified the gun and showed a number of pictures and a drawing of the scene as evidence.

On December 31, Keyes said, he questioned Butler at Memorial Hospital in the presence of West Virginia State Trooper C. C. Oliver, Maryland State Trooper Carlton W. Lewis, and Butler's son, Charles.

Remembered Shooting

Keyes said Butler told him he and Mrs. Sharon had been at a restaurant-tavern in Burlington, W. Va. about 8:30 p. m. on December 30 and had entered the apartment in Piedmont about 10 p. m.

Butler said he vaguely remembered picking up the gun and began to shoot but didn't remember shooting out a light in the kitchen, according to Keyes.

Dr. Paul R. Wilson told the jury the victim was dead when he arrived on the scene and that he dressed Butler's wounds before he was sent to the hospital.

He also reported to the jury on the autopsy he performed on Mrs. Sharon.

The court adjourned about 4:45 p. m. yesterday and the trial will resume this morning.

119 Examined

Some 119 prospective jurors were examined before the necessary 20 were impaneled so that 12 could be chosen to try the case.

Remaining witnesses for the state include the two state troopers, Harley Dixon, Donald Mellor, both of Piedmont and Charles R. Spiker, present Piedmont chief of police.

Witnesses for the defense include Betty Raker, address unlisted, Butler's son Charles, Mrs. Bartlett and Ellsworth S. Boal, Westernport undertaker.

Attorney Ryan and Joseph A. Blundon of Keyser, council for Butler said yesterday Butler will take the witness stand.
